MUNSON & Co.—Driving Gloves.
A. SHRIER—These Cold Winds.
ISAAC W. KING—For Saturday's Market.

The Cadets of the Cape Fear Academy were photographed on Market street this afternoon by Mr. C. M. VanOrsdel.

Poultry is in good supply in the market now. We note that Messrs. Petteway & Schulkens are receiving lots of it every day which they close out as rapidly as possible.

Mr. Geo. F. Tilley bought this morning a car load of fine mountain beef, some of which will be on sale at his stall to-morrow. Mr. Tilley says it is the fattest beef he has had in many days.

One may count some 25 or 30 vessels lying in the river in the vicinity of the Cotton Compress waiting for their cargoes. The Compress is run to its full capacity and is straining every nerve to keep up with its orders.

Capt. Jas. W. Lippitt has rented the store recently occupied as the office of the National Hotel, where with a fresh stock of confectionaries and toys he will endeavor to please the little ones, and some of old ones who have a liking for tobacco goods.

The River.

At last advices there was no increase in the volume of water in the river at Fayetteville and all fears of an immediate rise are now allayed. In the lowlands in Bladen county the water is running off very rapidly.

[Wilmington Post.]

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL.—Mr. J. T. James, editor and proprietor of the REVIEW, a lively evening newspaper published in this city, has purchased the presses, type and good will of the Wilmington Journal and will issue the WEEKLY JOURNAL at once. Mr. James has made a success of the REVIEW, and we feel confident that he will make the WEEKLY JOURNAL a much more desirable paper than it has been since the war.

Delicious Cookery.

The lightest, sweetest, most wholesome and delicious Vienna rolls, tea biscuits, bread, muffins, flannel cakes, crullers, and all articles prepared from flour are always possible to every table by using DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER. This celebrated Baking Powder has stood the critical test of the best housekeepers and the consuming public generally of America for twenty years. It is absolutely pure, and always uniform strength. The genuine is put up in cans. Most all good grocers sell it.

Autumn Leaves.

A very pretty way to ornament any plain article of furniture, a cabinet or paneled trinket cupboard, boxes, jars, trays, etc., is by the following simple process: Having collected the ferns and leaves in all their endless variety, prepare them thus: Lay the leaves one by one on a piece of soft paper, wrong side up, and with a sharp penknife pare off the projecting veins, so that there will be as little roughness as possible; then place them in books, with heavy weight, and press them smoothly, leaving them there until you are ready to use them. Prepare the article by painting it black, using a fine brush for the purpose; because it will leave fewer traces. When this is perfectly dry and hard, give it a coat of fine, transparent varnish; and before it has become entirely dry, lay on the leaves and fern sprays in graceful groups, according to fancy, pressing them smoothly down, so that every part will adhere. When they are entirely dry, give it another coat of the same transparent varnish, going over the whole surface, leaves and all. If you wish to bronze the black ground in imitation of the Japanese lacquer ware, it can be done by sprinkling a little bronze powder, over the sticky varnish after putting on the leaves, then rubbing it lightly with a soft rag to burnish it. These ornamentations are both permanent and effective.

No Conference Report To-Day.

The Charlotte Observer has shown a great deal of enterprise in publishing every day, in Charlotte, the proceedings of the Grand Lodge, who were to have been installed last night: H. H. Munson, Grand Master. Robt. W. Hardie, Senior Grand Warden. J. C. L. Gudger, Junior Grand Warden. W. E. Anderson, Grand Treasurer. D. W. Bain, Grand Secretary.

Wood is still scarce and high and is sold readily as fast as it arrives.

Grand Officers.

We learn from the Raleigh papers of the election of the following officers of the Grand Lodge, who were to have been installed last night: H. H. Munson, Grand Master. Robt. W. Hardie, Senior Grand Warden. J. C. L. Gudger, Junior Grand Warden. W. E. Anderson, Grand Treasurer. D. W. Bain, Grand Secretary.

Wood is still scarce and high and is sold readily as fast as it arrives.

Slight Accident to the Steamer Gov. Worth.

The steamer A. P. Hurt, having put in an appearance here this morning on the Gov. Worth's regular day, it naturally caused an inquiry as to where the Worth was, which inquiry being directed in the right direction resulted in the following explanation: The Worth left here last Tuesday afternoon on her regular trip for Fayetteville, and when just above a place called Sugar Loaf, she ran into an old sweet gum tree which had been carried into the river by a heavy land-slide. It was very dark at the time, being only one hour before day when the accident occurred. The steamer lost the upper part of her starboard wheel-house and a portion of a stateroom on the same side. No one hurt.

Charged With Highway Robbery.

Yesterday Chief of Police Brock received a telegram from Ed. P. Powers, J. P., of Fayetteville, requesting him to arrest John Williamson, white, who stands charged with highway robbery and who was supposed to have come to this city. This morning, about 2 o'clock, Williamson was arrested on the Steamer A. P. Hurt and carried to the guard house where he will be kept until the legal course has been gone through with. Williamson, who is a young man of fine address and prepossessing appearance, seems to be much surprised at such proceedings against him and begs that he may be sent back to Fayetteville immediately and have the matter "cleared up" as he feels certain it is a case of mistaken identity. He states that he had a long conversation with Justice Powers just before leaving Fayetteville. Captain Worth, of the steamer Hurt, received a telegram appointing him to take Williamson to Fayetteville to-day.

