The only excitement on Market Street to-day was the falling down of a mule attached to a dray. No damage.

"Before we were married," said he, "she used to say by-bye so sweetly as I went down the steps." "And what does she say now?" asked a friend. "Oh, just the same—by, buy!" "Oh, I see, she only exercises a different spell over you."

They were sitting at the tea table with a company of others, and as he passed her the sugar he murmured in an undertone, "Here it is, sweet, just like you." A moment later, having occasion to pass the butter to him, she drawled, "Here it is soft, just like you."

Excellent Corn Bread

One cup of corn meal, one cup of flour, one cup of sweet milk, one egg, one tablespoonful of sugar, and two teaspoonfuls DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, mixed with the meal and flour while dry.

On the Cutter.

We are sorry to part with Lieut. S. A. Brooks who has been ordered to the revenue cutter Seaward, at Pensacola. Lieut Brooks has been relieved by Lieut. F. M. Munger, of the revenue cutter Evening, now at Baltimore. We are pleased to welcome Lieut. M. among us.

City Court.

The only case before His Honor this morning was that of Dan Shehan, continued from yesterday on the request of the defendant. The case being called this morning the Mayor pronounced sentence of $3, and Dan at last accounts was reposing in a cell being unable to furnish the necessary spondulicks.

Miss Mary Anderson.

We take this last opportunity of reminding our readers of the fact that this evening Miss Mary Anderson, the celebrated Southern actress, whose name is familiar here as it is throughout the country, and whose talent and ability as an actress are undisputed, will appear at the Opera House as Evadne, a role in which she peculiarly excels. Miss Anderson is supported by Mr. John W. Norton, and we have no doubt that the performance will be a most pleasing one.

A Beautiful Vessel.

The new iron British barque Resolute, now at Messrs Alex. Sprunt & Son's wharf in the city, is one of the most beautiful vessels seen here in many a day, and is well worth visiting. She was built under the order of Messrs John Grant & Sons, of Leith, upon a model suggested by their agents here, Messrs Alex. Sprunt & Son, and expressly for the Wilmington trade, to carry 1,500 bales of cotton or 4,000 barrels of rosin on a draft of 12 feet of water. She presents a very handsome appearance being far superior to the class of vessels usually engaged in our trade, and resembles, in many respects, the beautiful barque North Carolina, so favorable known here.

W. & W. and W. C. & A. Railroads

A statement has been going the rounds in the papers of the State, and copied into the Star of this city, to the effect that there is soon to be a change in the management of the W. & W. and W. C. & A. Railroads. As made the statement implies that there is dissatisfaction with the chief officers of these roads. We were assured yesterday that there is not the shadow of a foundation for this rumor. The officers of these roads, from the President down, are able, efficient and acceptable to the owners of the property. They have discharged their duties faithfully and very acceptably to the public at large and the stockholders of these two wisely conducted and well managed roads would not willingly exchange their present officers for any that could be selected to fill their places. The erroneous report was first published in the Weldon News.

Death of Mrs. Boshamer.

We regret to learn, as we do from the Charlotte Observer, of the death of Mrs. Fannie Boshamer, wife of Rev. A. A. Boshamer, who was for two years the beloved pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church in this city, but who is now stationed in Charlotte. The following particulars we glean from the Observer:

Mrs. Fannie Boshamer, wife of Rev. A. A. Boshamer, pastor of Tryon Street M. E. church of this city, died at the parsonage yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. For many years Mrs Boshamer has been an invalid. Barely ever able to leave her room since her husband has been in charge of this station, and cut off as she necessarily has been from many of the enjoyments which surrounded her, she has borne her sufferings with christian fortitude, and when the summons came it found her quite ready to lay down the grievous burden which she so long borne, and purified by affliction, meet to enter upon the enjoyment which awaits her beyond.

Mrs. Boshamer was a daughter of the venerable and revered Rev. Wm. Closs, D D., of the North Carolina Conference, and in addition to her father and father's family and a devoted husband, leaves a little girl five years of age to mourn the loss, the full extent of which she is yet too young to fully realize.

The remains will be carried, as we are advised, to Louisburg, Franklin county, for interment, leaving this morning on the 6:52 train on the North Carolina Railroad.

An old toper, who by mistake got hold of a glass of water at a saloon an evening or two since, seemed to labor under an impression that he had been poisoned.

A young Lothario, much given to moonlight strolls, expresses the opinion that "to flit may be parsed as a fine-night verb."

The River.

The water in the river at Fayetteville began to rise on Sunday night and when the steamer D. Murchison left there yesterday morning it had risen some six or eight feet but with the probability of but little further rise. It is somewhat singular that for several weeks past the river has begun to rise regularly every Sunday night, the freshest generally attaining its head on Tuesday.

Funeral of Maj. Byrne.

