Politeness is benevolence in little things.

Hard words are like hailstones in summer, beating down and destroying what, if melted into drops, they would nourish.

The school boy counts the times till the return of the holidays; the minor longs to be of age; the lover is impatient till he is married.

Lunch boxes of solid silver, and of size convenient for the carrying of sandwiches, have been introduced in New York for the use of wealthy school children.

There are now but two pleasure clubs in full operation among the young gentlemen in this city—the L'Arion and the Lotus, this latter having been known at one time as the Wilmington Pleasure Club.

It is said that ivy will not cling to a poisonous tree of other substance. What a pity that the tendrils of a woman's heart have not the same wholesome and salutary instinct.

Set a small pan of coals under your beds, and sprinkle powdered sulphur over them; close the doors and windows tightly, and leave the room for ten or a dozen hours, and every bed bug on the premises will pack its trunk and depart without leaving its card. So says one who knows.

There is no Excuse for Poor Biscuits or rolls if DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is used. A trial will convince you that it is the best, healthiest and cheapest baking powder.

The Old and the New.

The young gentlemen of the Lotus Pleasure Club, of this city, will give a special Hop at Megninney's Hall, on the last night in the present year, on which occasion, with the assistance of their lady friends, they propose to dance the old year out and the new year in. That's right! Ring out the Old, ring in the New! Le Roi est mort! Vive le Roi!

Little Bridge

The question arises, what is the matter with Little Bridge? If we are not very much mistaken it was but a few years ago that this bridge was rebuilt, the contract having been awarded, as a matter of course, by the then Board of County Commissioners to an office-holder of the same political stripe. Let the present Democratic Board order a thorough investigation of the matter.

Pine Forest Cemetery.

The annual meeting of the lot owners of Pine Forest Cemetery (col.) was held last evening at the Court House.

Owen Barney was called to the chair, and Nathan G. Sampson was requested to act as Secretary.

John G. Norwood, President of the Company, made his annual report, which was received.

The following were then elected: Board of Trustees for the ensuing year: John G. Norwood, James W. Telfair, Louis LeGrande, C. W. Avant, Edward Dixon, Jas. K. Cutlar and Alexander Price.

Talbot, Richmond; Hon. Wm. H. Ross, wife and daughter, Delaware; S. Albertson, Kenansville; Jo. French, Rocky Point; J. W. Brinkley, Maxwell's.

The latest novelty in pipes is blue glass. We prefer tobacco in ours.

Nor. barque Vera was reported in below last night at the Signal Office.

Mr. W. M. Monroe, of this city, has removed with his family to Clarkton.

Pender county Superior Court, Judge Moore presiding, convenes at Burgaw next Monday. This is to be held in the last Court this year in this district.

Smoke only the "Little Flirts." They are the best five cent cigar made. Sold at Harris' News Depot, Front street. cod-1f

A Mashed Hand.

A colored laborer in one of the stevedore gangs, while engaged yesterday at work on the German brig Uca, had his right hand caught between two barrels and badly crushed. He received the necessary surgical attention, but it is probable that he will lose the thumb on that hand.

Getting Ready.

Messrs. Boatwright & McKay's big grocery house is putting on its Christmas appearance and getting ready to stem the tide of greenbacks and unremonetized silver which is sure to flow in over its counters next week. A large space on the South side of the floor has been counter off to be converted into a fancy department and it is there that Santa Claus will reign supreme.

The Christmas Festival.

The Christmas Festival given by the ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Megninney's Hall, last evening, was largely attended and the result was highly gratifying to all concerned. There were lots of beautiful things for the Santa Claus stocking and the Christmas Tree which found ready sale among the large number who were present, while the good things to eat were in decided and brisk demand. The Festival will be continued to-night and the ladies extend here a last call to visit the Hall this evening.

The Concordia.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Concordia Society, held on Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

Mrs. A. Weil, President; Mrs. Sol. Bear, Vice President; Mrs. D. Kahweiler, Treasurer; Mrs. S. H. Fishlake, Secretary; Mrs. R. Shrier, Mrs. P. Newman, Mrs. R. Greenburg, Mrs. A. David, Mrs. J. Weil, Directors; J. I. Macks, Trustee.

Myrtle Grove Oysters.

"You speak of fine New River Oysters in yesterday's Review," said Capt. Jesse Dicksey, of the Glarnder Bar, to this morning. "Now let me show you what Myrtle Grove can do," he continued, and thereupon exhibited to us some specimens of those oysters that for size, flavor and condition are hard to beat.

Myrtle Grove, from whence these oysters comes, is near the head of the Sound and only about 10 miles from Wilmington. Some few feeble attempts have been made to cultivate them and we are surprised that it has not already been made a regular business. They can be grown very easily and they thrive wonderfully with a little care and attention.

Results of a Runaway.

A colored man from the country, whose name we could not learn, was severely injured yesterday, on the old plank road, about two miles from the city, by the running away of a mule with a cart on which he was seated. He was thrown to the ground and the loaded cart passed over his chest, fracturing a rib and entailing some severe bruises.

DIED.

WILLIS—In this city this morning, 14th inst., MARTIN WATSON, infant daughter of Hardy B. and Mary C. Willis, aged 8 months and 24 days.

The funeral will take place to-morrow evening at 4 o'clock from residence of parents on MacRae, between Mulberry and Walnut streets, thence to Oakdale Cemetery. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.
