The Investment of Plevna.

Lexpon, Oct. 26-The defeat of the Turks, and the establishment of a strong Russian force west of Plevna, looks like the beginning of a serious attempt to shut Ghazi Osman in his line and submit Plevna to a regular siege. Gen. Gourko's movement seems to have been part of a concerted plan. A portion of the infantry of the Imperial Guard crossed the Vid between Nikopolis and Plevna, passing around Osman's left. Gen. Gourko's cavalry crossed the Upper Vid, west of Levels, wept the Orchaine road, got in communication with the force coming from the north, and made a combined attack on the Turks, who were commanded by Hifzi Pasha, the same who took the first convoy into Plevna. Simultaneously, with this attack a heavy cannonade was opened along tured with a large part of his command.

The impression prevails that since the recent rains the Russians, convinced of the impossibility of wintering in Bulgaria, will make a desparate effort to effect the reduction of Plevna and defeat Suleiman Pasha's army before retiement into Roumania becomes necssary. Russia would thus stand in the better position should diplomacy intervene during the cessation of operations.

Reuter's Constantinople telegram says that a private despatch has been received approuncing that Ismail Pasha has effected a junction with Mukhtar Pasha. LONDON, Oct. 27-A special to the Times, from Shumla says that Col. Valentine Baker will shortly resign his command and return to Constantinople.

The Daity News' Bucharest correspondent gives the following account of Russian operations, derived from a Russian officer who has just returned from Plevna: "No convoy has succeeded in entering Plevna since Gen. Gourko took command of the cavalry. The investment is now complete. The Imperial Guards, as fast as they arrived took up positions on the Russian left, thus gradually prolonging the line of investment across the Lovatz to the Selia road." The investment by infantry thus extends from the Roumanian positions northeast of Plevna to the Sofia road on the west. On the west the circle is com-pleted by Gen. Gourka's cavalry, which can cut off all supplies. The Russians will soon have troops enough to complete

The correspondent thinks there is every reason to believe that Plevna is not victualled sufficiently to stand siege until spring: and that the appearances are that Osman Pasha will attempt, probably unsuccessfully, to fight his way out, Speaker Randall.

Mr. Randall's presence in the chair is extremely winning. Cast in Roman mould, tall and powerful, he sits high and looks the man he is. He is just fifty old, but does not look forty five. Those traces of wear and tear so palpable on the faces of many public men, telling sometimes of too little sleep, sometimes of too much drink, of eating ambition, or of nameless dissipation, are in nowise visible

The face tells somehow another sweeter and rarer story—of a happy home and of household leves. I doubt if any man could carry that expression who has a ome and is not happy in it. Mr. Ran- CHEAP FOR CASH. all has a fine head covered with closely curling black hair, clearly cut strong feartures, with a square, solid, but not heavy jaw; a mouth that could hardly fail to have its own way, if it set about it. The thry strong will of the man is perfectly went in his countenance; but, comined with the head and brow, gives the pression of large power, rather than of mere wilfulness. NOO!

Congratulatory Order. The following order was issued yesterday from the Adjutant General's office : GENERAL HEADQUARTERS,

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, RALEIGH, October 27th, 1877. General Order No. 16:

The Governor and Commander-in Chie lesires to express his thanks and sincere Carolina State Guard who responded to his call by appearing in review during the recent State Fair. Their neat uniforms, the excellent condition of their arms and ments, their splendid drill and discipline, and their good behavior at a time Soult to preserve order, are above all praise. Such an exhibition, the Com-mander-in-Chief believes, cannot fail to revive a litary spirit among the young men of the State, and induce the early formation and equipment of a sufficient number of the Guard to make every citizen feel that the Executive will be able to preserve order and enforce the laws without the necessity of calling for aid elsewhere. It is pleasant to state also that the vast concourse of North Carolinians who witnessed the display fully shared in the gratification of the Commander-in-

Thanks and congratulations are also hereby extended to Col. Bingham's splendid corps of well drilled and well behaved endets who contributed so much to the interest of the occasion. The personal courtesies extended to the Commander-in-Chief by all, individually and as organizations, were most gratefully appreciated and are kindly remembered.

The thanks of the Commander-in-Chief, as well as those of the Guard, are also due Good Middling..... to the several railroad companies who furnished gratuitous transportation for the troops and their baggage.

By order of the Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

period of years, having within that time treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that meets the indications presented by that class of diseases with positive certainty and exactness. To designate this natural specific compound, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The term, however, is but a feeble expression The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon my own personal observation. As a clee observer, I have, while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases incident to the separate organism of woman, singled it outs the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly and in harmony with the laws which govern the female system. I am willing to stake my reputation as a mony with the laws which govern the female system, I am willing to stake my reputation as physician. Nay, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguise expectations of a single invalid lady who use it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. It a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the contents of the bottle are used, I will, on return of the bottle, two-thirds of the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case being one for which I recommend it, promptly refund the money paid for it. Had I not the most perfect confidence in its virtues, I could not offer it as I do under these conditions; but having witnessed its truly miraculous cures in those sands of cases, I feel warranted and perfectly safe in risking both my reputation and my money on its morits.

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription is worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine.
