Yesterday was warmer than Monday.

A lady's home dress ought to wear a long white; she never wears it out.

Do not say, "I'm chock full" when dinner is over; it has a foreign air about it.

Do not cherish a false hope. There is no fire escape that will answer, in your case, young man.

A Dastardly Attempt.
Night before last, between 8 and 9 o'clock, Mr. Courtney S. Sorvoss was attacked near the corner of Third and Dock streets, by some parties unknown, who dealt him a severe blow with a stick from the rear, which felled him to the ground. Mr. Sorvoss heard steps behind him, but thought no harm until he was knocked down. Before he could recover himself and gain his feet one of the men looked at him and said, "that's not the man," and the other "there's nothing there." The men, who were evidently watching for some one whom they had reasons to believe had some money on his person, made off up Dock street and were soon lost to view in the darkness of the night. No clue.

Hon. Geo. Davis Declines the Chief Justiceship.
On Tuesday afternoon Gov. Vance, acting in consonance and of with the advice leading members of the bar and jurists now in Raleigh, telegraphed to Hon. George Davis, of this city, tendering him the position of Chief Justice, made vacant by the death of Hon. R. M. Pearson, and urged upon him his acceptance of the same for reasons of importance to the State at this time, but Mr. Davis declined to accept the position saying, in reply: "I cannot possibly accept." The fact is known as yet to but a comparative few and has not, up to this writing, found its way into print, strange as it may appear. The Editor of this paper was in Raleigh on Tuesday evening and there heard of the matter and saw Mr. Davis' reply.

The regret at the decision to which Mr. Davis has arrived is a sincere one in Raleigh and will be equally so in Wilmington. It is believed that the position will now be tendered to Hon. W. N. H. Smith, and that as soon as possible, as it is imperative that the office be filled at once, the Supreme Court now being in session and without a judicial head.

The Thermometer.
From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:

An Onondaga county New York man has had his teeth pulled, to help him to stop chewing tobacco. This is on the principal in vogue among the Chinese, where they cut off a boy's head to cure him of swearing.

A woman living in the Fifth Ward, only fifty one years of age, has raised seventeen children, all by hand—she was always too poor to use slippers, and the consequence is her right hand is covered with warts and great callous spots.

An Office to be Filled.

We understand that the Board of County Commissioners of Pender county, at their meeting last Monday, declared vacant the office of Superior Court Clerk of that county, Chas. M. Galloway, the incumbent, a Republican, having failed to file a bond for the amount required by law. The appointment to fill the vacancy will, we presume, be made by Judge Eure, of the First District, who will hold the next term of Court in that county. We have heard no speculations as to who the new Clerk will be.

Col. Waddell in New York.

Hon. A. M. Waddell, who has been in New York City for a week past on matters connected with the Postal Committee of the House, of which he is Chairman, lectured in that city Tuesday evening last before an immense audience, for the benefit of the Postoffice Mutual Aid Association. He was introduced in a brief speech by Postmaster James, and held the great audience in close attention to the end. His subject was "The Two Americans, Morse and Maury." On the platform were William Orton, Peter Cooper, Joseph J. Couch, E. S. Sanford, Benjamin Willis, William Pleiss, Henry Y. Pearson, Gen. Arthur, Gen. Merritt, A. B. Cornell, E. C. Cowdry, Anson G. McCook and Mayor Ely.

Second Regiment Election.

Capt. Geo. W. Gordon, of the Whiting Rifles, and Lieut. Thos. C. James, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, left here this morning for Wadesboro, where the election for field officers of the Second Regiment N. C. S. G. takes place to-day. Capt. Gordon carries the proxies of the other commissioned officers of the Whiting Rifles, and Lieut. James those of the Wilmington Light Infantry. A large attendance is expected in Wadesboro and a grand ball and supper is to be given this evening at the Huntley House in that place, complimentary to the visiting officers.

The First Regiment.

A special to the DAILY REVIEW from Goldsboro, received this afternoon, conveys the result of the election held there to-day. Capt. Henry G. Flanner, of this city was elected Major of the Artillery Battalion, and is the First Regiment N. C. S. G. Capt. Robert Hancock, of Newbern, was elected Colonel, Capt. John W. Cotton, of Tarboro, Lieutenant Colonel, and Lieutenant H. P. Jones, of Hillsboro, Major. All excellent selections.

The Fire this Morning.

The alarm of fire this morning about 4 1/2 o'clock was caused by the burning of the kitchen to a double tenement house on Campbell street, between Third and Fourth streets, owned by Mr. Peter Smith and occupied by Conductor Carman, of the W. & A. R. R., and others. The damage was not so great as was feared, the entire loss having been about $200. The kitchen only was burned, the house having been saved only through the most strenuous exertions.

A Female Lawyer.

For the first time in the history of the State and of the people, the Supreme Court of North Carolina has been called upon to examine a female applicant for a license to practice law. The lady in question made application last Tuesday, along with a number of male students, but the Court held the matter in abeyance until argument as to their right to grant this license. The argument was made yesterday. A. W. Tourgee appearing for the applicant, and after a hearing the Court decided to admit the young lady to examination. This was done and she passed through with the very highest honors, not having stumbled once and having replied satisfactorily to every question asked her. She is now a full fledged lawyer and carries her license to practice in her breast pocket—no in her coat—no, no, in her reticule, perhaps.

