Sad Occurrence. Just before going to press, we learn that a very serious accident happened to Mr. W. H. Frest, on Fourth, between Queen and Castle streets, about 4 o'clock this after noon; whereby he was dangerously wounded in the left breast, somewhere in the region of the heart, by a shot fired from a pistol in his own hands. How the accident occurred, whether accidental or otherwise, we have been unable to learn. We only know that the wounded man who is a very worthy, kind-hearted citizen; and a member of the night police force, is said to be in a very critical condition.

Not Quite So Funny.

In addition to the depredations already mentioned in the REVIEW as having been committed by the Young America of this city on the night of St. Valentines Day, we learn that a party tore loose a shoe makers sign from where it rightfully belonged and affixed it over the arch of the gate at the enterance to St. Paul's Lutheran Church yard, on the corner of Sixth and Market streets; having done this, the party thought that their mischief was not quite complete until they had fixed one end of a piece of wire to the church gate and fastened the other end across the sidewalk to a tree immediately opposite the gate. The wire was elevated from the ground about the heighth of an ordinary sized man's chin. Having performed this wonderful achievement the young rascallions waited near by to see whose chin would be the first to cross the wire, and it was not long before some gentleman who was walking hurridly to his home, without thinking of danger, was brought to a sharp stand still and came very near being knocked down by the violence of his contact with the wire, while the authors of sugar, one pint of cherries or berries well floured. Boil one hour, and serve with their project, immediately scampered off.

This may all be very fuuny to boys, but when boys get to be men, they fail to appreciate any such joke. There should be reason in everything, but throwing brick-State vs. Ephraim Simmons, Lydia bats at doors and breaking the side lights, Ann Robinson and Joe Miller, for larceny besides frightening the ladies and children, Gilbert, keeper of the "Home," will render quite so funny as some of these young scamps may find to their sorrow, before this matter is ended.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

GENTLEMEN-Another year has passed bringing us together in our twenty-fifth annual meeting to consider the lest in terests of our cherished Institution. The past year has been one of unusual depression in all branches of business. In my first annual report your attention was called to the embarrassed condition of the "Home" and I regret to say its present financial status is not materially changed for the better, you are aware that our newbuildingwas erected just prior to the 'panic' of 1873, and it was confidently expected that the income realized from store rents would in a few years, cancel the indebtednes of the Institution, but in this matter, our realization has not equalled our expectation. Viewing the situation, however, from our present standpoint it is not inconsistent with the facts in the case to affirm that a special, for the continuance of the old Newbern vigorous, effort on the part of each and every member of the society can and will bring the much needed relief. In this connection, allow me to acknowledge very gratefully, recent tokens of interest in the we' are of the Society, evinced by extra contributions from some of our leading citizens who appreciate the importance of cancelling that part of our indebtedness which claims our earnest attertion. This extra contribution was occasioned by the necessity of having to replace an amount of bed-room furniture which was rendered useless sometime ago, by the presence of smal-pox among the inmates of the "Home."

We gratefully acknowledge the generosity of the parent Society in New York, whose grant of six hundred dollars, during the past year, enabled us to pay the salary of our Chaplain. A report of this meeting. For further information as to our financial condition, you are referred to the Treasurer's report. Capt. $2 per dozen, at and tying wires across sidewalks is not an account of his department of the Institution. Respectfully submitted, GEO. R. FRENCH, SR.
