Hold the Fort. CALL THE ATTENTION OF the citizens of Wilmington who have Watches, Jewels and Jewelry to be repaired to the fact that I have had an experience of 21 years at the bench and feel justified in saying that all work left in my care will receive personal attention.
I have no speaking Warrant, and no pretensions to touch up. I promise that the future all work entrusted to my care shall only be promptly done, but in a superior, workman-like manner. Not including at present to keep much stock on hand, consequently my whole and individual attention shall be devoted to the mechanical branch of the Watch and Jewelry trade. All botched up jobs made a specialty. For Chronometers and Nautical Instruments required.
J. H. ALLEN.

Dainty Swiss aprons are worn with afternoon house dresses.

The watermelon has turned its business over to the mince pie.

Gloves are about to be enlarged to make room for the buttons on them.

A born phrenologist—the boy who is always at the head of his class.

Love, the toothache, and tight boots are things which cannot be kept secret.

Deep square collars of "church" lace are worn with the cuffs of the same lace.

Every fish and oyster cart were sold out to the hucksters before 6 o'clock this morning.

Eve was the first girl who gathered autumn leaves, but she didn't press them in a Bible.

Don't forget the sale of pictures by Messrs Cronley & Morris this evening at Granite Row.

Woe to those who are engaged in the commission of unlawful deeds, for they cannot trust their nearest accomplices.

Mr. Bailey's Dancing School will open to-morrow, Saturday, afternoon, at Megginney's Hall, at 8 o'clock, with the juvenile class.

Send your orders for beef, pork and sausages to the corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets, and they will be promptly and satisfactorily filled.

All orders for beef, pork and sausages, promptly delivered at your residence free of charge, if sent to the corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets.

Mr. H. C. Dravo, of the Manning House bar, will leave the city this afternoon for a few days, and during his absence his assistant, Mr. Yopp, will conduct the business.

Yesterday afternoon and last night torrents of rain fell in this direction and after dark last evening the wind was very violent. We are promised clearing weather for the close of to-day and the change will be a welcome one.

The Raleigh News' local publishes a recipe for cooking oysters in which half a pint of sherry wine goes along with a pint of oysters. The said local only charges for this information a dish of oysters cooked as he says, and we think that he has had them—leastways the wine part—already.

Make No Mistake. In DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER you get the best article of the kind in the world. The cans are always full weight, the article itself the purest and strongest possible, so that a smaller quantity than usual suffices. Do you want your baking always perfect? Don't fail then to use DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER.

The Baptist Convention. We publish to-day a telegram to the Raleigh Observer relative to the second day's proceedings in the Baptist State Convention now in session at Durham. We are disappointed in not being able to give the proceedings in full but, as will be seen, it is impossible for to-day.

One of Nature's Freaks. Maj. W. L. Young has placed on exhibition at Messrs. James & Brown's office a piece of stone brought from the island of St. Thomas in which the delicate tracery of fern leaves is distinctly visible on both sides with indications of their extending all through the rock. It is something really worth seeing.

Cotton Figures.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,300 bales against 380 bales for the same day in 1875 and 565 bales for the same day in 1876.

Will Open To-Morrow Messrs. F. M. King & Co., will to-morrow throw open their doors to the public and an inspection of the handsome stock of house furnishing goods which they have been receiving this week will be in order. We looked through the stock this morning, and found many new and pretty and, above all, cheap things there. The ladies are invited to call.

Our Best Wishes. Dr. Geo. H. West, who has been practicing medicine in this city for some time past, has left us and will cast his lot in for real or woe with the good people of Newton, Catawba county, in the mountainous district of this State. Dr. West will conduct a drug store in connection with his practice of medicine.

Train Off the Track. The passenger train on the Carolina Central Railway which went out this morning ran off the track a short distance from the city. A freight train which was following in the wake of the passenger train being unable to pass brought the passenger cars back to this city, and again went out with assistance to the disabled train. Nobody hurt; the greatest damage done was a temporary delay of the passengers and mails.

Light Wanted. In response to the request made by us yesterday, some figures have been furnished us. Mr. Williams, the present Clerk of the Market, has paid in $1,100 in four months and five days and during the same period last year W. A. Green, Radical Clerk of the Market, paid in but $553.55 and yet it is a fact known and admitted that there were less carts in market this Summer than there were during the previous Summer. An investigation is in order.

