THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. 2. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1877. NO. 173

NEWS SUMMARY.
Prof. O. W. Morris, late librarian of the Cooper Union, died Thursday evening at the home of his son, Dr. Moreau Morris, in his eightieth year. — A reunion of the members of the Free-soiler's party was held near Boston on Thursday. — The meeting held in Cincinnati on Thursday, repudiated Hayes. — A fire broke out at Waco, Texas, destroyed the dry goods store of Lyons, Lyndenthal & Co., and the hardware store of Erkel & Burnett. The losses on stock and buildings were $120,000; insurance $80,000. — The general impression prevails, from all that can be learned, that Joseph, with a chain of his band of hostiles, has gone to the head of the Bitter Root Valley, with the intention of working their way back to the Little Salmon river. Gen. Howard will pursue him to the uttermost. — Dissatisfaction in New York and Brooklyn with Hayes' Civil Service Reform order. — At the Cabinet meeting yesterday, it was determined to appoint a commission from Canada, to arrange for the extradition of Sitting Bull and his braves. — Assistant Secretary McCormick will call another $10,000,000 of bonds in a few days, on account of the four per cent. — President Hayes has promised to consider the application of a delegation of Germans, who desire representation of the Fatherland on the police. — On dit, that important papers bearing against McKee, of the St. Louis Globe, in a civil suit connected with whiskey frauds, is not on file in the Attorney General's office. Pardon clerk (they, who had them in custody, think they were stolen. — Rev. W. H. Clark, Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Augusta, Ga., died suddenly yesterday morning of paralysis, while at the bedside of a parishioner who had just died. Mr. Clark was a native of Georgia, coming here to Augusta in 1861. He was universally beloved. — In the Virginia Convention Gen. Mahone's name was withdrawn yesterday and Hon. F. M. W. Holliday was nominated for Governor, the nomination being equivalent to an election. They won't all take a holiday yet awhile though as the summer is not a repudiationist. — The statement has been made that a secret convention of delegates from the labor organizations throughout the country would be held at Philadelphia today and that the Convention would represent thousands of workmen. — The Russians are in force at Kain Baghaz where a battle is imminent unless they abandon the Balkans. — Great numbers of troops continue to arrive from Russia, and also mounted troops from the Danube. — Confirmation has been received at Constantinople, of the rumors that the Russians were defeated at Plevna, as reported. Fighting is reported as still going on. The Russians number 80,000, but the strength of the Turkish entrenched position is considered to compensate for the numerical inferiority.

Georgia Repudiates.
ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 9.—In convention today, upon the repudiation question, Gov. Jenkins spoke in favor of remitting the claims upon the State to adjudication by the Supreme Court of the State. He favored a fair legal investigation, and a judicial determination of the rights of the alleged bondholders. Gen. Toombs repudiated repudiation, saying that the State was not bound for a single dollar appropriated under the reconstruction government, that it was an usurpation by the act of the bayonet, and the world had no more to do with the de facto officers who without the consent or authority of the people of Georgia, had declared the bonds illegal, and void, and prohibiting the Legislature from paying them, directly or indirectly. The proceeds of the sales of the State bonds are to be set apart to extinguish the debt. A sinking fund of $100,000 per annum, to purchase the bonds of the State for the purpose of retiring them, is established.

The People Want Proof.
There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and cures for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the Throat and Lungs, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that is that any person afflicted, can get a Bottle for 10 cents and try it. It is a wonderful cure before buying the regular one at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced into this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing. Try one of those that use it. Three doses will cure any case. Try it.

County Court convenes next day and Judge McKoy will preside.

Platt D. Walker, Esq., of Charlotte, is in the city on a short visit to his relatives and friends.

Joint services in St. James' and St. John's to-morrow, in the morning at St. John's and in the afternoon at St. James'.

day's issue the pleasure of a call, on the day previous, from our good friend W. W. McDiarmid, Esq., of the Lumberton Robesonian.

But one internment, a child, brought here from another place for burial, in Oakdale Cemetery this week, but one, a child, in Bellevue, and one adult and two children in Pine Forest.

John E. Taylor, a worthy young colored man in this city, has been appointed route agent between this city and Charlotte, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Col. Sinclair.

