LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements. MUNSON & Co.—Silk, Alpaca and Scotch Gingham Umbrellas.

Local news is scarce to-day.

Why is it that women, unlike men, do not have parties on their twenty-first birthday.

The market is now well supplied with eggs at 12 1/2 per dozen.

For the information of the public we will state that the street cars are still running.

Send in your Valentines heavy this year. We want to paper the walls of our sanctum.

The wood and chicken feed is still on the ramp and we frequently hear of petty pilfering by these gentry.

Almost anybody can send a boy on an errand, but only the wealthy have leisure to spare to wait for him to get back.

An up-town man courted his wife for seven years, and after living with her two, now acknowledges that it was a court of errors.

School girls object of continuing the present fashions because they interfere with the exercise of sliding down the banisters.

The Lotus Club Hop, at Meginney's Hall last evening, was well attended, and our young friends enjoyed themselves hugely.

Red cedar chips are good to keep in drawers, wardrobes, closets, trunks, &c., and are a positive preventive of the ravages of moths.

The reason the "oldest inhabitant" doesn't remember such a remarkable winter as the present, is now explained. He died last spring.

"What do you say to grandpa and grandma for your nice, new doll, Sallie?" said a fond mother. "Thank you grandpa, and thank you grandma, it's a sweet dollie; but, but—I did hope it would be twins."

All honor to the gallant Waddell for the efficient service rendered the people of the West, in introducing a bill to rid them of an oppressor and a tyrant—a tyrant who will rank with posterity, as a peer of Jefferys of old. All honor to Colonel Waddell.—Statesville Landmark

Mountain Cake.

One cup of sugar, half a cup of butter, half a cup of sweet milk or water, two cups of flour, two small teaspoonful DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, two eggs, and "a little nutmeg. Fruit added is an improvement.

Postponed.

The parade of the Wilmington Light Infantry, which was to have taken place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, has been postponed on account of the weather, until tomorrow at the same hour, at which time the members are expected to be on hand promptly, at least, so says Capt. Coney.

The Great Comedian.

Sothorn the comedian of natural reputation, and who is noted for getting off a sell on his audience, will show here in his great characters of the "Crushed Tragedian" and "Lord Dundreary" on the 19th and 20th inst. Mr. Sothorn is a comedian of well earned reputation and should draw good houses, though we think he has made a great mistake in placing his price of admission above the reach of "common people."

The way they do it.

This is the way they raise funds in Raleigh for the church. We would like to know if the auctioneers is authorized to give a warrant deed of the auctioned property. Woodson says:

Change in the Hour of Service.

We are requested by the Rev. S. Mendelsohn to state that beginning with tomorrow, the regular Friday afternoon services at the Synagogue, will be discontinued, and that instead of the afternoon service, there will be evening service every Friday at 7:45 o'clock, when after reciting the prayers, Mr. Mendelsohn will deliver a lecture. The first lecture (to-morrow evening), will be in answer to the question "Is the idea of a Hell Biblical or Pagan?"

Correction.

In publishing the votes polled by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting on Tuesday evening the 12th inst., we unintentionally omitted to record Alderman Foster in the second ballot for Alderman from the Fourth Ward as voting for Mr. Kidder, and likewise Alderman King on the first ballot for Mayor as voting for Alderman Foster. These errors were entirely unintentional, and accidental, for we beg to assure the Aldermen from the First and Fifth Wards, that we had them recorded as above in our original manuscript, and the mistake lies between ourself and the printer, and no where else. We beg to assure the Aldermen, also, that there was no slight intended and we promise most faithfully, that such a mistake shall not occur again.

Swear not Falsely.

The conviction of Ben Brown, for perjury, in the Criminal Court now in session, should be a warning to those of our colored population who place so little value upon their oaths. It is, we fear, too true that a great number of the colored population of this city have no more regard for their oath than a Chinaman, and of late the charge of perjury has been brought against many of our colored citizens. With such promiscuous swearing as has been indulged in by some of the colored population, the life or liberty of a respectable man is hardly worth the toss of a penny.

We ask as a favor that you will not take our word for it, but

Come and See for Yourselves.

We court and love competition because we are thoroughly convinced of the truth of the old adage, that

"Competition is the Life of Trade."

We only ask of our competitors, in the classic language of an acquaintance of ours,

"To Tote Fair,"

And we think we will all make money and still be friends.
