Advertising rates low and liberal. Correspondents will please report any and all news to receive their papers regularly.

NEWS SUMMARY.

It is rumored that Bayard Taylor has been offered the mission to Russia or Bulgaria. Diaz has been recognized as President of Mexico by the Italian Government. It is said that Rear Admiral Rodgers, who is now in charge of the Naval Observatory, in Washington will be assigned to the command of the American squadron in European waters, in place of Rear Admiral John L. Worden. Rear Admiral Patterson, who has been ordered at the request of Rear Admiral Patterson, will have command of the Asiatic station in place of Rear Admiral Rodgers, who will return home in the Porpoise. The Porte has published a protest accusing the Russians of committing atrocities in both Asia and Europe. Renter's despatch from Constantinople says that the report of a battle at Plevna and the capture of the Russians were unconfirmed. A despatch from St. Petersburg denies that the Russians were repulsed at Bjela. It asserts that Bjela is now in the possession of the Russians. The Russians have forty battalions on the north side of Kars-Bulk. Their army and artillery have withdrawn in the hands of Alexander. The line between Yohkar Pasha's headquarters and Kars is completely free from Russian troops on the 4th inst. Mustapha Pasha, the new Governor of Kars, has left Kars with a reinforcement of 10,000 for the garrison of Kars. A Russian column has been defeated in the attempt to enter Ardanech, and driven back on Ardahan, where a great concentration of Russian troops is proceeding. The Czar has resolved finally to cross the Danube and see as much of the war as possible. The Czar will be appointed to the chief command of the army designed for the siege of Rytshank. A dispatch dated Erzeroum, Sunday, says the Russians are advancing into the Olti Valley. It is believed this movement is in consequence of their withdrawal from other points. The Turks are moving troops to resist them. A Montreal dispatch to the Journal says there is every prospect of an exciting scene there Thursday, when the Orange-men are to come down from Canada. Great numbers to take part in the procession, which the Montreal Orange-men have decided on having at all hazards. The Russian expedition against Turcomans is retreating from Kars towards Krasnovodsk. The Edinburgh Theatre, in Liverpool, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. A man Del Norte, Colorado, consumed two barrels, including the postoffice and San Juan bank buildings, and other property valued at $200,000. Col. J. W. Woodruff, the oldest officer on the New York division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, died at Elizabeth City, N. J., of paralysis. The Merchants' Loan and Trust Company of Patterson, N. J., has suspended. The depositors are probably safe. The stockholders will lose heavily. A whirlwind struck the town of Pensauken, Wisconsin, Sunday, tearing out three houses. Six persons were known to be killed. Twenty were wounded, and five are missing. Abdul Kerim is said to be fortifying the line from Shumla to Jambah, to defend the city. The Turks evacuated the city on Friday morning, after the battle. They fell back on the line of Ruzhchuck. A battle is imminent near Tirnova. The Daily Telegraph's special from Erzeroum, Sunday, confirms the report that the Russians have recommenced the bombardment of Kars, and adds that they are forming an entrenched camp on the eastern side of the city. A dispatch from Paris to the Daily News says R. Boucher and other leading Bonapartists have gone to Chateaubert for a special council. The Bremen Weser says that Russia is not unfriendly to Russia, and that the eve of war it was discovered that only thirty per cent. of the Russian navy was seaworthy. Reinforcements for the Caucasian army are much delayed, because only five out of ten steamers of the Caspian flotilla are in a respectable condition.

Small packages of bilious fever are being brought in from the country and being held at fifty cents per package. In this connection we will state that the watermelon crop will be backward and small this season, but the cantaloupe crop promises to be very fine. So say the farmers.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Alarm over the Prosecution of the Returning Board.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The criminal proceedings against the members of the Louisiana Returning Board at New Orleans has caused a panic at the White House. Hayes is greatly alarmed, and his Cabinet are equally frightened. The letter of Wells to the President was a pathetic appeal for help in this the hour of his supreme peril and in it the old man insinuated that he would not be sacrificed as Packard had been. The report of George A. Sheridan, who came here post haste from New Orleans to inform the President of the actual situation there, added new dangers to the already threatening catastrophe. The Cabinet had determined that there was nothing possible to be done by the President save to appeal to Nicholls to keep the faith which, it is asserted, he pledged to the Presidential commission; but Sheridan reports that Nicholls is powerless, even if he was inclined to interfere. The prosecuting officers, from the Attorney-General down, are in dead earnest, and have already filed information against Wells, Anderson, Kenner, and Casenave. The Grand Jury is certain to indict, and back of the Attorney-General, District Attorney, and Grand Jury stands the powerful "White League," which will brook no interference by Nicholls. The court is in thorough sympathy with the people, and while Judge Whittaker is admitted to be an eminently fair and impartial officer, still he will not suffer the Executive power to exert the slightest influence upon the course of justice. It will be remembered that last winter, before Congress adjourned, and shortly after the Nicholls party obtained possession of the courts, Judge Whittaker, in his charge to the Grand Jury, called particular attention to the Returning Board, and suggested that an inquiry into the conduct of the members of that body would be a proper subject for the Grand Inquest of the parish to look into.