Signor Martini was out with the Cornet Concert Club last evening, and his clarinet was quite an addition. Signor Martini is a fine musician and has kindly offered his service to the club for their open air concerts.

The attention of housekeepers is directed to advertisement, of Mr. Reuben Jones, green grocer, corner Front and Second streets. He keeps continually on hand a good supply of fruits, vegetables, &c., and he sells everything at low prices.

UNSCRUPULOUS DEALERS have tried to flinch from Dooley Brothers talent and reputation. DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is always sold in cans, and is absolutely full weight. Be sure you get the right article and it will be a blessing to the household, and a saving to the purse.

Unmailable Letters.
The following is a list of unmailable letters remaining in the city postoffice:
Charles T. Chester, Box 2,766 Po., New York; Addie Morris, Magnolia, N. C.; Miss Jennette Cobb, Berryville, Clark Co., Va.; Alfred Robinson, Moore N. C. Box 55; Mrs. Mary A. Rutland, Smithville, N. C.

On Dit.
That the Knights of Pythias of our sister town of Fayetteville propose, at an early day, or rather night we should say, taking a midnight trip on the Gov. Worth from the old town of Fayetteville to Wilmington, and thence to the mouth of the river.

The excursionists will leave Fayetteville at night by the light of the next full moon and reach Wilmington the following morning; spend the day in this city and proceed on down the river the following night; return here by daylight the next morning and then continue the voyage back to Fayetteville. Here will be a fine opportunity for all lovers—of poetry and music to enjoy themselves under the genial and inspiring rays of the queen of the night, and to indulge in sentiment and song—and so forth and so on.

Shooting Stars.
There was quite a meteorological display in the heavens last evening between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock. We began to think of that long shower of meteors, but not having seen anything of the kind predicted for this period we were almost inclined to think that the noted astronomers had failed to do their duty in not posting us of their coming.

Cornet Concert.
A large number of citizens assembled around the stage last evening to listen to the music, but owing to the severe illness of a lady in the neighborhood, the assembly was asked to adjourn to the Opera House park. Some few retired to their homes but the number who followed the band was sufficient to tickle the pride of the vainest of the members of the C. C. Club. We have never heard the band acquit itself more handsomely than it did last night, though we were not altogether satisfied because of the fact that there was not enough of the music. Gentlemen of the band every one says the same. So next time give a twenty-four seige of it.

The Thermometer.
From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:
Augusta, 78; Cairo, 77; Charleston, 80; Cincinnati, 67; Corsicana, 73; Fort Gibson 72; Galveston, 81; Indianola, 81; Jacksonville, 84; Key West, 86; Knoxville, 64; Lynchburg, 72; Memphis, 76; Mobile, 73; Montgomery, 73; Nashville, 74; New Orleans, 81; New York, 70; Norfolk, 74; Pittsburgh, 70; Punta Rasa, 78; Savannah, 80; Shreveport, 77; St. Louis 73; St. Marks, 73; Vicksburg, 77; Washington 69; Wilmington, 74.

City Court.
Two old offenders were brought up before His Honor, the Mayor pro tem, this morning, who after a patient hearing of the evidence were summarily disposed of as follows:
Dick Boston, for disorderly conduct on the streets, $5—or five days in the cell and bread and water.

George Washington, ah! how have the mighty fallen! who was found sleeping on the piazza of a private residence, corner of Second and Dock streets, was fined $3—or five days in the solitude of a cell, there perhaps to meditate upon the chances and changes of this uncertain life.

Both of the offenders failing to furnish the amount of their fines were accordingly locked up.

The court then adjourned.

Special Term.
A special term of the City Court was held this morning at 10 o'clock after the regular term of the morning, to try the case of Gerrit Walker, for refusing to pay the cart tax of ten cents, imposed by the city on all carts coming to this market.
It is proposed, or was proposed, to make this a test case to decide the constitutionality of the City Ordinance, and to that end we understand a number of our farmers in the neighborhood of Wilmington have joined hands with Mr. Walker upon his refusal to pay the tax. Mr. Walker was yesterday arrested by a warrant from Mayor Flanner and the trial fixed for today at 10 o'clock. At the request of the counsel for the defendant, the case was continued by His Honor, the Mayor, until Tuesday next at 10 o'clock. Continuing, however, upon Walker and others continuing to pay the tax in the meantime. This arrangement concurred in on all sides the court adjourned.

