A dramatic performance is to be given at Lilesville on the 22d inst, for the benefit of the M. E. Church at that place.
Robesonian: This is the season for protracted meetings, and we learn there are quite a number of them in progress in this county.

Hillsboro Recorder: Mr. W. H. Lloyd, living four miles West of Chapel Hill, informs us that from eight pounds of the Winter Shoemaker Wheat, received from the Agricultural Department at Washington, he cleaned out five and a half bushels, or forty to one. And we learn that Mr. Marion Terry, living near South Lowell, sowed four drilled (we don't know which) 3 pecks of wheat on a piece of ground nearly three acres in extent, from which he made sixty-three bushels.

Blessed is the man who gives his wife ten cents without asking what she is going to do with it.
It is no longer the bully boy with the glass eye, but "the bovine gentleman with the crockery optic."
Why is a pretty young woman like corn in a time of scarcity? Because she ought to be husbanded.
A mayor out west has determined to kill half the dogs in the city and tan their hide with the bark of the other half.
Some genius proposes to introduce paper shirts. But a shirt made out of a story paper would have too many tales.
Little Johnnie is quite sure the picture of a Spitz dog he drew on the parlor wall was good, because it made his father mad.
If there's anything that the public ought to know, it is that there is a man in Chicago named J. Confucius McGillucuddy.
The dulliest month of all the twelve is believed to be August, but it will soon have passed and then again may we expect brighter times.
An old English idea—that a cheese is not fit to eat until you can put your ear to it and hear the inhabitants scratching for liberty.
To clean tinware: Dampen a cloth and dip in soda and rub briskly, after which wipe dry. Any blackened ware can be made to look as well as new.

arrived at the fair grounds yesterday morning two fast trotters from Lancaster, Penn., entered by Mr. Pace, of Warren county, this State. They are sent thus early in order to be thoroughly trained for the occasion. Besides these, Mr. E. Pomeroy has in regular course of training his own horse, "Joe Kelly," "Buck Shin," owned by Mr. Robert Williams, "Skipper," owned by Mr. Geo. Williams, and "Widow McGree," owned by Dr. James McKee, all of which have been entered for the trotting purse. Mr. W. H. Lyon has entered his fast mare Jennie Morgan. It is also stated that Mr. McMackin has a "dark horse," or a horse yet in the dark, to enter for the 2:35 purse of $500. The usual number of running animals will be on hand and more besides. Altogether, the prospect for a week of rare enjoyment to lovers of turf sports is highly encouraging.

Charlotte Observer: Dr. H. C. Walker, of Blanton, who was shot by Edward Kirkpatrick in Lincoln county about ten days ago, arrived in this city yesterday evening on the Carolina Central train and went homeward from here driven by a brother of young Kirkpatrick. He is looking badly but is in good spirits. The young man who did the shooting is again at home. As neither of the parties to the difficulty bear malice to wards the other, it is expected that a reconciliation will soon be effected.

Elizabeth City Economist's Currantuck news: In Poplar Branch, the lightning has been very severe. On 28th (Saturday) a little son of Peter Parks was killed. Last week, at Van Slyck's landing, a man fell from the mast head of a vessel loading with melons, and was instantly killed. A vessel lying in North River was struck by lightning on Saturday (July 28th) and her foremast torn out. The crew were not injured. Fifteen vessels loaded with melons, and sailed on Saturday, for Norfolk.

Raleigh News: We are informed by a young lady who was visiting in the country on Sunday, that an old lady, going to a look washing on that day, in the neighborhood of Forestville, fell from the buggy she was riding in and dislocated her neck, but a doctor in the neighborhood who happened to be passing, set the matter right, and the old lady went on her way to her foot-washing. This is rather a singular story, but we tell it as 'twas told us. The old lady's neck or something else about the matter is rather tough.

Edmonton Times: A few days ago a sentimental Othello who dwells in Bertie, thought to test the love of his sable Desdemona by hanging himself. Procuring a cord, he tied it around his neck—then mounting a stool-bench he fastened it to a post of his lowly cot, and declared his intention, which he had no idea of fulfilling, in his endeavors to frighten his doubtful spouse. The stool tilted and left him swinging with the end of his toes touching the floor. His wife who seemed to take it as a joke, let him swing until the old head nearly hit him, before she cut him down. He says no more hanging for him, although he is still dubious of his help mate.

Raleigh Observer: Among the large number of letters received at the Executive office yesterday was one from a young man from a Western county who, as stated in his letter, was 14 years, 6 months and 9 days old, addressed to the Governor and signed Zeb Vance. "I am informed," said he, "that you are giving a premium of $5 in cash and a chromo to all the boys like you that is named 'Zeb Vance,' and please send mine by post-office order at once." The Governor returned incorrectly informed as to the $5 premium that will doubtless be highly appreciated by the youthful Zeb. V. We remember to publish this little incident as a success in the numerous army of Zeb. Vance in the State that there is no truth in the State $5 and a chromo would, except the Executive in three day's time, come in.

Raleigh Observer: The prospect for a week of first-class turf sporting during the fair is highly encouraging. There
