A sweet thing in combs—honey.

Day's length, 10 hours and 43 minutes. Swedish barque Ernest is reported in below.

Intercents this week in Bellevue Cemetery.

But one interment, a female child, 8 years old, this week in Oakdale.

To-morrow is known as the Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany.

But one interment, an adult, in Fine Forest Cemetery this week.

No one seems to be able to name the winning horse in the Mayorality race.

Chicken thieves are still on the go, and business seems to be brisk in that line.

The Register of Deeds has issued but one marriage license this week and that was for a white couple.

The Brignoli Italian Opera Troupe is booked for Raleigh on the 14th. Would be glad to see them here.

The Germans have this good proverb: Thefts never enrich; alms never impoverish, nor prayers hinder any work.

Make no haste to be rich if you would prosper. Small and steady gains give competency with tranquility of mind.

The ordinance of baptism by immersion will be administered at the First Baptist Church to-morrow (Sunday) evening at the regular night service directly after the sermon.

Buckwheat Cakes. If properly made, are a choice dish for breakfast. If you wish them nice, light, and wholesome, always use DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER. Your grocer has it, or can get it for you.

Another Clock.

One of the finest pieces of wood carving we have ever seen is now on exhibition in the music department of Heinsberg's store. It is a fine Swiss clock which was bought in Interlaken, Switzerland, last Summer, by Mr. F. H. Rheinstein during his travels in the Old Country. The inhabitants of Interlaken principally make their living by wood carving and the specimen, which has been brought here by Mr. Rheinstein is said to be one of their best productions.

The Peabody Fund.

The Raleigh News says: Application has been made to Dr. Sears, the agent of the Peabody Fund, for funds for schools in this State, and allowances amounting to $3,500 have been made to fourteen of these. Raleigh schools obtain the sum of $1,000, divided as follows: Raleigh graded schools, white, $600; Johnston and Washington graded schools, colored, each $200. The schools in Greensboro are allowed $500, those in Fayetteville $400, in Wilmington (4) $1,000. For the colored State Normal School at Fayetteville, $500 has been promised.

Economy is Wealth, Consistency a Jewel.

The County Commissioners are, professionally a sort of finance board, to look after the interests of the county, and are therefore expected to institute as many reforms as possible, whereby a more economical administration of affairs in the government of the county can be conducted. This is all to be done in the interests of the tax-payers of course, whose representatives these Commissioners are. The Commissioners heretofore, or rather within the last 12 or 18 months, have marked out a line of policy which, if adhered to in all instances, would save the county considerable expense. They have refused at different times to pay different Judges of the Superior Court for certain days during the term when there was no Court. Judge McKay, we are reliably informed, was docked during certain days of his term of Court when he was not on the bench, and why, we may be permitted to ask, was not Judge Moore treated in the same way? There were five whole days during this term that His Honor, Judge Moore, did not pretend to hold Court, which, if the precedent established by the County Commissioners in Judge McKay's case had been followed, would have saved the county the nice little sum of about eighty-three dollars.

St. Paul's Concert.

The Opera House last night was crowded to its full seating capacity by an intelligent and appreciative audience to listen to the Amateur Concert for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in this city, under the guidance and direction of Professor E. VanLaer as musical director and Mr. Geo. L. Johnson as leader of the band.

At 8 o'clock, or a few minutes thereafter, the scenes on the stage glided apart and disclosed to view the members of the Concert Club, in full evening dress, with fingers on the keys and lips to the mouthpieces of their musical instruments ready to wait to their audience a "Cantata" Overture, which was immediately performed in the Club's usual good style.

The Quartette—"Stars of the Summer Night"—the next piece in the programme, was rendered so sweetly as to call forth an encore from the audience.

The Vocal Solo—"Ernani Fly with Me"—by Mrs. D. Kahnweiler, drew forth unbounded applause, while the audience in return for the encore which they gave this talented lady, were treated to a few snatches of the favorite ballad, "Comin' thro' the Rye."

The instrumental music on the pianos, flutes, violins and horns, participated in by Mrs. VanLaer and Misses Philyaw, Tienken and Greenwald and Messrs. Johnson, Latimer, Martin, Wilson and Mitchell was regarded as a fine performance, and seemed to be justly appreciated by an attentive audience.

The Vocal Solo—"Sunset"—by Mr. George Myers, was heartily applauded, and this gentleman was compelled to give the audience a few more notes of his fine baritone before they were satisfied. The Piano Solo, "Polka de Concert," by Miss D. Neff, was rendered very nicely and elicited frequent applause.

The Vocal Solo—"Magnetic Valse"—by Miss Annie Dawson, was rendered in such exquisite style and with a voice so highly cultivated, full of melody, and withal so sweet and charming as to bring forth rapturous applause from the audience, which was continued until the fair young Wilmingtonian again appeared and sang in response to the encore.