The last sad rites of the Church were performed over the remains of the late Maj. Byrne at St. James Church this morning at half past 10 o'clock, by Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson, assisted by Rev. Dr. Watson, Rector, and Rev. Dr. Patterson, Rector of St. John's. The remains were taken thence to Oakdale Cemetery, followed by a large concourse of citizens and among them the gentlemen comprising the Board of Underwriters, of which deceased was a member, who attended in a body.

Convention of B'nai B'rith.

The convention of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith for the fifth district, comprising the States of Maryland, Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama, and the District of Columbia, will meet at Charleston, S. Carolina, January 29, 30 and 31. The Grand Lodge of B'nai B'rith of the United States, comprising delegates from all of the States in the Union, will convene at Philadelphia in January, 1879.

Messrs M. M. Katz, Wm. Goodman and J. I. Macks, delegates from this city, left here yesterday morning for Charleston.

A Question and a Suggestion.

Would it not be well for the police department of this city to have some well organized system in regard to the alarm of fire? The above question is propounded in view of the fact that last night there was a house burned down in this city between 1 and 2 o'clock, and yet the fact was not known at police headquarters this morning at 11 o'clock, for we made diligent inquiry to ascertain the fact and could get no information beyond the fact that there had been an alarm of fire. Now we would suggest to those in authority that hereafter it should be made the duty of the sergeant of the police on duty at the time in the district where the fire originates to have the information reported at once to police headquarters.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the Board of Underwriters of this city, held this morning, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

OFFICE OF BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS, } WILMINGTON, N. C., Jan. 30, 1878. }
 WHEREAS, In the mysterious dispensation of the Divine will our late friend and associate, Maj. Jno. A. Byrne, has been suddenly snatched from among us, thereby most forcibly reminding us that "in the midst of life we are in death," and,
 WHEREAS, It is but just and proper that we who were most intimately associated with him in the business relations of his life should give an appropriate expression to our appreciation of his many admirable qualities, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the untimely death of Maj. Jno. A. Byrne, this Board laments the loss of a most worthy member who was zealous in his interests and faithful to the obligations it imposed. Genial in temperament; generous in his impulses; courteous in deportment; sincere in friendship; a most affectionate husband; by nature brave and as a citizen patriotic, he was in every way worthy of our respect and esteem.

Resolved, That we most sincerely condole with the widow and relatives of the deceased, on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them and that we share with them the hope of a reunion in that better world which knows no sorrow nor parting.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this Board, that a blank paper be inscribed to the memory of the deceased and that a copy of these resolutions be tendered to the bereaved widow of our departed fellow-laborer, and to each of the daily newspapers of this city.

Misery loves company, but can't bear competition: there is nobody but who thinks their boil is the sorest boil in the market.

Never bet any stamps on the man who is always telling what he would have done if he had been there. We have noticed that this kind never get there.

Col. T. C. Fuller, of the law firm of Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe, of Raleigh, was in the city to-day in attendance at the Superior Court for this county, now in session here.

The Fire Last Night.

After many trials, much tribulation and numerous inquiries, we at last found out by proceeding to the scene of the conflagration that the alarm of fire, which was sounded between one and two o'clock last night, was caused by the burning of a small frame house on Castle, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, and is one of a row of building erected by Messrs. Northrop & Cummings, in the locality above mentioned, a few years ago.

The building was unoccupied at the time, and the fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. There were three attempts made to fire the building last night, the first attempt was made shortly after nine o'clock and was soon extinguished by the neighbors, the second attempt shortly after ten o'clock, when the fire was again extinguished by persons living in the neighborhood.

The third and last attempt, however, was successful, and the house, which was located in the suburbs of the town, was burnt to the ground before any of the engines could reach the spot. The Fifth Ward Bucket Company and the Hook & Ladder, we believe, were on hand at the spot. The steam fire engines Adrian and Cape Fear stopped at the cistern near the corner of Seventh and Castle streets. The building was valued at $350 and was insured for $250 in the Petersburg Savings and Insurance Company, Messrs. DeRosset & Northrop agents in this city.

Those who have the fewest failings see the fewest in others.

If, as it has been said, man is but a bundle of habits, what is woman?

The fashion of waistcoats seems to gain more and more favor with the ladies.

An old lady down town being at a loss for a pin cushion, made one of an onion.

On the following morning she found that all the needles had tears in their eyes.

The strongest propensity in woman's nature is to want to know "what's going on?" and the next strongest is to boss the job.

MR. REVIEW:

The Star in Sunday's issue spoke of the word "gruesome" and could not find it in the dictionary. If the Editor will look in Worcester's Dictionary he will find the Scotch word "gruesome," which means "horrible, frightful" which I take to be somewhat different from the general idea of its interpretation. Jamieson and Sir Walter Scott used the word.

Yours, B.