The young lady is a Miss Holton, of Guilford, and her father was a lawyer before her. She is petite, very presentable in appearance, although not very pretty, modest and unassuming in her manners and only about 21 years of age. Her intention is, she says, to go west young woman) to practice law among the law abiding hoosiers in Kansas.

Unmailable Letters.

The following is the list of unmailable letters remaining in the City Post Office, Jan. 10th, 1878.
Theodore F. Jackson, 45 Broadway Brooklyn.

A night or two ago thieves broke open the chicken coop of a gentleman living on Dock and Fifth streets and stole six or eight fine hens.

No Mayor's court again to-day. Everybody is in good behavior. This is about the time of the year when people swear off, but as a general thing, like Rip Van Winkle, "that swear don't count" and in a few days they will commence again.

We understand, through a private source, that the office of the Salisbury Examiner is to be sold at public auction on Tuesday, the 22nd inst. This is a good chance for somebody.

The rain last night extended North and West to a considerable distance. It rained hard, all night long in Goldsboro, and the pine lands between that point and this were flooded this morning.

There is a pretty good freshed in the river and business should be lively now as there are lots ofrafts arriving here now with turpentine, timber, &c. After yesterday's rains, we may look for a still further rise.

We are glad to see that our friend, Mr. Wm. Bonitz, of the new hotel in Goldsboro, is succeeding so well. His house is generally full, but there is always room you know for one more. The table is well served and with the best to be had, while the servants are as polite and attentive as could well be desired.

Hotel Arrivals.

PURCELL HOUSE.—Wilmington, N. C. January 9th.—Cobb Bros. proprietors.—D H Kinzie, S E Sawyer, A W Vogdes, U S A; J D McLean, Laurinburg; P D Cowan, Wm B Mearns, Jr, John H Daniel, B C Myers, city; A H Worth, Fayetteville; John B Myers, Goldsboro; Horace Rockwell, Boston; E T Bangs, Syracuse; M Millhiser and wife, Richmond; Mrs Hagard, S H Madison, Chicago; James L Frazier, Virginia; J Spencer Cameron, New York; A McQueen, Red Banks; J C McCaskell, Shoe Heel; Wm McLaughlin, L H Cunningham, North Carolina.

Raw silk furniture is now the style.

CAROLINA.

Raleigh Observer: This is the week of grace with the Sheriffs, and yet only eighteen of the ninety-four in the State have settled in full with the State Treasurer. It is not on record where Sheriffs are as far behind as they are this year, and we begin to fear that there will be trouble in the land. The State can't suffer, the bonds are all good.

Statesville Landmark: Mrs. Lucas, residing near the car shops of the Western N. C. Railroad, near Salisbury, attempted suicide by drinking laudanum, one night last week, says the Watchman. When found, she was supposed to be dead, but ipecac, rubbing and walking till a late hour, restored her to life. She is said to be partially insane.

Raleigh Observer—Lee Haywood, the constitutional youthful rogue of this city, only 11 years of age, who was convicted of larceny at the last term of the Criminal Court and sentenced to twelve months in the county work house, was on yesterday pardoned by Gov. Vance on the condition that his mother would bind him out to some party in the country until he was 21 years of age.

Robesonian: The question as to whether the committee will or will not receive the new jail when completed came very near being decided by an accidental fire on Christmas day. Owing to the extreme wet weather fires were built in the fireplaces for the purpose of drying the walls, but leaving it for a time, one of the mantle pieces took fire, and but for the timely notice of a passer by, serious damage would have been the consequence.

Raleigh Observer: The young lady, Miss Holton, of Guilford county, and not Randolph, as stated yesterday, was not examined yesterday, as the question arose as to the power of the Supreme Court to admit women to practice law, and preferred to hear the case argued, and set the hour of 2 1/2 o'clock p. m. yesterday for the consideration. In consequence of the reception of Judge Pearson's remains at 4 o'clock, the argument was postponed until 10 o'clock this morning. Judge Tourgee will argue in behalf of Miss Holton, and as it is somewhat a novel case will excite much interest.

Charlotte Observer: Yesterday morning about 6 o'clock Mr. Thomas Pritchard, an old citizen of Charlotte, who occupied a house on the premises of Mrs. M. J. Morrow, on Myers' street, started into the house of Mrs. Morrow, for some purpose or other, when he fell heavily on the doorstep, apparently dead. Mrs. M. and her sister, aided by a colored man, lifted him up, placed him in a bed and rendered him such assistance as was in their power. Dr. Battle was called in and pronounced the case a hopeless one, and after lingering in great pain, undergoing one convolution after another, the unfortunate man, at 1 p. m., breathed his last.

DIED.

KING—Of consumption, after a long and painful illness, Mrs. ELIZABETH KING, wife of Wm. H. King, deceased, aged fifty-three years.
Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral at her late residence, corner of Eighth and Orange streets, to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock; thence to Oakdale Cemetery.
