A despatch received at St. Petersburg yesterday from the Grand Duke Nicholas announces that in accordland and sea is to be immediately re-established between Turkey and Ruesia.

A private telegram which arrived here yesterday states that the British fleet is again leaving Besika Ray for the Dardanelles. The remainder of the Turkish fleet nas been ordered not to proceed to the Pireus, but to remain in readiness outside of the Dardanelles.

clude Turkey from the Conference, but class of over fifty has been formed. the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says Russia will not object to Turkey's being represented at the Conference. It is stated, however, that Russia will not acce t the Treaty of Paris as the basis of negotiation.

Both houses of the Roumanian Parliament have passed a joint resolution declaring that they are determined to maintain the integrity of Roumania, and will not agree to exchange any portion of the country for territoriol or other compensation. The Senate appointed a committee to draw up a protest to the guaranteeing Powers against the retrocession of Bessarabia. The popular feeling in London is intensely hostile to Russia. The persons to see it last Sunday. windows of Mr. Gladstone's town house and of the Daily News office were broken last night by excited crowds.

Crowds were thronging the street singing "God Save the Queen" and making demonstrations in favor of the government.

Consols drpped yesterday morning in consequence of a rumor that the British fleet had been ordered to Constantinople. This rumor is probably a mere guess, based on the announcement of a Russian occupation of Constantinople. Consols recovered rapidly and were quoted at the last board at 954. Russian bonds are two per cent lower than they were at the close of Wednesday's market.

An Adriancple despatch confirms the report of the opening of the telegraph line to Odessa. The quickest communication with Constantinople is, therefore, now through Russia.
