Meeting of Board of Aldermen—Election of an Alderman from the 4th Ward, who is Subsequently Elected Mayor

The Board of Aldermen convened at the City Hall last night at 7 1/2 o'clock, in accordance with notice made at previous meeting, for the election of an Alderman and Mayor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. John Dawson, which had been accepted to take effect last evening.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Alderman Vollers moved to reconsider the acceptance of Mayor Dawson's resignation.

Alderman Hill moved to lay the motion on the table. Lost.

Mayor Dawson asked leave to make a statement in connection with the motion, to the effect that only the demands of his private business affairs had caused him to resign, and that although he regretted very much being compelled so to act he must adhere to his original intention, and would insist on the acceptance of his resignation.

The motion was accordingly withdrawn. Alderman Myers offered the following resolutions, which were carried unanimously:

WHEREAS, The Executive Chair of the city having been made vacant by the resignation of the Hon. John Dawson,

Resolved, That we, the members of this Board, desire to express our regrets at his leaving us, and to place upon record our high appreciation of his official services and his uniform kindness and courtesy to the members of this Board.

Resolved, That we accept his resignation unwillingly, feeling that we shall miss his counsel and experience in managing the affairs of our debt-burdened city.

Resolved, That these resolutions be placed among the city records, and that the City Clerk present a copy to the retiring Mayor.

Alderman King then moved that the Board now proceed to elect an Alderman. Carried.

Alderman Vollers nominated Mr. Chas. H. Robinson; Alderman Foster, Mr. Geo. Chadbourne; Alderman Myers, Mr. Owen Fennell; Alderman Bowden, Mr. W. P. Oldham; Alderman King, Mr. S. H. Fishblate; and Alderman Hill, Mr. Edward Kidder.

The Mayor appointed Alderman Bowden and Foster tellers, and directed the Board to prepare their ballots.

The following is believed to be the correct polling of the several ballots:

FIRST BALLOT.

Chas. H. Robinson, 2 votes—Alderman Vollers and VonGlahn.

Owen Fennell, 1 vote—Alderman Myers.

George Chadbourne, 4 votes—Alderman Foster, Hill, King and Lowrey.

W. P. Oldham, 2 votes—Alderman Bowden and Flanner. No election.

SECOND BALLOT.

C. H. Robinson, 3 votes—Alderman Vollers, VonGlahn and Myers.

Edward Kidder, 3 votes—Alderman Hill, King and Lowrey.

W. P. Oldham, 1 vote—Alderman Bowden.

S. H. Fishblate, 1 vote—Alderman Flanner. No election.

THIRD BALLOT.

Owen Fennell, 1 vote—Alderman Myers.

C. H. Robinson, 2 votes—Alderman VonGlahn and Bowden.

F. W. Foster. This vote was thrown away as Mr. Foster is already an Alderman and is supposed to have been voted by Alderman Vollers.

S. H. Fishblate, 5 votes—Alderman Foster, Hill, King, Lowrey and Flanner. Mr. Fishblate having received a majority of all the votes was declared duly elected an Alderman of the city from the Fourth Ward.

Ex-Mayor Dawson, then briefly addressed the Board reviewing the history of his administration. He spoke in complimentary terms of the officials under him, and after thanking the members of the Board of Aldermen for their uniform courtesy and kindness withdrew from the meeting.

Alderman Foster, moved that Alderman Flanner be made temporary Chairman. Carried.

Mr. S. H. Fishblate the newly elected Alderman happening to be present, Alderman Vollers and Lowrey on motion of the latter were appointed a committee to escort the newly elected member to his seat.

The oath of office was then administered by Justice Chas. D. Myers, and the member from the Fourth Ward took his seat as a full fledged Alderman.

The Chair announced the election of a Mayor next in order.

Alderman King nominated Alderman Flanner, Alderman Vollers nominated Alderman Bowden, Alderman Lowrey nominated Alderman Fishblate, and Alderman Hill nominated Alderman Foster.

Alderman Bowden declined the nomination.

The three ballots were then held, and the following is believed to be the correct polling of the different ballots.

FIRST BALLOT.

Flanner 3 votes—Alderman Myers, Bowden and Flanner.

Fishblate 1 vote—Alderman Lowrey.

Foster 3 votes—Alderman Hill, Foster and Fishblate.

Bowden 1 vote—Alderman VonGlahn. No election.

Alderman Bowden insisted that his name be withdrawn.

SECOND BALLOT.

Fishblate 4 votes—Alderman Hill, Lowrey, Foster and Fishblate.

Flanner 4 votes—Alderman Myers, Bowden, King and Flanner.

Bowden 2 votes—Alderman VonGlahn and Vollers. No election.