Maj. Jno. W. Dunham.
The Wilson Advance is publishing some reminiscences of its town, and we clip the following from an article in its this week's issue:
Maj. Dunham commenced the practice of law about this time and was afterwards associated with Col. Kenan. In 1870 he was elected to the House and in 1872 represented this District with W. K. Davis Esq., of Franklin, in the Senate. Maj. D. is a fluent writer and able debator, and occupied a prominent position in the Legislature. He was one of the first volunteers from the county, and proved a brave and gallant soldier. He was severely wounded in the leg which has caused him great suffering and pain.
Maj. Dunham removed to Wilmington in 1873 where he at present resides. He was elected by the Legislature last winter Clerk of the Criminal Court of that city without solicitation on his part, which was evidence of his great personal popularity and a small tribute to his patriotic services in behalf of his native State.

Freak of Nature.
We saw this morning twin cantaloupes which were large and perfectly developed. They joined together on the side, the connecting ligaments being very nearly in the middle. This is a freak of nature we have never seen or heard of before. He have seen twin apples, peaches, etc., and generally one of them would be an abortion, but such was not the case with the cantaloupes.

County Commissioners.
The Board met in adjourned session yesterday afternoon:
The meeting being called to order, proceeded to act upon the tax valuations of the Wilmington Compress and the Wilmington Gas-Light Companies.
Col. W. L. DeRoset appeared before the Board, in accordance with their request, representing the interest of the Compress Company, and Messrs. Donald Mccrae and R. J. Jones, representing the interest of the Gas-Light Company, to consult as to the increase of tax on the stock of the respective companies.

It was ordered, that the tax list having now been revised and all applications having been heard and acted on, no more applications for reduction of assessments for the current year will be entertained by the Board.

On motion, the Board took a recess until this afternoon.

Criminal Court.
The following cases have been disposed of in this Court since our last report:
State vs. Louisa Grotgen, for larceny. Not guilty.

State vs. Thomas Weeks, for larceny. Defendant submitted and was sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for five years.

State vs. Thomas Weeks, for larceny. Judgment suspended.

State vs. Haywood Howard, for larceny. Defendant found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary, or two years.

State vs. Larry Neal, convicted of larceny. Defendant sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for five years.

State vs. Haywood Howard, for larceny. Guilty.

State vs. Richard Hopkins, for larceny. Not guilty.

State vs. John Bush, convicted of larceny. Defendant sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the work house.

State vs. Si Williams, arraigned on a peace warrant. Case dismissed upon the payment of costs.

State vs. Scott B. Sanders, charged with perjury and assault and battery. Cases continued, and defendant required to enter into a justified bond in the sum of $100 in each case.

State vs. William Gordon, charged with assault and battery. Case left open.

State vs. G. C. Shields, arraigned on a peace warrant. Case dismissed upon the payment of costs.

Judgement nisi was entered in a number of cases where defendants and witnesses were called and failed.

State vs. James Heaton. Defendant submits in all cases and pays moneys due. Recognized with James Wilson as surety.

State vs. Wm. Burney, on a peace warrant. Case dismissed on payment of costs.

State vs. John Cunningham, for larceny. Not guilty.

State vs. Arlington Howard, for assault and battery. Guilty. Fined $1 and costs.

Several cases were continued and several others, in which the defendants were charged with selling liquor on Sunday, were disposed of.

Will Cure Consumption.
To all suffering from the following diseases a ray of hope is offered through the kindness of a missionary friend who has sent me the formula of a purely vegetable medicine which has long been used by the native medicine men of Hindostan:—for the positive and radical cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Throat and Lung difficulty, General Debility, Loss of Manhood and all Nervous Affections, its power has been tested in hundreds of cases without a failure. I now feel it my sacred duty as far as possible to relieve human misery and will send the recipe—FREE OF CHARGE—to any person who may desire it with directions for using. Sent by return mail by addressing with 2 stamps, naming this paper, Dr. O. R. Brigham, Drawer 28, Utica, N. Y.
