LOCAL NEWS. See "ad." of Riverside Library. A. SHRIER—Great Reduction in Price. S. JEWETT—Daily Additions. OPERA HOUSE—Mary Anderson. MUNSON & Co.—Gent's Underwear. GEO. MYERS—Groceries, &c.

Day's length 10 hours and 17 minutes. Partridges are plucky birds. They always die game. This is the year 5,628, according to the Jewish calendar.

Miss Mary Anderson is prettier now than she was last winter. Yesterday's heavy rain seems to have been pretty general in this locality.

A gentleman who was at Wrightsville yesterday says that the Sound is full of ducks. Over one hundred dollars was collected last night at the concert given for the benefit of the Sisters of Mercy.

The physicians say that promiscuous kissing spreads diseases. Heart troubles especially, eh? To-morrow, the last Sunday in the month, is known in the Church Calendar as the Fifth Sunday after Epiphany.

While the fashion is decreasing, there are still many musical ladies who belong to the band of those who hang the hair. Fashionable ladies are wearing very rich and costly dresses of the color called plum. Many of their husbands are down on the plum.

It is really amusing to read the various explanations of "hell" which are given from the pulpit nowadays. Almost any taste can be suited. Did it ever strike any of our reflective readers that the same woman who admires some other woman's husband can't see what he saw in "that wishy-washy wife of his?"

Yesterly's Charlotte Observer says: Capt. J. E. Leggett, of the Carolina Central Railroad, was painfully bruised a few days ago, by being thrown a considerable distance by a pole with which he was attempting to "scotch" several freight cars while rolling down grade.

Honor to Ireland's Daughter. Information was received here this morning that the societies in Charleston which are composed of M'le Rosa D'Eri-na's countrymen would give her a public reception upon her arrival in Charleston. It is thought the societies will either meet her in a body or be in waiting for her at the depot.

The Bergers will not Come. Mr. W. W. Fowler, agent for the Berger Family of Bell Ringers, who arrived here last night for the purpose of making arrangements for the appearance of his troupe in this city, informs us that they will be compelled to give up the go-by this time as he cannot secure the Opera House, owing to the fact that Daly's Fifth Avenue Combination have already engaged it for the only nights on which the Berger's can appear here and that to select any other dates would interfere seriously with their programme and cause them to break engagements elsewhere. We are sorry to hear this as the Berger Family always present a delightful entertainment and are always greeted with good houses in Wilmington, where they are general favorites.

State Grange. It has been before announced that the State grange would meet in Greensboro on Tuesday February 5th. It is learned that the railroads have agreed to sell round trip tickets at reduced prices, and the Greensboro Patriot announces that special terms have been made with the hotels of that place. A large attendance is expected.

Dwelling Burned. From information received in this city yesterday we learn that the dwelling house of Mr. Thos. M. Aldridge, who resided about one mile from LaGrange, in Lenoir county, was entirely destroyed by fire last Monday night. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have been accidental. Mr. Aldridge was insured with Messrs. Jno. W. Gordon & Bro., of this city, in the Locomotion Company, for $750.

Fell Dead. A correspondent at Flemington writes to talk of the sudden death near that town, on Thursday last, of an old colored man by the name of Dempsey Powell. He was at work at the time on a small piece of land he had purchased and it was thought he died of fatigue and over-exertion, as he fell dead while at work. He was well thought of by the people of that section and was a hardworking, industrious man.

M'le D'Eri-na. The Opera House was filled to overflowing last night by those who had gathered there to be present at the probable last appearance in our city, of the sweet singer from Erin, who has been present in our city during the week. It was her happiest occasion among us and will long live in the pleasant recollections of those who were present. We bespeak for M'le D'Eri-na, wherever she may go, the courteous attention and warm appreciation of the musical world.

Military Election. At a meeting of the Cape Fear Light Artillery, held last evening, Maj. H. G. Flanner tendered his resignation as Captain of the Company, which was accepted, whereupon Second Lieutenant W. G. McRae was elected Captain, Third Lieutenant R. W. Price was elected Second Lieutenant and Orderly Sergeant W. E. King was chosen Third Lieutenant. Maj. James Reilly, First Lieutenant of the Company, we understand, declined the Captaincy, preferring to retain his present position.

Mary Anderson. The announcement is made in our advertisement columns that Miss Mary Anderson will appear in this city next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, on the first occasion in Evadue, and on the second as Parthenia, in Ingomar. It is the last appearance she will make here previous to her departure for Paris, and we know that she will be greeted with tremendous houses. The box sheet will be opened at Heinsberger's on Monday and those who want the best seats should not oversleep themselves on that day.

To Change. Mr. Jno. H. Allen has rented the store, for so many years used as a jewelry establishment by Mr. Thos. W. Brown and his successors, and will be pleased to see his friends there on Monday. Mr. Allen has received the agency for Jno. Bliss & Co., of New York, manufacturers of chronometers and nautical instruments. He will be assisted by Mr. L. S. F. Brown in the mechanical department, to which they will give special attention and guarantee to do as nice work here as can be done in New York.

Horrible Accident. From a gentleman who left Fayetteville yesterday morning we learn of a horrible accident which occurred in that city the day previous, resulting in the death of an old white man by the name of Merritt. The accident occurred within the town limits and on the track of the Western N. C. R. R. A timber train was being backed down to the river and Mr. Merritt, who was very deaf, was walking on the track at the time. The engineer saw him but was unable to check the train in time. The whistle was blown rapidly and repeatedly and the train hands endeavored by shouts to warn him of his danger. It was all in vain; he heard nothing and was unconscious of the fate about to overtake him. He was struck by the train and crashed and mangled horribly, almost past recognition. Mr. Merritt was very deaf and very old, having been upwards of 85 years of age.

Bishop Lyman's Appointments. According to the published appointments of Bishop Lyman, he will be in Goldsboro on Sunday, the 17th of February; in Wilson, Tuesday, the 19th; in Toisnot, Wednesday, the 20th; in Rocky Mount, Thursday, the 21st; in Ringwood, Friday the 22nd; in Halifax, Sunday, the 24th; in Enfield, Monday, the 25th, and in Weldon, Tuesday, the 25th.

Convicted of Burglary. Sheriff Manning received from the Sheriff of Pender, this morning, a prisoner by the name of Samuel Hays, a colored man, who was tried before Justice James Thompson, of Caswell Township, on the 21st inst., for the crime of burglary, found guilty and ordered committed until the next term of Pender County Superior Court. The prison house or jail in the new county of Pender not being secure, the prisoner was sent here for safe keeping.

Two interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week—both adults. Only one interment, an adult, in Oakdale Cemetery this week. No interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week. There was only one marriage license issued by the Register of Deeds this week and that was to a colored couple. Superior Court, after having disposed of two or three important cases to-day, adjourned at 12 o'clock until Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The necessary requirements of a good baking powder are purity, wholesomeness, and reliability. When pure it is always uniform in its results in producing light, easily digested bread, rolls, biscuits, and cakes. DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER has a well-earned reputation for perfect purity and thorough reliability.

Steamship Gulf Stream, from New York, arrived here to-day at 1 o'clock.

Wood is in good supply and cheap, blackjack retailing from 75 to 90 cents a load. During the past few days the water in the Cape Fear has fallen off some eight feet. There is still left however a plenty for boating purposes.
