Custom House Figures.

The following is a statement of transactions at the Custom House during the past month: viz. amount of duties on imports in gold, $4,098.17; amount of currency collected from tonnage duty, $2,323.80; from other sources $409.87, total amount received $6,831.84. Total value of exports to foreign countries, including 6,374 bales of cotton; 37,124 bbls rosin; 148,100 gallons spirits turpentine; 550,000 feet of lumber; 275,000 shingles, $437,205. 40 vessels have entered from foreign ports, and 25 have cleared to foreign countries.

Rev. J. A. Oertell.

Rev. Johannes Oertell, formerly of Caldwell county, in this State, has presented his superb painting "The Shadow of the Rock" to the Garden City Cathedral, on Long Island, the magnificent, million dollar structure now building for Mrs. A. T. Stewart. The painting, which is 8 by 10 feet, will be assigned a conspicuous position in the "Chapter House" where it will no doubt attract much attention.

Serious Accident.

On Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock W. H. Howe met with a very serious and painful accident. Howe was employed as a laborer on the street car line, and at the time of the accident he was engaged in moving iron from the track on a flat car. He was looking over the end of the car examining the brake when he lost his footing and fell across the track, the car passing over his body. The flange of the car wheel made a gash in his abdomen. The wound is not necessarily dangerous, though it is thought if it produces hemorrhage it will prove fatal.

Pender County.

We invite attention to our editorial of to day, in another column, headed "Statistics and Resources of Pender." The fires of opposition and of persecution that were raging while the county was passing through its formative stage, and the protracted excitement and difficulties attending the final selection of the county site at Burgaw, have been themes of discussion and of thought over the State for several years. This causes a very natural enquiry in the public mind whether the new county is a success. Emphatically it has been, a most decided and gratifying success, and more than repaying all the efforts and sacrifices incurred in its establishment and selection of a permanent county site. Read the editorial in question and any doubts on this subject will be removed. We invite the tax-payers of our debt-ridden county to consider the facts and figures showing the low taxes of Pender, and the general good management of the public affairs of that county. Equally favorable to the new county is the small amount of vice and crime that prevail there, and the improvement and progress of education and religion since its formation.

Clerical Visitors.

Rev. C. H. Hall, D. D., of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, Chairman of the Committee on Freedmen in the Episcopal Church, and Rev. Dr. Twyng, of New York, General Secretary of the Board of Missions, arrived here last Saturday night. Dr. Hall was present at St. John's yesterday morning where he spoke of his mission to the South which was to investigate the state of his church among the colored people and, at night at St. James', addresses were delivered by Bishop Atkinson and Drs. Twyng and Hall.

These gentlemen will remain in the city for a day or two and will go hence to Raleigh and Tarboro.

Caution to the Public.

We understand there are unprincipled grocers and dealers who palm off on unwary purchasers Yeast Powder in bulk, or loose. For the protection of housekeepers and the public genuine DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is sold only in cans. Always refuse to purchase except in cans, securely labeled. The fac-simile signature of DOOLEY & BROTHER the manufacturer, is plainly printed on each label.

(Wilmington Democrat.)

The Wilmington Journal.

As will be seen by reference to prospectus in another column, the publication of this old favorite, so long known to many of our readers, is to be resumed, and will make its first appearance under new auspices on Thursday evening, the 6th of December next. It will be issued weekly at the very low price of $2.00 per annum, and will be edited and published by Josh T. James, Esq., the able editor and proprietor of our much-esteemed contemporary the DAILY REVIEW. In view of the long experience and well known talent of Mr. James as a journalist it would be useless for us to say that the JOURNAL will be in able hands, and we can only add that like himself it will be Democratic clear through. We extend to Bro. James our heartiest wishes for his success.

Criminal Court.

The fifth regular session of this court for the County of New Hanover convened this morning at the Court House at 10 o'clock, His Honor Judge Meares presiding.

The grand jury was impaneled and duly sworn in, when the Judge proceeded to deliver his charge, which was characterized by His Honor's usual clear, explicit and forcible manner. There is no use for a jury and especially a grand jury to profess ignorance upon any point of the law connected with their duty as jurors after one of Judge Meares' charges.

The following named persons were sworn in as the grand jury for this term of the Court:

H. C. Evans, Foreman; W. E. Springer, Sol. Reaves, Richard Bosley, Wm H. Goodman, Jessie Ives, Samuel Davis, D. M. Dart, James W. Telfair, George W. Murray, John Evangelist, Joseph Farrow, David Pigott, Thomas A. Davis, J. H. Mallard, Rederick MacLae, John T. Flowers, E. H. Rhue.

At the conclusion of Judge Meares' charge, the grand jury retired and the Court adjourned until half past two this afternoon when the regular docket will be taken up. We learn that there are fifty-seven cases docketed already; the number, however, will doubtless be added to by the grand jury, who will probably find a few true bills before the time expires.

A. SHRIER—Very Low.

Snow in Petersburg yesterday.

There was plenty of ice this morning.

Lieut. S. A. Brooks, of the revenue steamer Colfax, who has been on a leave of absence for the past month, returned Saturday.