Big Fire in Lumberton.

We regret to learn of a very disastrous fire which occurred in Lumberton, by which Mr. B. Godwin's store and warehouse were completely destroyed. The fire was discovered about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, and the store is supposed to have been first robbed and then set on fire. When discovered its flames had obtained such headway that they could not be checked and in an almost incredibly short time the building, with all its contents, was entirely destroyed. We cannot learn the amount of Mr. Godwin's loss but understand that the building and store were about covered by insurance. The most serious part of the disaster, however, consists in the fact that Mr. Godwin lost all of his books and papers, among the latter a number of valuable crop liens, and it is feared that in this way his loss will prove a heavy one.

PURCELL HOUSE.—Wilmington, N. C. December, 7th.—Cobb Bros., proprietors.—Col. L. A. Cunningham, U. S. A. N. C.; W. A. Whitehead, Fayetteville, N. C.; A. F. Farnell, Jr., M. Farnell, Onslow Co., N. C.; John H. Neary, Philadelphia, Pa.; L. S. Stroock, New York; Dr. Geo. Martin and wife, West Chester, Pa.; T. E. Adams, wife and child, W. McComb, Miss Browne, E. F. Durham, W. B. Keeny, Charleston, S. C.; E. B. Whitman, Jos. Ogulor, T. J. Boykin, H. J. Marsh, Baltimore, Md.; Wm. H. Williams, Jr., Warsaw, N. C.; W. H. Day, Florence, S. C.; F. McQueen, L. S. Burbon, Lumberton, N. C.; Robert N. Sweat, England.

The Wilmington Journal.

The first number of the WILMINGTON JOURNAL (weekly) new series, was mailed this morning. It was a pretty large edition and it was after 2 o'clock this morning and the last of the mail list had been directed. The JOURNAL is a large 32 column paper and is made up to a very close resemblance to its ancient self. It is, we think, the largest weekly published in the State and presents reading matter enough in one issue to supply a big family with a week's reading.

Premiums for the Sampson Fair.

Mr. G. J. Boney desires us to state that all parties who have offered premiums to be awarded at the Sampson County Fair are requested to send them to the office of Messrs. G. Boney & Son on North Water street by 12 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Boney will then take charge and forward the same to the managers at Clinton.

Market and Front streets are putting on their Christmas apparel.

Mayor Dawson feeling indisposed this morning there was no session of the City Court.

Carrie Wright, one of the celebrities of Paddy's Hollow, was arrested last night charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

A small colored boy was lodged in the lockup yesterday afternoon, charged with a violation of one of the city ordinances.

Col. Wm. L. Smith, of this city, has been appointed a Notary Public by His Excellency, the Governor.

The Cincinnati Enquirer is already figuring upon the result in 1880, and at the lowest possible calculation puts the Democratic majority in the electoral college at 63.

Mr. Charles Burkholder will open a tobacco store in a few days, on Front street near the grocery establishment of Mr. Geo. Myers. He has our best wishes.

There is to be opened in the Giles building on the corner of Water and Market streets, a Ship Chandlery establishment, by a couple of Norwegian gentlemen, who have stores in New York and Savannah.

Notwithstanding the fact that there is a city ordinance prohibiting the running at large of cattle, it is not an uncommon sight to see cows walking leisurely through the streets.

Oyster Pie.

We are indebted to a lady friend, who wishes us to publish it, for the following recipe for making that desirable dish, an oyster pie:

First—catch your oyster; then make a rich puff paste, line a baking dish with it, and fill with bread crumbs; butter the edges of the dish, put on the top cover, and edge with leaves cut out of the paste, and bake in a moderate oven; wash the oysters in water, strain the liquor, put it in a saucepan over the fire and let it come to a boil; put in your oysters, with salt, cayenne pepper, mace and nutmeg; thicken with yolk of a hard boiled egg, and fine bread crumbs grated, add butter; when the oysters are plump, and the paste baked, take off the top lid very carefully, turn out the bread, and fill with the prepared oysters hot as possible; put on the cover and send to the table.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

CASTLE HALL, GERMANIA LODGE,
No. 4, K. of P.,
WILMINGTON, N. C., Dec. 6, 1877.

Whereas, It having pleased Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, mercy and goodness, to again afflict us as an organization, by removing from our midst our well beloved Brother P. C. JOHN C. KOCH, who departed this life very suddenly on the 18th of November last; and, whereas, as his surviving Brethren we are called upon to pay this last tribute to departed worth; therefore, be it Resolved, That in the death of P. C. John C. Koch, this Lodge has again suffered a severe loss, one that it will be hard to replace.

Resolved, That as a Knight he was ever active, vigilant and fraternal, as a citizen law-abiding, zealous, and a lover of his adopted country.

Resolved, That by his sudden death we are again reminded of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, and though he may have had his faults (and who of us are there who have none?), still as his brethren we bury them in the grave of oblivion, and will only recollect and strive to emulate his virtues and his many acts of brotherly kindness.

Resolved, That we tender to his surviving widow, fatherless child, aged mother, and other relatives, our sincere sympathy in this their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That as a token of respect to our deceased Brother, the members of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning, our character be draped for the space of thirty days, and that a blank page be inscribed in our Book of Record with the name, age, birth and date of death of our Brother.

Resolved, That a copy of the above preamble and resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and furnished our daily papers with a request to publish.
