Maj. Frank Cameron.
We learn from an article in the Raleigh Observer that Maj. F. H. Cameron, the well known insurance man, formerly of this city, but for several years past a resident of Raleigh, has been almost unanimously elected Captain of the Raleigh Light Infantry, to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of first Captain, then Lt. Col., and now General, Basil Manly.
We chronicle the fact with pleasure.

A High Old Time.
Uncle Sam's soldiers at Smithville seem to have been taking rather too much Christmas in their late. A few days since, as we are informed by a correspondent, several of them got on a breeze in the course of which there was a difficulty which resulted in two of them being seriously stabbed by their comrades. All of those implicated are now under arrest and will probably be tried by a general court-martial. About the same time another soldier, while temporarily insane, jumped overboard, but as there was more than water on hand at the time he stuck fast until rescued by his comrades and placed in safe quarters.

The Bridge at Weldon.
The Raleigh News says that on last Saturday morning Maj. Winder, Superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, received a telegram from Mr. E. G.
Ghio, Superintendent of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad, stating that the Weldon bridge would be ready for the passage of trains on Thursday of this week.
Late in the day, he received a despatch from Mr. Robinson, President of the road, saying that the first train would cross the bridge on Wednesday.

If this is the case then we presume that freight, and possibly the mails, will be pushed forward to-day and at all events, by to-morrow, as was advertised by Col.
Pope in Monday's Review. We are anxious to see the double day schedule in operation again.

Hon. A. M. Waddell.
Our worthy Representative in Congress, Hon. A. M. Waddell, reached this city last night from Washington.
Col. Waddell, as Chairman of the Committee on Post-offices and Post Roads, has been doing yeoman service in Congress this fall and winter and has, by his determined efforts, at last succeeded in getting an appropriation of $500,000 for the Star service. This service consists of all mail lines off the line of railroads or steamboats, and is composed of the mail lines that are carried by private contracts over county roads in the interior of the country where there are no public conveyances, except possibly by stage coaches.
The people in our State and in the South generally, where railroads are not so plentiful as in the populous North, have felt the very great need of mail facilities, and it was owing to this one fact, that the government had never made any appropriation for the carrying of mails by the Star service, or at least, if the appropriation had ever been made it has never been applied in that way.
Col. Waddell's services therefore, and his success in securing this appropriation, notwithstanding the almost united opposition of Gen'l. Brady, of the Postoffice Department, and some of our other loving brethren of the North, both Democrats and Republicans, who habitually oppose our section being benefited to any extent by one-cent's worth of government patronage, should be the more appreciated.

IN MEMORIAM.
CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION,
St. PAUL'S E. LUTHER CHURCH.
Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to take from our midst our beloved Brother, JOHN C. KOGEL, in the prime of life and from an extended sphere of usefulness to his family, to the church, and to society as an officer of the State; And, whereas, it is due to the memory of our departed Brother, as well as to his family, that we should express our regards and sympathies, therefore, be it Resolved, That in the death of Brother JOHN C. KOGEL our Society has lost a worthy member, who was always ready to do his duty and answer to the calls made upon him.
Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathies to the family of our deceased Brother, directing them to that kind, compassionate God, who doeth all things well, and is able and willing at all times to be a father to the fatherless and the widow's friend.
Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be tendered to the family of deceased, and a blank page be left on the Record Book of the Association with name, date of birth and death and where born.

Personal.
We acknowledge the courtesy of visits, during the past two days, from Capt. R.
E. Saunders, representative of that Bourbon newspaper, the Raleigh Observer, Mr. R. M. Johnson, of the Goldsboro Messenger, (another Bourbon) Maj. T. D.
Love, of Bladen county, and Mr. W. T.
Bridgall, of New York

Lippincott's Magazine.
Of the articles in Lippincott's Maga- zine for January, beginning the new volume of this popular monthly, those that seem to merit most attention are Edward King's "Odd Corners in Austria," giving picturesque descriptions, well illustrated, of Trieste, Pola, and other places in Southern Austria, seldom visited by the mere tourist; an account of "The Late Judge Nicholas of Kentucky," interesting both for its political and its personal details, by Paul R. Shipman; and General Bris-bin's narrative of "A Journey through the Wind River Country." Alfred T. Bacon has a second illustrated paper on Sicily; Mrs. Hooper describes the Mont-de-Piete, the great pawnbroking establishment in Paris; and the "Gossip" contains, among other matters, some anecdotes of President Lincoln.

