LATEST NEWS.

Fabulous Wealth—Meiggs Still Alive.

PANAMA, Sept. 26.—The Cerro de Pazo mines in Peru are attracting general attention. The works are being pressed forward with all possible dispatch. A distinguished engineer has given his opinion that above the present water level of the mines, there are 250,000,000 tons of metal that will yield six marks, or $60 to the ton of three tons, that is to say, $20 per ton. He says the Cerro de Pazo will produce more silver than all the mines in the world.

From Peru we have intelligence that Mr Henry Meiggs was still alive on the 12th inst., and hopes were entertained that he might at least partly recover. His loss at this time would be considered a national calamity.

Prince Jerome Napoleon's Canvass for the Assembly—Gambetta's Manifesto.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—Prince Jerome Napoleon has arrived at Ajaccio to prosecute his canvass as the Republican candidate there. He encountered a hostile demonstration, and some disturbances occurred. The Prince has written to M. Fourton, Minister of the Interior, complaining of the conduct of the authorities and police. He says bloodshed was only averted by the efforts of his friends.

The evening papers announce that M. Gambetta's manifesto to his constituents will appear to-morrow. It is said that it more particularly attacks President MacMahon, disclaiming to notice the Ministers, as the President has virtually assumed their responsibility.

The Speakership.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Morrison, of Illinois, arrived here last night, and announced himself a candidate for Speaker of the House. He does not take a sanguine view of the situation, and privately admits that Randall will be elected. Neither does Morrison appear satisfied with the political situation. He thinks the Southern members are too anxious to satisfy Northern Democrats, and that they mean to stick to the party organization. This, he thinks, is the reason they so generally support Randall. Morrison is in favor of a short session. He thinks the House ought to pass the army bill without delay and then adjourn. It is a little singular that this is precisely what the Administration wants the House to do.

This Morning's Fire.
The alarm of fire this forenoon was caused by the igniting of a small frame building on Seventh between Ann and Nunn streets. The fire was extinguished before the fire department could reach the scene.

Blue Fishing.
The blue fishing is said to be very fine this season. On Friday last so many fish were caught that the amateur fishermen did not know what to do with them. One of our friends caught one hundred and eighty with a hook and line during the morning.

Severely Wounded.
Saturday night last some one threw a stone through the window of the residence of Jno. Stokes, colored, on the corner of Fourth and Harnett streets. The stone struck Stokes on the head inflicting a severe wound. The guilty party is suspected and will no doubt be apprehended and the full measure of the law meted out to him.

Death of a Citizen.
Mr. James Deans, for a long time a book-keeper for Messrs. E. Kidder & Sons, died at his residence in this city, corner Fifth and Ann streets, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Deans has for a long time been suffering with some constitutional complaint and on yesterday death released him from his suffering. His remains were interred to-day.

They All Do It
Is the title of a little book now before us, from the presses of Messrs. Lee & Shepard, Boston, which contains a collection of a number of the best things yet uttered by the pen of the "Danbury man." It comprises numerous funny things at which an elephant might laugh although the author solemnly assures us that its pages are unspiced by a simple pun. It is a good thing to "laugh and grow fat" over.

The Spectroscope.
We have been kindly permitted to publish the very interesting paper prepared by Eugene S. Martin Esq., and read before the Historical and Scientific Society on last Monday evening. It will be found on the third page of this issue and is well worthy of a careful perusal. It will be noticed that the publication of this paper does not in any way curtail our usual supply of reading matter.

A Wilmington Boy.

We notice that our old friend and schoolmate, Horatio Davis, Esq., a native of this city, but now editor of the Chatham (Va.) Tribune, is a candidate for the house of delegates from that county. Mr. Davis was a member of Col. Cowan's old battery during the war and was captured by one of Virginia's fair daughters, returning soon after its close to ratify the terms of capitulation, and has now been a resident of the old Dominion for nearly ten years. He is half-brother to Hon. Geo. Davis, of this city. We shall be glad to hear some of these days that he is a representative from his district in Congress.

Tremendous Tides.

The winds and the freshet together seem to have met just at this point and the consequence is one of the highest tides known here in many years. The water this forenoon was within a very few inches of the caps of some of the wharves, while at Market and Mulberry streets it filled the docks and flowed into the streets. At Eagle Island, opposite the city, the causeway is covered and the floods have made their way into Maj. Reiley's office at the ferry dock. So far as we have learned there has been no damage to property hereabouts although the small animals in the swamps on Eagle Island are probably having a rough time of it. The water at this point was from 2 to 2 1/2 feet above high water mark and higher than many can recollect to have ever seen it before.

General Orders No 11.

