Handsome India shawls, with filled centres, are shown for $45. Plenty of wild ducks in market this morning and yesterday afternoon.

Long, black kid gloves are popular for both day and evening wear.

Money that bank officers get away with is charged to running expenses.

Cheerfulness in a pea-jacket is better than contrition in a convict's clothes.

Soap and warm water may be used with a soft brush for cleaning cameo.

A sack of flour will do a poor family more good than a dozen visits of condolence.

"Duchess" lace is more extensively used this fall than any other for hats and evening dress.

The ladies rather admire brass, and that is why the military are such universal beaux.

A man with a small foot can have just as many corns on his toes as a mau with a big one.

The angler who returned fishless, said he had been having a day's sport on his own hook.

The wife, presented a new cloak by her husband, exclaims, "Water-proof of affection."

A decided change in the atmosphere today and everybody will be after hugging a warm fire to-night.

The fine chinchilla fur is the most stylish, and beautiful sets offered are by the best furriers at $50.

The very latest thing in rings is a bangle ring, to be worn on the little finger, the favorite motto for which is "Mizpah."

Real bronze may be cleaned with soap and water and be rinsed with beer. But imitation bronzes cannot be cleaned in this way.

Russia has one hundred and thirty-nine holidays in every year, and the Russian who doesn't get drunk on these is supposed to be in sympathy with the Turks.

A Kentucky man who went to the Black Hills wrote back to a local paper, saying: "Offer a premium at your coming fair for the biggest fool in the country, and I'll try and get there in time."

A Rare Opportunity. Attention is offered to the advertisement of Mr. C. E. Burr, offering for sale the valuable series of paintings executed by him and known as the Oceanicon. To a live man with a little money a rare opportunity is offered. Mr. Burr makes the offer because of a disinclination to travel himself and a desire to build up a business here in Wilmington.

Delicious Cookery. The most delicious, light, white and wholesome biscuits, rolls, muffins, waffles, cornbread, cake, etc., are possible to every table by using the celebrated DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER. It is absolutely pure, and will go much further than other kinds of baking powder. It is impossible to fail with it in baking. Ask your grocer for it, and do not be put off with any other.

The Festival and Ball to be given at the Temperance Hall this evening promises to be well attended.

Yesterday being the anniversary of the birthday of the Barquentine North Carolina, lying at the Compress Wharf, she was decorated and dressed in colors.

Dr. A. E. Wright, Superintendent of Health of this city who has been on a visit to his friends at the North for the past two weeks, returned last night looking well.

So certain is the crime of listening to carry its own punishment, that there is no pointed prohibition against it; we are commanded not to commit other sins, but this one draws down its own correction, and wee be to him who infringes it!

Swam In. Game seems to be plentiful in the woods near this city. Two of our young friends went out to the Gafford place for a short time yesterday afternoon and bagged several ducks and squirrels and a lot of birds. The ducks fell in the pond and one of the young Nimrods stripped to it like a man and swam in and brought them to shore. It was a cold bath but he had ducks for dinner to-day.

Recovery of the Body. The body of Mr. Thaddens Moore, from Point Caswell, who was drowned from on board the steamer North East, at her wharf in this city early on the morning of the 6th inst., was found on Saturday last on Snow's Marsh, about four miles above Smithville. Coroner Leonard, of Brunswick county, held an inquest and the body, which was fully identified, was interred on the island.

Our Emotional Nature. If there is one thing more than another that stirs the deep, inmost recesses of our susceptible nature, it is music. We can't help it. We were born so. We dote on ballad music. And we think that the sweetest of all ballads is the "Sweet Bye-and-Bye." We heard it sung last night, and this is the first stanza:

"In the sweet heat By-high an'-by-high, We shall me heat on that Beau-hoo-ty-fool show-her!"

Fifth Street Church. Rev. W. S. Black, Presiding Elder, will visit the city this week for attendance on the Fourth Quarterly Meeting, for the present Conference year, to be held in Fifth Street M. E. Church next Saturday and Sunday. Services on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock and on Sunday at the usual hours, morning and night. Mr. Black will preach on both days. This is his last Sunday in the District, he having been on this circuit for four years past and will probably be assigned to another field of labor at the meeting of the Conference next week.

A Delightful Treat. Just at the very best time in the world say at 6 o'clock, p. m., when work was knocked off for the time being, and the tired and hungry REVIEW corps, editors, printers, devils, et al, were about wending their way supper-ward, two colored waiters entered the office bearing between them a huge bowl of steaming oysters with all the usual condiments for such things. They were sent in by that kind-hearted fellow, John Carroll of the Centennial Saloon, and were intended for, and enjoyed by the REVIEW force. It was a welcome treat and was appreciated by those who did not forget to return their hearty thanks to their genial entertainer.

