Donations for the Premium List of the Next State Fair.
We beg to call attention to the following magnificent donations for the premium list of our Fair, by the old and reliable firm of T. Miles & Son, manufacturers of South Fourth street, Philadelphia, Pa., through the aid of our esteemed chairman of the Executive Committee, A. Creech, who has been dealing with this firm for many years. They accompany their donation with very attractive cards, for general distribution at the Fair. We think this superb example of liberality will be made known by our brethren of the press throughout the State.

Brunswick Court commences to-day at Smithville.
August, the last Summer month, has but four days left.
A stone gutter is being constructed on the North side of Walnut street running through from Fourth to Front.
Mr. Dan O'Connor, next door to the Court House, is purchasing old county warrants and claims and paying the highest market rates for them.
Deacons Atkinson and Lyman were both in Asheville last week and both served in the Episcopal Church in that place on the Sunday of last week, the 19th inst.
A lot of weeds were cut down by order of the city authorities a few days since in the vacant premises just South of the Post office and they are there yet, rotting in the mud and not adding much to the health of the neighborhood.
Rev. Geo. Patterson, D. D., of this city, served in St. Paul's Church in Augusta yesterday morning. This is the church of which the late Rev. Mr. Clarke, who died so suddenly a few weeks ago, was the pastor.
Quite Sick.
We regret to learn that Capt. W. S. Norment, Solicitor for this judicial district, is very sick at his residence in this City. His duties as Solicitor at Brunswick Court will be attended to by Jno. D. Bellamy, Esq.
Unavailable Letters.
The following is the list of unavailable letters remaining in the city postoffice:
Chr. Pierson, Nor. Bark "Jues," Capt., Lande, care of Nor. & Sw. Consulate Halifax, N. S.
Dyeing and Cleaning.
We invite attention to the advertisement of the Dyeing and Cleaning house on Market street, North side, between Second and Third. Those who have had work done there speak in very favorable terms of it. The proprietor is also agent for the celebrated Staten Island Dyeing Works.
It is said that laurel leaves procured from the common laurel tree, when scalded will be found a good sedative poultice for the purpose of allaying neuralgia.

City Court.
The Mayor pro tem. had quite an interesting session this morning in the way of items for a reporter, there being no less than three cases for His Honor's investigation, which were disposed of as follows:
The first case called was that of George Reid, for cutting Charlotte Haggie in the arm with a pen knife on last Friday evening, the trial having been postponed until this morning at defendant's request on account of the absence of witnesses. Three dirty looking wenches appeared as witnesses for the prosecution, among them Charlotte Haggie herself, and all testified in substance as follows: That as Charlotte Haggie, Dora Williams and Emma Haggie were walking down Front street, on Friday afternoon, that the defendant, George Reid, made some remark about "there goes barefoot," which brought about an altercation between Charlotte Haggie and George Reid, when the latter drew his pen knife and stabbed Charlotte Haggie in the left arm, after having previously cursed and abused her. Some of the defendant's witnesses testified that he attempted to rid himself of the women by walking away from them, and that he was followed up by the women, who crowded around him when he turned and cut the woman Charlotte Haggie with his knife. None of the witnesses for the defense seemed to have any knowledge of the commencement of the difficulty. The Mayor pro tem. pronounced judgment against the defendant in the shape of a fine of ten dollars or ten days imprisonment. The parties to the difficulty are all colored.
The boy George Reid is the son of very respectable colored parents, and the women are miserable, filthy, loose characters, who are said to spend the most of their time on the streets, both day and night. His Honor, no doubt, took all this into consideration in rendering judgment.
The next case was that of Fred Williams, colored, charged with creating a disturbance on the street and insulting officer Greene of the night police force while in the discharge of his duty. Williams was arrested Saturday night by officer Green and taken to the guard house, but was subsequently released on bail for his appearance at the City Court this morning.
Officer Greene testified on oath, that he had been complained to by several citizens, on Saturday night, prior to his making the arrest, that Williams and his crowd of strollers, whom he was paying off on Market street, were a nuisance, and that he had notified the defendant twice before arresting him that he must keep quiet, and that finally he ordered him to leave the street with his crowd, and that the defendant refused to obey him, that he then told him, if he did not leave he would arrest him, that the defendant told him he couldn't arrest him, whereupon he placed his hand in his collar and made the arrest.
Ben Williams and Funny Moore swore in substance that Fred Williams was not making any noise and that when the policeman told him to consider himself under arrest, that the defendant told him he couldn't arrest him, whereupon he placed his hand in his collar and made the arrest.

Pass It Along.
Over the fields comes a fragrance sweet,
And the joy of summer won't be complete,
Could I catch the sound of her coming feet,
O'ld song.
Could I feel her charming presence near,
Could I watch and waiting, see or hear
The soothing flap of her sunny hair,
St. Louis Journal.
Could I see, where morning zephyr blows,
The pearly tints of the dawn disclose,
The bloom on the end of her red, red nose,
Hawkeye.
When across the cross-lot lane she sighs,
She moans, whistling through the farm,
And watch the cross of her cross-eyes,
Ex. (dorsotell).
Along the stubble, against the storm,
She moans, whistling through the farm,
Her bustle slung over her freckled arm,
New York Graphic.
The flowers bloom brighter where she stands,
And I'd ask for neither gold nor land,
Could I softly press her warty hands,
Norristown Herald.
Ane when the sun goes down, gold red,
And her sweet smile splits off half of her head
The barkeeper asks me what I said,
New York Herald.
And I'd twine sunflowers in her cardinal
hair,
And I'd swear that her freckled face was fair,
That her tufted mole was a treasure rare,
Norfolk Virginian.
And when with a smile, both tender and sweet,
She calmly unfolds her No. 6 feet,
I'd—take a back seat,

No Tax on Paintings.
Mr. C. E. Burr, proprietor of Burr's Oceanic, is in receipt of a letter from the State Treasurer in response to an enquiry forwarded to the Attorney-General in reference to the tax on his exhibition, which says that "Section 3, Schedule, B, of the Revenue Act exempts from State and County taxation, the exhibition of the paintings mentioned." Mr. Harlow, Mr. Burr's agent, had already paid the tax to the Register of Deeds and holds his receipt therefor. He will at once make application to have the amount refunded.