The following is a copy of General Orders 11, just issued from the office of the Adjutant-General at Raleigh, under date of October 5th, relative to the movements of the various commands of the N. C. S. G., in their attendance at the State Fair next week:

I. The commanding officers of the First, Second and Third Battalions of Infantry are hereby instructed to assemble their respective commands, with the exception of Company "D" of the Second Battalion, at Camp Russell, in the city of Raleigh at or before 10 a. m., on Tuesday, the 16th inst.

The commanding officer of the Cape Fear Light Artillery, with his company and two pieces, will report, in marching order, at the above named Camp on Wednesday, the 17th inst., at or before 11 a. m.

II. The troops will move from their respective headquarters, and be transported to Raleigh, as follows:

THIRD BATTALION.

Company "C," on Monday, October 15th, from Statesville, over the Western North Carolina and North Carolina Division of Richmond & Danville Railroads, via Salisbury.

ARTILLERY.

The Cape Fear Light Artillery, on Tuesday, October 16th, from Wilmington, over the Wilmington & Weldon and Raleigh & Gaston Railroads, via Weldon.

The two pieces, accompanied by a detachment of one officer and four privates, will be shipped from Wilmington on Monday, October 15th, over the Wilmington & Weldon and North Carolina Division of Richmond & Danville Railroads, via Goldsboro.

III. As to the schedules under which the troops will be transported over the railroads special instructions will be given the several commands, who will govern themselves in their movements accordingly.

IV. Free transportation will be furnished over the routes designated in paragraph II. of this order, coming and returning, to the officers, privates and musicians of the North Carolina State Guard belonging to the battalions and companies named in paragraph I., who shall have been regularly commissioned, enlisted or appointed, and who shall appear in the uniform of their respective commands. Substitutes will not be allowed.

V. Each detachment will be commanded on its route by the senior officer of the line present and will, on arrival at Raleigh, proceed directly to Camp Russell and occupy the quarters assigned to it.

VI. Companies "A," "B" and "E" of the Third Battalion are hereby temporarily assigned to the First Battalion, until further orders, and the commanding officers of each of these companies will upon arrival at Camp, report for orders and instructions to the commanding officer.

The two companies of Artillery will be commanded by the senior Captain present.

VII. All troops will appear in heavy marching order, with blankets, and each company must depend upon itself for subsistence during the encampment—a period of three days.

VIII. The United States Army regulations governing encampments will be followed.

IX. The commanding officers of the several Battalions will, upon arrival at Camp Russell, report for further orders and instructions to the Chief of Staff, who is charged with the execution of this order.

Burr's Oceanicon.

We are pleased to learn that Burr's Oceanicon will be exhibited here next Thursday evening, and we are assured that it will be the last time this season. The Opera House has been secured for the occasion and as there are many of our citizens who have not yet seen these works of art and interest, we predict for Mr. Burr a full house on the occasion.

The Old Arctic.

The light ship on Frying Pans had not been driven from her moorings, as was reported last week, but we understand that she is to be condemned and taken off the station and to be replaced by another vessel now being prepared for the service. The present light ship, the Arctic, has a history of her own, she having been one of the vessels composing Dr. Kane's expedition, many years ago, to the North Pole.

The River.

The freshet seems to have spent its force in the upper waters of the Cape Fear and its greatest volume has reached and flooded the low country. On Saturday last, at Fayetteville, it was 50 feet above low water mark, but in the forenoon of that day it commenced to run off very slowly and had fallen 4 inches at 2 o'clock p. m. There is an immense amount of drift wood in the river and to avoid this the steamer A. P. Hart was compelled to tie up on Saturday night at Whitehall and as a consequence did not arrive here yesterday until 11 o'clock. Of course the country is flooded as far as the eye can reach on both sides of the river.

House Burned.

The alarm of fire early yesterday morning was caused by the burning of a small frame dwelling in Brooklyn, a short distance from Boney Bridge. The fire eaters Little Giant and Adrian, with the Hook and Ladder truck, were soon on the ground, but the flames were fierce and the house was soon destroyed. The residence of Mrs. Bunting, next door to the fire, caught once or twice but the building was saved. The building belonged to W. P. Canaday Esq. and was occupied by a Mr. Richardson, an unmarried man. The fire was undoubtedly incendiary, plain evidence of this fact having been discovered.

Marine Disaster.

Nor. brig Cito, Capt. Neilsen, which went to sea last Tuesday, was caught in the late storm and suffered some pretty severe injuries. She was towed back into Smithville on Saturday and up to the city to-day. All of her sails are gone, her masts are sprung and she is leaking. A survey is to be held on her this afternoon, the members of which will be Capt. Bates, Port Warden, Mr. Ross, of the Marine Railway, and Capt. Krook, of the Swedish barque Prima.

It is said that the Cito went to sea last Tuesday while the storm signal was flying and has thus come to grief.

Thanks to Messrs. Monroe & King for a beautiful roast of nice, fat, stall-fed beef sent in to us to-day. There is more of the same sort at their meat store in Currier's Block.
