No interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week.
Second Sunday in Advent to-morrow in the Church Calendar.
Schr. E. S. POWELL, Williams, sailed from London, for this port, on the 4th inst.
Steamer Gulf Stream, Winnett, sailed from New York on Wednesday, for this port.
Steamship Benefactor, Jones, from this port, arrived on the 5th inst., at New York.
No interments this week in Oakdale, if we may except the body of a still-born child.
The street cars do not run now on Fourth street north of Red Cross, "cause it don't pay."
There have been six interments this week in Pine Forest Cemetery, three of whom were children and three adults.
The weather has moderated very materially and it has not been nearly as cool to-day as it was yesterday and the day before.

Cotton Figures.
Receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,061 bales against 1,011 bales for the same date in 1876, and 644 bales for the same date in 1875.
Rev. J. M. Rhodes.
There seems to be a general regret expressed that Rev. J. M. Rhodes, for the past Conference year pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church, was not returned to that charge. Mr. Rhodes has been with us but a year, yet during that short period he has won the confidence and esteem of many without the pale of his church as well as within it. We can but wish him an appreciative congregation in his new field of duty.
Criminal Court.
The only case of interest in this Court to-day, was that of Nathan Hankins, who was convicted of larceny and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. A number of cases were continued, and not pres. entered in others that had been from the docket of the Superior Court, and then the Court adjourned for the term, after a session of but one week.
City Court.
Amos King, colored, was up before the Mayor this morning on the charge of being drunk and disorderly, and was fined $3—which amount the defendant paid over, and then loved himself out of the august presence of the City Court.
Carrie Walker, one of the denizens of Paddy's Hollow, was arraigned for being drunk and disorderly. His Honor said $10, which means cash up and no grumbling or committed until paid. She was committed.
There being no further business the Court adjourned.
The Good Die Young.
We regret to learn of the death in this city, this morning of jaundice, of Mr. Neill S. McLaurin, one of the most amiable and most promising young men in the city. The funeral services will take place to-morrow afternoon at 8 o'clock from the First Presbyterian Church.
Ladies Benevolent Society.
The visitors of the past year and all others willing to aid in the good work of supplying the wants of our suffering poor are earnestly invited to attend the monthly meeting of the Ladies Benevolent Society, to be held in the Hook and Ladder Hall on Tuesday afternoon next at 8 o'clock. This is necessary for arranging the duties of visitors for the ensuing year.

Appointment of Officers to the Insane Asylum.
From Col. James G. Burr, one of the Directors of the Insane Asylum of the State, who has just returned from a meeting of the Directors held in Raleigh on the 5th inst., we learn the following facts in regard to the election of officers for that institution:
Mr. James H. Moore, of Raleigh, was elected Steward, James S. West, Esq., Engineer, E. Burke Haywood, Jr. Esq., re-elected Secretary and Mrs. M. A. Lawrence re-elected Matron. The election for Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent did not take place, and their appointment will probably not be made until the next regular meeting in March.
The Directors made an entire revision of the by-laws, which have not been changed for twenty years, and concluded to create the office of Second Assistant Surgeon. The power to appoint a competent person to this position was conferred on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, together with the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent of the Asylum.

Burned at Sea.
Capt. Doane, of the steamship Regulator, which arrived here this morning from New York, reports having seen a vessel on fire off Hatteras on last Wednesday night. Capt. Doane reports as follows:
Wednesday, Dec. 5th, at 7 P. M., made Hatteras Light and at same time saw a large light off shore bearing S. E. by S., about 25 miles from Hatteras. Kept off for it and found it to be a fore-and-aft schooner on fire. The after part of the vessel, as far as the mainmast, was in a light blaze; both masts were standing and the upper part of the mainsail was hanging to the gaff; there was no one on board and the boats were gone. Saw two vessels pass her before we got up with her. Ran within forty fathoms of her and could have seen if there had been any one on board, and could have heard a hail from the burning vessel. She was loaded with lumber and had been on fire several hours; think the crew were taken off by the other vessels; could not ascertain her name.

How to take Care of the Teeth.
Some time ago the Odontographic Society of Philadelphia offered a prize for the best essay on the care of the teeth, the same to be published for the benefit of the public.
The prize was awarded for the following rules for preserving the teeth:
1. Cleanse your teeth once, or oftener, every day. Always cleanse them before retiring at night. Always pick the teeth and rinse the mouth after eating.
2. Cleansing the teeth consists in thoroughly removing every particle of foreign substance from around the teeth and gums.
3. To cleanse, use well-made brushes, soft quill or wood toothpicks, an ianatic stypic toothwash, and precipitated chalk. If these means fail apply to a reliable dentist.
4. Always roll the brush up and down lengthwise of the teeth, by which means you may avoid injuring the gums and necks of the teeth, and more thoroughly cleanse between them.
5. Never use a dentifrice containing acid, alkali, charcoal, soap, salt, or any gritty or powerful detersive substance.
6. Powders and pastes generally are objectionable. They injure the gums and soft parts of the teeth and greatly assist in forming tartar. A wash, properly medicated and carefully prepared, is pleasanter and more beneficial. It dissolves the injurious secretions and deposits, and the whole is readily removed with the brush and water.
7. Avoid eating hot food. Thoroughly masticate and insalivate the food before swallowing it. Frequent indulgence in sweetmeats, etc., between regular meals disturbs the process of digestion, and a viscid secretion is deposited in the mouth (from the stomach), which is very injurious to the teeth.
8. Parents, carefully attend to your children's second dentition. Gently prevail upon them, at an early age, to visit at frequent intervals a careful and skillful operator.
Remember that four of the permanent double teeth come in at about the age of six years. They are very liable to decay early, are very large, and should never be allowed to require extracting.
Children do not "shed" their teeth as they did in former ages. Instead of being trained to masticate nutritious food, they are tempted with and allowed to "grip down" delicacies, hot cakes, hot beverages, etc. Thus, by depriving the teeth of their natural function and overtasking the stomach, a morbid condition of the general system is produced; the "first teeth" are prematurely decayed, and the permanent set are not matured at the proper period of dentition. The consequences are terrible.
9. Never allow any one to extract a tooth or to dissuade you from having them filled, unless absolutely necessary. Many so-called dentists, actuated by selfish motives, advise extracting and sacrificing teeth which competent operators can render serviceable for many years.
10. Carelessness and procrastination are responsible for a large majority of the teeth that are lost.

[Norfolk Virginian]

The publication of the Wilmington (N. C.) JOURNAL will be resumed on the first Thursday in December, by Josh. T. James, the proprietor of the Wilmington DAILY REVIEW. The issue will be weekly, and the many friends of the old JOURNAL, which during its existence wielded immense influence on the political and material relations of North Carolina, will hail its resumption with pleasure. As before its politics will represent none but the soundest and purest of Democratic principles. Under the able management of our friend Mr. James we feel that a successful career is before it.

[Rocky Mount Mail.]
That old and valuable weekly, the Wilmington JOURNAL, is to be revived and will be under the control of the able and enterprising editor of the Wilmington DAILY REVIEW. Judging from the orthodoxy of the REVIEW there could be no better representative of the staunch old Democratic JOURNAL.
We do sincerely hope that Mr. James may infuse that life and vigor into the old ship that shall enable her to sail proudly in sunshine and storm, and from its resurrection to a new life may know of no such thing as failure.