Caught.
A man living in Paddy's Hollow has had reason to suspect his wife of infidelity to her marriage vows and on yesterday laid a trap to catch her. The unsuspected female and her paramour stepped into it and were caught. Just about that time a message from the police came for the police stationed in the Hollow, stating war was going on and required his instant attention. During the absence of the police from the Hollow the outraged husband laid the lash upon his faithless "other half." They were afterwards arrested and carried to the station house to answer to the charge of disorderly conduct.

A Hungry Thief.
Some time between 11 o'clock Saturday night and early Sunday morning some one entered the grocery establishment of Mr. James C. Stevenson, on Market street, and after replenishing his dyspeptic pocket-book and satiating his appetite quietly left. An entrance into the establishment was made by prizing off one of the iron bars across the back window. When admission had been gained the thief took a large fine looking ham and sliced about as much as he could consume and left the remainder on the counter; he then topped off with the candy and oranges, which were near the front window, lit a cigar, paid his respects to the till and left the establishment. From appearances it was one of the coolest and boldest robberies we have ever heard of. Mr. Stevenson's loss was light. The thief was either frightened off or simply went in for a square meal and a very little pocket change.

The Thermometer.
From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:
Augusta, 75; Cairo, 74; Charleston, 81; Cincinnati, 68; Corsicana, 71; Fort Gibson, 74; Galveston, 82; Indianola, 85; Jacksonville, 81; Key West, 81; Knoxville, 61; Lynchburg, 74; Memphis, 27; Mobile, 79; Montgomery, 76; Nashville, 73; New Orleans, 74; New York, 71; Norfolk, 77; Pittsburgh, 62; Punta Rasa, 78; Savannah, 81; Shreveport, 70; St. Louis, 74; St. Marks, 78; Vicksburg, 74; Washington, 74; Wilmington, 77.

The Present Superiority of the age over the past is largely determined by the excellence and cheapness of articles of daily use. Among these must be preferred such a household boon as DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, which is the ruling favorite with the public. The cans are always full weight, and the powder itself pure, strong and perfect in its adaptations of use.

An entrance from Front street to Furmanski's Barber shop, under the National Bank, is being made.

Store Robbed.
From a gentleman, just from Shelby, we learn that the store of Messrs Suttle & Bostic Bros., was burglariously entered on Friday night and the thieves succeeded in carrying off about $500 worth of goods. There is no clue as to the perpetrators of the theft.

Fine Tobacco.
We were shown this morning a tobacco leaf measuring 2 1/2 feet in length and 18 inches broad, raised on the plantation of Claus Schriver, Esq., on Sturgeon creek, about ten miles from the city. It is said the leaf is not fully developed as yet. Mr. Schriver has a field cultivated in tobacco of which the leaf is but a sample. We think people are beginning to learn that fine tobacco can be raised in the east.

Pender Commissioners.
The Board of County Commissioners for Pender county met at Burgaw this morning. We have no advices of the proceedings as our informant left before the session had concluded, but it is more than probable that they will 40-day proclaim Burgaw as the county seat, and it is also thought that they will at once make arrangements for the erection of a temporary Court House building. They meet again next Monday, the session to-day having been adjourned from a meeting held last Monday at South Washington.

Watermelon Patch Robbed.
Thursday night last, John McKoy, colored, living at Hilton, had his watermelon patch robbed of fifteen of the choicest of his melons and on Friday night he determined to watch for his nocturnal visitors. Armed with a shot gun and followed by three hounds he took his "stand" under a tree near the patch. He had hardly seated himself when he heard voices and the dogs commenced to bark. McKoy saw three men crawl over the fence and fired upon them. He ran them for some time but they escaped through a swamp. On going back to the fence to see what effect his shot had, he found a black felt hat and a revolver (7 shots) on the ground, which the thieves dropped on their hasty retreat. They can obtain them by calling on John and proving the property.

About The Last of the Season.
The Whiting Rifles will give an excursion to Smithville and Bald Head on the barge MODOC on Thursday next 8th inst, which will probably be about the last excursion of the season.
During the last few days the MODOC has been made more comfortable by the addition of a new awning covering the entire upper and lower decks, giving ample room for four sets of dancers at a time on each deck. The saloon is large and comfortable, with state rooms opening into it and a feature of this excursion will be the presence of a female servant to attend to their wants. Refreshments will be served on board at city prices, a good string band will be taken along for the accommodation of the dancers and every effort will be made to ensure the comfort and enjoyment of those who are present. The price of tickets has been reduced, the object of the company being to raise funds for the purchase of uniforms.

The People Want Proof.
There is no medicine prescribed by physicians, or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtue of BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing every one that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it.

Beef has advanced a little in this market it now being worth 2 1/2 to 3 cts on the hoof.