The "Moonlight Serenade," by the Cornet Club, delighted the audience more than their previous piece, and the obliging gentlemen of the Club were compelled to blow again.

The Trio Vocal—"Peace on the Deep"—by Miss Callais and Messrs. Hargrave and Myers, was rendered with fine effect; the full, rich notes of Miss Callais' soprano were in excellent harmony with the silvery notes of Mr. Hargrave's tenor and Mr. Myers' fine, deep baritone, and the audience encored again.

The Duet for Zithern, performed by Messrs. Ehrlich and VanOrsdell, was delightful to listen to, and was performed excellently well. The audience testified their appreciation of the performance by their hearty applause, and all seemed to regret when the duet was ended.

The Vocal Solo—"In Afloat"—by Mr. W. H. Northrop, was listened to with evident delight by every one, and Mr. Northrop was compelled to come forth again and roll out a few more of those fine, rich notes before the audience would be satisfied.

The Vocal Solo—"The Message"—by Miss Callais, was rendered in pleasing style and appreciated by the audience, who gave Miss Callais an encore.

The Piano Solo—Melodies in popular airs, by Miss E. Hahr, was applauded to the echo, and the audience would not be satisfied until they were favored by the fair performer with another performance of her exquisite touch in a few more popular airs.

The Vocal Solo "Whence Comes this Longing?" by Mrs. D. Kahnweiler, was, if possible, rendered in a more charming manner than her previous Solo, and the audience was completely enraptured while listening to the sweet notes of this accomplished lady's highly cultivated voice.

The Sextette, "Sleep, Gentle Lady," as sung by Messrs. Bradley, Wood, Conoley, Thomas and Rankin, received hearty applause and was encored.

Overture—Piano and Orchestra—"Poet and Peasant," performed by Misses Neff, Hahr and Brink, and Messrs. Hahr, Thorpe, Hall, Johnson, Mitchell, Wood, Wilson, Martin and Latimer. Accompanist, Mr. Thorpe.

This last piece closed the performance and every one left seemingly highly delighted with the evening's entertainment. The ladies, who are always first in matters of Christian charity and acts of piety, deserve the thanks of the Church for their efforts in this undertaking; they have shown a commendable zeal in all that they have done, but if they would add to the credit side of their account in the great book above, we respectfully suggest that they urge upon the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly volunteered their services for last night's occasion, now that they are up in their departments to repeat the Concert for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, or the poor of Wilmington.

Fire in Brunswick.

We regret to learn that the storehouse and stock of goods belonging to Mr. Geo. H. Bellamy, at La Grange, in Town Creek township, Brunswick county, were destroyed by fire on Thursday evening last. The cause of the fire has not been reported here. Mr. Bellamy was insured with Messrs. Jno. W. Gordon & Bro., of this city, in the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company for $900.

Mr. Phillips' Evening.

We learn that the receipts at the Front Street M. E. Church night before last, on the occasion of the Evening of Sacred Song given by Mr. Philip Phillips, amounted to something over $75. The attendance was very good but not as large as would probably have been the case had not many been deterred from attending by the weather. Those who were present will never regret having gone.

Again in Trouble.

Gentle Annie of whom we wrote so pathetically the other day, is again in trouble, and this time has come to grief sure enough, for she was bound over today by Justice Scott in the sum of $100, for her appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court for New Hanover county, on the charge of selling liquor without a license, and the latest intelligence that we are in possession of from the Sheriff's office is to the effect that she is still in the custody of this officer, unable to give the bond. Alas poor Crater!

Judge Russell Declines.

Hon. D. L. Russell, whose name has been mentioned very prominently in connection with the vacant District Attorneyship and who was actually a candidate for the position, informs us that he has been notified that, if he should receive the appointment, he must reside in Raleigh, and he therefore does not want it. He has written to the Attorney-General at Washington City to this effect. Judge Russell thinks that Judge Albritton will probably be named as Mr. Badger's successor. The office is not worth, directly, more than $2,000 a year.

DR. PIERCE'S STANDARD REMEDIES

Are not advertised as "cure-alls," but are specifics in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An inferior cannot supersede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Remedies have outlived all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No business could grow to such proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.

AN OPEN LETTER.

IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.

ROCKPORT, Mass., April 2, '77.

MR. EDITOR:—Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of Catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh, and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling-tube" makers (mere dollar grabbers) would be glad if they could emboss a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. "Snuff" "dust" "ashes" "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks" wouldn't work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse, and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted continuously for 168 hours. All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, nervous system shattered and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package, and use it with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months I entirely cured, and have remained so for over sixteen months. While using the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S. D. REMICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alternative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its Alternative properties, cures Diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula, or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers, or Old Sores; Blisters; Pimples; and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections; Incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequalled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, and Dyspepsia. Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness. In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.