"For Percival," the new illustrated serial, continues bright and attractive.
Other stories in this number are "Voiceless," by Robert A. McLeod; "Uncle Pompey's Christmas," by Jennie Woodville; and the opening chapters of "Jack and Mrs. Brown," by the author of "Blindpits." The poetry is by Celia Thaxter, Emma Lazarus, and Edgar Fawcett, and the reviews are unusually numerous, comprising notices of all the chief holiday publications. It is a strong number.

Cotton and Turpentine.
It is a fact known to many observant ones that the turpentine lands in this vicinity, lying directly on, or in the near vicinity of, water lines or railroads, have become pretty well exhausted and many have argued from this fact that the trade of Wilmington must suffer seriously in consequence. This is a rash assumption; and the contrary is rather the case; there are still fine turpentine districts left in the interior which will last the life-time of this generation, and besides it has been found that the very lands from which the pines have been worked off in turpentine and timber are excellently adapted for the growth of cotton. This has been found to be especially true in Bladen county where the fact has been amply attested by actual demonstration. The high sandy lands are said to be capable of producing the finest kind of upland cotton. They are easily worked and nature has provided for them their own system of drainage and the cotton grown on them, as all planters well know, has the peculiar gift of enriching, instead of depleting, from the soil in which it is produced.

These facts are beginning to tell and the river steamers now bring down much larger quantities of cotton than was ever before the case. What they may have lost in freights on turpentine they have already more than made up in cotton, and so will it be with the business community of Wilmington. The indications are now that the Cape Fear will soon become as famous for its extensive cotton fields as it has long been for its rich pine forests.

LATEST NEWS.

The Prospects of Mediation.
LONDON, Dec. 16.—A Constantinople despatch says that several of the powers have already acknowledged the receipt of the Porte's circular. The tone of Italy's reply is very conciliatory and friendly. It says Italy will endeavor to have steps taken in concert with the other powers for the purpose of offering mediation.
Mr. Layard, the British Ambassador, denies that he has sounded the Porte as to the conditions of peace it would be willing to accept.
The London Observer says that it has reason to believe the Turkish circular was despatched at the instance of England.

The Scoteman's London correspondent says it is understood that the English Government does not wish to act without the concurrence of the other powers. It is most anxious to avoid complications which might lead to unpleasantness with Russia.
A despatch from Constantinople via Syria, says it is reported that England has sounded Russia as to conditions of peace. The Porte, however, has been informed that Russia desires Turkey to negotiate direct with her, and that mediation would only make the terms harder. The peace party seems to be gaining ground somewhat. Great discontent prevails among the population of Stambul. Seditious placards are frequently found.
BELGRADE, Dec. 16.—Prince Milan has started for Alexinsatz. The Servians under Gen. Leeschjanin have occupied with artillery the heights of Topolnitz and Secanika, commanding Fort Mramor, near.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 16.—The total Russian loss up to Dec. 13 was 77, 658 men.
COPENHAGEN, Dec. 16.—The report telegraphed hence to the London Pall Mall Gazette, that the Russian Minister here was believed to be negotiating with Denmark with the view of proposing Prince Waldemar or Prince John of Glücksburg for ruler of Bulgaria, is declared to be without foundation.

PESTH, Dec. 16.—A public meeting of from 6,000 to 8,000 persons has adopted a resolution that the Government should resist, even, if necessary, with arms, further extension of the power of Russia. The President of the Ministry refused to receive a deputation from the meeting, as it was accompanied by a crowd. The crowd becoming disorderly, the police cleared the streets.

HAVANA, December 17.—Advices from St. Thomas to December 13th state that there had been heave hauls up to the 8th instant. On the 29th ultimo the ship Lawrence Brown, from Philadelphia for Genoa, arrived, leaking, and discharged her cargo.
Advices from San Domingo to November 29th report a distressing condition of affairs. The revolution has spread all over the country. Carlos Baez, brother of the President and Governor of the Province of Azua, had been killed by the insurgents in his house. The San Domingo city prisons are crowded. Many prisoners have been executed in the interior, among them Gen. Milencano. Baez's fall seems inevitable.

All is quiet in Hayti.

The Situation in France.
PARIS, Dec. 16.—The Republican Left and Republican Union have decided to ask the Ministers to grant general amnesty for press offences since May 16, and the reinstatement of dismissed Mayors.
It is said that the Government will introduce a bill making the sanction of the Chamber necessary for the proclamation of a state of siege.
M. de Marcere, Minister of the Interior, has removed the restrictions upon the hawking of newspapers.