The President was so alarmed at the report of Sheridan that he requested ex-Gov. Brown of Tennessee, who was in Philadelphia, to come here, and at the same time Wayne MacVeagh was summoned. Brown got here night before last, and said to a friend yesterday that MacVeagh was to be here last evening. If MacVeagh did come he went direct to the Soldier's Home, where the President is staying, for he was not at any of the hotels. He usually stops at Wormley's, and in answer to inquiry there for Mr. MacVeagh this evening, the clerk said that he was expected last night, but did not come. A gentleman who has the means of knowing what goes on at the White House, writes me the following note this evening: I know that ex-Gov. John C. Brown of Tennessee, Wayne MacVeagh, and Gen. Joseph R. Hawley were summoned here by the President to confer with him about the prosecution of the members of the Returning Board. Brown got here last night and Hawley is expected to-morrow. I know that the President is more exercised over this matter than he has been on account of anything that has happened since he has been in the White House. One of the plans for stopping the prosecution of Wells, Anderson, Kenner and Casenave is to get Senators Gordon and Lamar to join in an effort to settle the matter. The near friends of the President charge that the "emissaries of Tilden" have started the prosecution of the Returning Board, and that these criminal proceedings are only the forerunners of more formidable proceedings to be instituted as soon as Congress meets. They also say that Packard is in the conspiracy and left New Orleans after all the proceedings had been concerted, so as to appear to have no connection with them.

The Review for the Summer.

Persons leaving the city for the various watering places, country residences or resorts, or those going abroad, can have the DAILY REVIEW mailed to any address by ordering the same at this office, at 15 cents for one week, 25 cents for two weeks, 40 cents for three weeks, 50 cents for one month, $1.50 for three months, $3. for six months, payable in advance at this office. United States postage prepaid.

ONE OF THE MOST WONDERFUL INVENTIONS of the age is DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER. It makes the science of cookery so simple and easy that a young child or the dullest servant can readily comprehend it. It makes a poor cook a good one, and a good one it raises to the rank of artist in the kitchen. The genuine is sold only in tin cans.

City Court.

Three colored youths were brought before His Honor, this morning, upon the charge of violating a city ordinance.

The names of the aforesaid youths are respectively James Tapps, Gaston Merrick and Charles Allen.

The offence committed was that of extinguishing a gas lamp corner of Orange and Sixth streets at the wee small hour of 2 o'clock, this morning.

The testimony went to prove that the actions of these boys were quite suspicious. It appears that officer Green, who was on duty in that section at the time, was watching their movements for some time and saw one of them climb up to the gas lamp, and take a quiet survey of Mr. Nehemiah's premises on the corner, before extinguishing the light, and feeling confident that their intentions were not the most honorable he immediately pounced down upon them and with the aid of officer Starling carried them safely to the guard house.

It is a good thing that we have enough policemen on duty now to enable the citizens upon the outskirts as well as those in the heart of the city to receive the proper protection, otherwise we might have had a robbery to have chronicled in this instance instead of an arrest.

The Mayor reserved his decision in the case and remanded the prisoners to their cells to be fed on bread and water. There being no further business the Court adjourned.

The North American Review.

The July-August issue of the North American Review is a happy number and presents a table of contents that must attract every thinking reader who desires to keep up with the course of events. First we have Judge Black's able article on the Electoral Commission, extracts from which have already been so extensively published; then Gen. McClellan gives us an able and interesting dissertation on the war in the East, accompanied by maps; this is followed by a sketch of Fitz-Greene Halleck, from the pen of Bayard Taylor, and this by a second paper on the American Constitution, written by Senator Morton.

The other articles are: Moral Reflections, by a Japanese Traveller; New Russia, by M. W. Hazeltine; How shall the Nation regain prosperity? by David A. Wells; Reformed Judaism, by Felix Adler; America in Africa, I., by Gilbert Haven. Published by James R. Osgood & Co., Boston. For sale by booksellers generally.