THIRD BALLOT.

Fishblate 6 votes—Alderman Foster, Hill, King, Lowrey, Vollers and Fishblate.

Flanner 3 votes—Alderman Bowden Myers and Flanner.

Bowden 1 vote—Alderman VonGlahn.

Alderman Fishblate having received a majority of all the votes cast, was thereupon declared duly elected Mayor, by the Chairman pro tem, and the oath of office was administered by Justice Myers.

Upon taking his seat the newly elected Mayor indulged in a few remarks, thanking the gentlemen for the honor conferred.

On motion of Alderman Flanner, the Board then adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman.

Credit vs Cash.

Yesterday we met an old negro trudging along with a heavy side of bacon that he had bought, swinging over his shoulder. We noticed that he was miserably clad and asked him why he bought so much meat when he was so sadly in need of clothes? The old man stopped, looked us full in the face for a few moments, and said, in most solemn tones: "Massa, when I ax my back for credit, it gibs it; when I speak to dis," laying his hand upon his stomach, "it calls for de cash."

Should be Protected.

The insect-eating birds, have been ruthlessly destroyed in all parts of the country, and a war of extermination is still going on in communities where we might expect better things. These are but a small number of the causes which might be named, all working together, in giving the noxious insects the advantage over the husbandman, and bringing disastrous results where good would come, if an opposite course had been pursued.

The resolution offered by Alderman Foster, some time ago, for the protection of birds, was a good one and should be rigidly enforced. The English sparrows which were ordered by him will be here some time in April.

Ferocious Dog.

We have been informed that near the corner of Sixth and Mulberry streets is a ferocious dog, which seems to glory in attacking pedestrians as they are wending their way past the yard in which he is kept. Night before last an attack of this office happened to be standing on the corner of Sixth and Mulberry streets as the dog sprang over the fence and attacked a woman who was passing the yard. The young man, by the quick use of a stick and several well-directed blows, prevented the beast from doing the woman any serious harm. Had it not been that the young man was close at hand, the woman, in all probability, would have been pretty severely wounded. Such dogs are a nuisance, and should not be allowed to remain in the city, or a better way, to rid a neighborhood of such a terror, would be to put an end to them.

Stupid young man in lively young lady's parlor: "Have a bad headache; feels as if there was a lump of lead in it." Young lady: "Why, I thought that's the way your head always feels."

Whisky was ignominiously expelled from the Capitol at Washington some time ago, and the average statesman fell back on lager beer. Beer has now been driven out and a short session is almost certain.

Jubilant!

We understand that the Radicals seemed to regard Mr. Fishblate's election last night as quite a victory for them, and celebrated it accordingly. Loud hurrahs were given, we are told, until the crowd reached down town when the noise of the jingling of glasses was substituted for the huzzahs. Several of the good brethren it is said carried home heavy loads and two orthodox Republicans came near having a fist-cuff. The only thing that prevented, we believe was the religious scruples of one of the orthodox.

Natural Death—No Fou Play.

After all there does not seem to have been any well founded cause for the supposition of foul play in the sudden death of Rachael Murphy on Monday about four miles from this city. It seems that the deceased was very nearly 70 years of age and died from natural causes, brought on from want of proper nourishment and that comfort necessary to the health of one who has reached nearly three score years and ten. The old woman has been complaining for some time past of a pain over her heart, and of late has been grieving very much for the safety of her son who recently shipped on a vessel for Navassa Island as a laborer.

The rumor which has spread among the colored people of this city to the effect that the vessel was lost at sea and all hands had perished, prayed upon the old woman's mind to such an extent that at times she was thought to be insane. This mental trouble, coupled with the great exposure to which she was subjected, is, according to the Coroner's verdict, the cause of her death. After a careful and thorough examination by Dr. C. F. Burkhardt and the hearing of the evidence which was adduced, the jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to her death from natural causes.

The Stevedore Case.

The case of the State vs. Richard Hooper, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon upon the person of William Richardson, which was given to the Jury last night, has not yet been decided. The Jury, after staying out all night and up to noon to-day, could not decide and the case has again been set for trial. This is the famous "stevedore case." A few other cases were disposed of and two thieves were convicted and sentenced to the pen.

Cautionary.

We would like to make a suggestion to the Young America of this city who expect to indulge in sending missives to the idols of their heart on St. Valentine's Day, and it is this—it would be best not to deface the door panels of their Jularky's Papa's door by standing off and throwing rocks to let those inside know that a Valentine awaits the young lady of the mansion on the front door step. This practice ceased to be a joke last Valentine's Day, and it would be well for the young men interested to heed these remarks, otherwise some of them might come to grief—a word to the wise is sufficient.