We invite attention to the advertisement of the old and well-known Mozart Saloon, presided over by that compound mixer, Capt. Jim McGowan.

The lower Cape Fear is swelled mightily with the waters from the recent high freshet, but at Fayetteville the river had fallen off 20 feet up to Saturday morning.

For the past two nights fences and hitch posts have suffered. We notice in several portions of the city where boards have been pulled from fences and posts, either cut down or dug up.

December, the twelfth month of the year derives its name from the Latin decem, ten. The Roman year began with March, so that September was the seventh and December the tenth month.

Sampson Fair.

The following special premiums, in addition to those heretofore published by us, have been offered for the Sampson Fair: DeRosset & Northrop, Insurance Agents—$1, gold, for the best made quilt by a girl under 15 years. The same—$1, gold, for best pair socks, knit by a girl under 15 years. The Fair opens next Wednesday week, the 12th instant, and will close on the ensuing Saturday. The chances are good for a large attendance from Wilmington.

The Fair Grounds.

The buildings and fences at the Grounds of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, near this city, are in a deplorable plight. Nearly all of the fencing is down and departed and the Grand Stand is on the grounds a mass of ruins. It is a pity but that the Association could be revived and a series of successful Fairs be again inaugurated. Raleigh, Fayetteville, Weldon and Clinton can have attractive Fairs every year and why not Wilmington as well?

City Court.

Three cases were presented for the Mayor's consideration this morning. The first case called was that of one Peter Smith, colored, charged with disorderly conduct. He was ordered to pay a fine of $5 and to be committed until paid. Jas. L. Gause, colored, was next on docket and charged with the same offence as his predecessor in crime, viz: disorderly conduct. His Honor said $3 or three days on bread and water. The three dollars was immediately forthcoming and the defendant walked forth a free man. The next case called was that of a poor fellow who belongs to one of the most abused classes of poor suffering humanity that can be found on this habitable globe. He is a sailor, and his name as he gave it is Thos. Kelley; his offence was fighting of course—we say of course because we suppose the poor devil had drank some of this sailor boarding-house lightning, and after that, no doubt, he was ready to fight his daddy if he ever had one. The case was continued until to-morrow owing to the absence of prosecuting witnesses. The last case being disposed of His Honor rubbed his hands together a time or two, then slapped on his high silk hat, and then stepped down and out.

There is an unmailable letter in the Raleigh Postoffice directed to Samuel, Stencer, Wilmington, N. C.

The Wilmington Journal.

MR. JOSHUA T. JAMES, SIR:—Your revival of the WILMINGTON JOURNAL is a much needed filling up of a vacuum in newspaper life that is sorely felt by the hosts of friends of that old political Bible of the people. The lion hearted democracy have never been reconciled to its suspension even much less to its death. It was always a paper of principle, as well as of ability, and always led and never followed. No political paper in the State was ever more fondly cherished, more generously sustained, or more influential, than was this fearless defender of the people's right and able champion of the principles of the democratic party. It is hallowed in the confidence and affections of the great democratic masses. Its former editors, during different stages in its long and eventful life, were David Fulton, Alfred L. Price and James Fulton, (a noble and heroic tribe of patriots, now deceased) and Joseph A. Engelhard and William L. Sanders, who will be cherished in grateful remembrance so long as boldness in the right, State pride, and patriotic devotion, shall be admired and honored in North Carolina. Mr. Cicero W. Harris did good service to the party during the short term he edited the JOURNAL.

As the successor of these time-honored and useful editors and leaders of public sentiment the people welcome you into the harness of the old JOURNAL. You have been well-trained in the school of its political creed and in our darkest days, as well as in our brightest, you have stood firm—never quailing beneath the tyrant's rod, or despots sceptre, or cringed in subserviency at the inglorious shrine of expediency. You are worthy in the estimation of an appreciative public, to take the helm, especially as you had much to do in the editorial department of the old JOURNAL during which it triumphantly passed in the latter years of its useful existence. In the reorganization then of this needed work the people are with you and for you. Again will you hang the bright banner of the noble old JOURNAL on the outer wall. The masses will rally to your support, as, in your support of their best interests, you will stand by principal and the right.

ONE OF THE OLD GUARD.

Judge McKoy was in Raleigh on Saturday.

Harbor Master's Report.

Capt. Jos. Price, Harbor Master here, reports as follows for the month of November:

Arrived 24 foreign barks with an aggregate of 8,749 tons; 8 foreign barquentines, 2,113 tons; 5 foreign brigs, 1,248 tons. A total 37 foreign vessels with a tonnage of 12,110 tons. Also, 12 coastwise steamers, 8,331 tons; 12 coastwise schooners, 2,831 tons. A total of 24 coastwise vessels, with a tonnage of 11,162 tons. Total arrivals 61, total tonnage, 23,272.

Sensible Advice.

You are asked every day through the columns of newspapers and by your Druggist to use something for Dyspepsia and Liver complaint that you know nothing about; you get discouraged spending money with but little success. Now to give you satisfactory proof that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER will cure you of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint with all its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Water brash coming up of food after eating, low spirits &c., we ask you to go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER for 10 cents and try it, or a Regular Size for 75 cents; two doses will relieve you.