The Revival at Fifth Street Church. The revival at the Fifth Street M. E. Church is still in progress and seems to be increasing in interest with every meeting. It began on Wednesday night, Oct. 22d, following close upon a series of lectures delivered by the earnest pastor of that church, Rev. J. M. Rhodes. The revival is now in its third week and the interest, instead of abating, is still on the increase. Thus far there have been 15 or 20 conversions and there are from ten to twenty persons at the altar every night. The church is crowded and the indications are that much good will result.

This is the second successful revival in that church during the last two years, since Mr. Rhodes was first assigned to duty there. A true and earnest Christian and an indefatigable worker in the vineyard, the spirit of divine grace seems to have followed upon his footsteps and blessed with happy commutations the result of his labors. Mr. Rhodes has been assisted by Rev. J. W. Craig, a very efficient local preacher.

Voices of the Night. Piety Hill, that usually quiet portion of the city, was thrown into a state of unusual excitement this morning about 1 o'clock, by the report of a pistol and the blowing of a police whistle. Inquiry elicited the fact that during the 'we sma' hours of the night the occupants of a house on Dock, near Seventh street, were aroused from their slumber by a heavy thud on the piazza, and in a few minutes thereafter the turning of the door-knob was heard. A gentleman living in an adjoining room was summoned to the assistance of the ladies of the besieged house and a man, evidently drunk, was discovered on the piazza who refused to give a satisfactory account of himself or doings. A pistol in the hands of the gentleman was accidentally discharged, which summoned others of the neighborhood to his assistance. After consultation it was decided that the police had best be summoned and have the man taken in out of the wet. A whistle was blown, but as the police failed to put in an appearance the man walked quietly off under cover of the darkness of the night.

Fashion Gossip.

The Bird of Paradise, so long tabooed, is again making ladies' hats conspicuous. Heavily embroidered and beaded over-garments are again coming in style. Last year they were pronounced "horrid."

The most stylish dresses are almost as flat behind as in front; everything clings as closely as human art can make it cling and be graceful.

The polonaise is now either a shortened garment of the princess form, or a coat-like design to serve for the use of heavy suitings worn in the street.

In the matter of new bonnets there is no distinct style. There are small cottage shapes and close-fitting capotes, and also many large Marie Stuart bonnets, with pointed front and flowing plume.

New apron fronts, for dressy black silks, are made of diagonal bands of embroidered crape, alternating with tails bands that are also embroidered; the bottom is trimmed with wide thread lace.

The noticeable feature of all imported dresses is the extreme brevity of the skirt in front. The shoe, therefore, plays a most important part in the toilet of the woman fashion.

The disappearance of the train for the street is assured, and during the winter only house dresses will be made with trains. Worth, who detests republican simplicity in anything, has declared that painters will be restored for street wear, thus rendering something of a train necessary.

Consumption Cured. An old physician retired from active practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for General Debility and all nervous complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. The recipe will be sent free of charge, to all who desire it, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Address, with stamp naming this paper, Dr. J. C. STONE, 11 North Ninth St., Philadelphia, Pa.

BURGAW, N. C. November 6th, 1877.

There was a large attendance here yesterday in compliance to this new County site and to witness the proceedings of the regular monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners. There were at least two hundred and fifty people here from various places, prospecting, and among them were six physicians, four preachers, five lawyers, and scores of office seekers. The public mind is impatient of the very slow movements of land owners to sell land, and the place is seriously suffering because of the inability of those anxious to buy lots to obtain them. If there is not more enterprise, liberality and energy manifested by real estate owners here, there will be another movement started to remove the Court House to a place of more life and activity.

Burgaw combines every natural advantage for building up a prosperous county town, and it is astonishing to see the lethargy of those mainly interested here in real estate.

The accession to the Board of Commissioners of that bold reformer, and unflinching advocate of economy—Dawson Shaw, Esq.—inspires renewed hope in tax payers that useless expenditures will be reduced or wholly dispensed with. The Coroner of this County received a merited castigation yesterday from Commissioner Shaw because of his greediness to hold inquest, and the extortionate nature of his accounts. The Coroner will hardly