Collars and Cuffs. Wash collars and cuffs well, and boil (says the Queen), it necessary, to make them a good color. When dry, starch first with hot starch, to which a little dissolved borax or clear prepared gum has been added, and then when dry again (it wanted very stiff) with starch mixed with cold water. Press the starch well into them, squeezing them thoroughly to get them well saturated with it, and then roll them up in a cloth. Keep them damp for an hour or so. Stretch the ironing blanket quite smoothly; on it lay a soft linen cloth, put the collars and cuffs to be ironed smoothly on and rub them over with an old piece of linen; then iron, with a very hot well-polished iron, on both sides, pressing them as much as possible, and afterwards (damping them first very slightly) with a polishing iron—if one is obtainable—to give a good glaze; then let them air until quite dry before the fire. A little turpentine added to the starch is the best means of getting a glaze.

The Sampson County Fair is attracting the attention of many of our citizens.

The wood shed of a gentleman living on Dock street was robbed last night of all the wood contained therein. It would be well to see to the locking up of your wood-houses before night.

The Alarm of Fire Last Night. The alarm of fire last night proceeded from the residence of Mrs. R. L. Sellers, on Sixth, between Chestnut and Mulberry streets. It was caused by the burning of a very foul chimney and it is thought that the house would have been destroyed but for the fact that a number of those attracted to the spot mounted the roof and kept it thoroughly saturated with water.

The N. C. Conference. The regular annual meeting of the N. C. Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be held at Salisbury on Wednesday next, the 28th inst. Rev. W. S. Black, Presiding Elder of the District, Rev. J. E. Mann, Pastor of Front Street Church and Rev. J. M. Rhodes, Pastor of Fifth Street Church, will leave here on Monday or Tuesday for attendance.

Results of the Revival. The revival in the Fifth Street M. E. Church, which was in progress for several weeks, and which has recently closed, was blessed with fruitful results, there having been some thirty professions of religion during its progress. Altogether, during the past year there have been about forty accessions to the membership of this Church.

Ladies' Benevolent Society. The regular annual meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society will be held to-morrow (Thursday), the 22d instant, at Hook and Ladder Hall, at 11 o'clock, a. m., on which occasion Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., will deliver the regular address.

The ladies urge upon all of their sex who have the ability to contribute but one dollar to the relief of the destitute and suffering in this city, to attend and aid them in the charitable work which they have undertaken, of providing for God's poor during the inclement season now opening. There is much to do and laborers in this vineyard of the Lord are sorely needed.

The Battalion of Colored Troops. The commissioned officers of the various colored companies in this District forming, under General Orders, No. 17, the Fourth Battalion N. C. S. G., met to-day at Lippitt's Hall. The meeting was called to order by the President, Sol. W. Nash, Senior Captain. First Lieutenant, A. Sampson, of Co. A, was requested to act as Secretary.

General Orders No. 17 and the three last clauses of Sec III. General Order No. 4, were then read, after which the roll of the battalion was called as follows: Company A—Geo L. Mabson, Captain; Alex Sampson, First Lieutenant; Francis Payne and Thos E Scott, Second Lieutenants.

Company B—Sol W Nash, Captain; Silas N Dees, First Lieutenant; Henry McRae, David Wiggins, Second Lieutenants.

Company C—Abram Holiday, Captain; Lewis Smith, First Lieutenant; Daniel Buxton, M N Levy, Second Lieutenants.

Company D—John Barge, Captain; John Canningan, First Lieutenant; Wm Hows and Wm Richardson, Second Lieutenants.

Company E—John Cooper, Captain; C. A. Ward, First Lieutenant; Alex. Webb, Second Lieutenant.

Of the above Co. A is known as the Hanover Light Infantry, Co. B as the Cape Fear Light Infantry, Co. C as the Howard Light Infantry, Co. D as the Fayetteville Rifle Guard and Co. E as the Charlotte Blues. The Charlotte Blues and Fayetteville Rifle Guard were represented by proxies.

Nominations for the office of Lieutenant-Colonel were then declared in order whereupon Geo. L. Mabson, Captain of Company A, was the only nominee. The result was 18 votes for Geo. L. Mabson and 1 vote for Sol W. Nash. On motion the election was made unanimous.

For Major, Abram Holiday, Captain of the Howard Light Infantry, was nominated, he being the only nominee for this position. He received the entire vote, 19, and was therefore declared unanimously elected.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.