That Bridge.

Some time since the city donated $400 for the purpose of building a bridge across the railroad track on Sixth street, and some weeks ago work was commenced on the said bridge. The ends or abutments have been placed in position and a pile of lumber is lying in the street, but yet the people in that vicinity have no bridge. It hardly seems to us that the four hundred dollars could have been consumed in the work so far as it has progressed, but at all events the work ought to be completed for as it now stands it is useless.

Loss of the Annie Blaisdell.

The steam-tug Wm. Nyce arrived here late yesterday afternoon, having on board the Captain and crew of the schooner Annie Blaisdell, which went ashore on Frying Pan Shoals last Sunday morning, the tug having been despatched to her assistance that afternoon. The vessel was a three-masted schooner, of 373 tons burthen, bound from Philadelphia for Charleston, with 550 tons coal. The vessel and cargo will both prove a total loss. The former was valued at $14,000, hauled from Bath, Me., and was owned by Capt. Crowell, her commander, and merchants of Bath. The wreck lies nine miles to the shoreward of Frying Pan Lightship.

Another Pleasure in Prospect.

We are glad to learn that another excursion is to be given this month by the Young Catholic Friends' Society. The fine steamer Gaea, Worth has been secured for the occasion and the committee are already making such arrangements as will guarantee this as the most pleasant of the many pleasant excursions given by this Society. Thursday, the 26th inst., is named as the day.

Capt. Brock has some of the City carts at work this afternoon constructing new crossings near the Postoffice; a good move in the right direction.

We again remind the ladies that the retail dry goods establishments close their doors at 7 o'clock, every evening, except Saturday.

A Tub Race.

Newbern had a grand tub race on Saturday. There were six contestants and although the course was but fifty yards and back some of them succeeded in making the first stretch. But there were lots of fun for the spectators, though. Now, why can't we have something of the kind here to enliven us up a bit during these stagnant summer days?

County Meeting at Point Caswell.

In pursuance of the call of "Many Citizens" to hold a meeting at Point Caswell, on the 5th inst., for the purpose of consulting with each other as to the more eligible place to locate the Court House and other public buildings for Pender county, quite a number of the voters assembled, and after the usual ceremonies on such occasions Dr. Jas. F. Simpson was called to the chair, and John G. Parker, Esq., appointed Secretary. The Doctor explained the object of the meeting briefly, but clearly and pointedly.

After a full discussion, participated in by Dr. E. Porter, Dr. H. F. Murphy, Dr. Hanes, Capt. J. J. Pridden and Mr. R. B. Frayser, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1st, That we will oppose by all fair means, and to the utmost of our power, any and all efforts to abridge the rights of the people, and shall therefore use all honorable means to defeat the plans of those who would locate the county schemes and site of Pender county at any point on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad.

Resolved, 2nd, That as freemen we deprecate the act which would limit the privileges of the many for the aggrandizement of the few; and that we scorn the votary who worships at the gilded shrine of the almighty king of modern days, The Dollar.

Resolved, 3rd, That a County Convention be held at Lillington on the 21st of July, at which four delegates from each township, respectively, are cordially invited to attend, to confer with us and take some steps to settle the unfortunate agitation which now afflicts the minds of our people.

Resolved, 4th, That this meeting do now adjourn, with the request that its proceedings be published in the Wilmington Star and Review.

Whereupon the meeting adjourned, and the township meeting being called to order by L. Vollers in the chair, a committee of four, viz: Dr. James F. Simpson, L. Vollers, J. J. Pridden and David Glissom were appointed to nominate delegates to the convention to be held at Lillington on the 21st of July.

During their absence R. B. Frayser was called out and addressed the meeting. The committee reported as delegates to the convention, George W. Corbett, L. Vollers, John G. Parker and R. B. Frayser, after which it adjourned sine die.

Sensible Advice.

You are asked every day through the columns of newspapers and by your Druggist to use something for Dyspepsia and Liver complaint that you know nothing about; you get discouraged spending money with but little success. Audit is especially and particularly understood that the editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.

Some enterprising individual has erected a bath house on the West side of the river opposite the foot of Orange street.

A man could stand the flies and never lose his temper, if they would only be contented to be buried where they fall, but when a fly as big as a grain of coffee falls on its back or a slab of butter, turns over and crawls out, and goes limping across the plate, straggling and wading through every thing it can find, and finally cremates itself in a bath of hot coffee, good gracious, but it does make a person mad.
