Why Suffer?
 WITH DANDRUFF IN THE HAIR when by calling at the Fashionable and popular Barber Shop under the First National Bank building you can purchase
I. Furmanski's Celebrated Hair Invigorator which is by far the best that has ever been used for that purpose, and ENTIRELY FREES the hair from it after a few trials. There is NOT THE SLIGHTEST discoloring of the hair, but it produces a soft and pliable state of the hair. It is made only by the undersigned, and can be had at my Barber Shop under the First National Bank. I beg leave respectfully to refer to the gentlemen named below who have used my Invigorator, and have authorized me to do so, as to the truthfulness of my statement, to wit: Gen. M. P. Taylor, Hon. A. H. Van Bokkelen, Capt. D. L. Filyaw and Messrs. G. J. Boney, S. H. Pihlback, Geo. A. Peck, A. H. Kelley and many others too numerous to mention.

 The Cornet Concert Club were out serenading again last night.
 The steam yacht Passport made the trip to Smithville yesterday in two hours.
 The Review will, to-morrow bring the anniversary of Washington's birthday, be published as usual.
 H. Marcus & Son are the agents in this city for the Bay View Brewery. He keeps the best of beer and ale. Read their advertisement and then try the different brands of beer and ale.
 Rev. Dr. Mendelsohn will deliver his second series of lectures on Hell and Perdition at the Temple of Israel, on the corner of Fourth and Market streets, commencing at 7:45 to-morrow evening. The public are cordially invited to attend. Seats free.

Col. Waddell, our Representative in Congress, will be the orator of the day on the occasion of the anniversary of the birth of the distinguished Irish patriot and martyr, Robert Emmet, on March 4th in Washington City.
 By the exercise of the most judicious management, the Grand Central Hotel, New York, has very cleverly turned the tide of trade in its direction not less by the sweeping reduction of its rates than through its excellent management.

A Strange Rescue.
 A party of six sailors, shipwrecked on a desolate island, were studying how to live three days on two pounds of flour. The mystery was solved on one of the sailors producing a can of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, which made such a large, light biscuit, that the party were fat and hearty when rescued.

Their Anniversary.
 The members of the Howard Fire Relief Engine Company celebrated their Anniversary to-day by a parade. They were headed by the Cornet Concert Club, who discoursed some very fine music. The festival of the Anniversary will be finished with a ball at the City Hall this evening, an invitation, to which, we acknowledge with pleasure.

City Court
 The only case before his Honor, the Mayor this morning, was that of an ebony damsel of Paddy's Hollow. The charge against her was disorderly conduct and refusing to obey the commands of a "star of the evening." The evidence being "bang up" against the damsel, she was fined $10 or ten days in prison, in which to ruminate over the saying of the way of the transgressor is hard.

The Richmond Military En Route for Charleston, S. C.
 Between 9 and 10 o'clock this morning it became generally known that a Richmond (Va.) company of citizen soldiery would pass through this city en route for Charleston, S. C., where they go, in response to an invitation, to participate in the grand demonstrations to be held to-morrow in honor of the birthday of him who was "first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Upon the arrival of the train a company of as fine looking men as it has been our pleasure to see in some time past, filed out of the car and marched across the platform to the car which will convey them to Charleston. The company proved to be the Walker Light Guard, Company B, of the First Virginia Regiment, commanded by Capt. Chas. T. Binford. The company numbers 45 men, rank and file, and were well equipped. Their arms are the same as those used by our volunteer companies and their knapsacks are the regular United States regulation. The Guards are accompanied by Voelker's brass band and the following members of the regimental staff: Colonel Bradley T. Johnson, Major Charles J. Anderson, Adjutant Jo. Janc Stern, Captain Cyrus Bossier, and Dr. Judson B. Wood, and by the following gentlemen and ladies: General William H. F. Lee, General H. H. Heth, Rev. H. Melville Jackson, General T. M. Logan, James Patton, John T. Stovall, Mrs. Bradley T. Johnson, Mrs. P. H. Aylett, Mrs. John Enders, Jr., Mrs. Blunt Mason, and Misses Nannie Leary, Lafond Palmer, Lou Barksdale, and Page Aylett.

Mr. Jno. Werner, formerly of Richmond, but latterly of Wilmington, who has many acquaintances among the traveling military and the musicians accompanying them, conceived a happy idea yesterday which he carried into execution this morning, to wit: he greeted his old acquaintances at the depot this morning with two kegs of good lager beer and they all did drink to the good old days of "Auld Lang Syne. Voelker's band played a couple of lively airs and the boys rallied around the beer.

Yesterday Gen. B. T. Johnson received the following dispatch from Gov. Vance: "You have my permission to pass through the State. Be virtuous and you will be happy, but will not have so much fun."
 To which Gen. Johnson replied from this city this morning: "Have taken your advice and been decorous, but dull, virtuous and happy. What message shall I take from the Governor of North Carolina to the Governor of South Carolina? It is a long time between, &c."

BRADLEY T. JOHNSON,
 Col. First Virginia Regiment.
 The train rolled out of the depot on schedule time, all hands seeming to have enjoyed their stay of twenty minutes on the cliff above the river.

The Robesonian and the Daily Papers
 Brother McDiarmid of the Robesonian insinuating up the list of dailies throughout the State, the has following kind words to say for all.

The people of North Carolina are justly proud of their daily papers; and we suppose that no cities of the same size anywhere in the South can boast of their equal. In Wilmington we have the Star one of the most enterprising and best newspapers that comes to our office. It is admirably edited, well printed, and has every appearance of thrift and vigor. The Review, the only evening paper in the State, is owned and edited by one of the most enterprising and clevermen in North Carolina, and is able, sprightly, and as sound as the silver dollar, for which there is, just now, such a clamor.—The Charlotte Observer is also an excellent paper; it is ably edited and has one of the best local editors in the State. The Raleigh Observer is very ably edited, superbly printed and has an excellent local editor, but its corps of regular contributors is so large that the quantity of local and State news is necessarily smaller than it would otherwise be. It furnishes, perhaps, more reading matter than the others and has some excellent correspondents, especially its N. Y. correspondent, "H." But the Observer is a power in the political arena, and is generally so regarded. The Raleigh News is able, enterprising and newsworthy and is the largest and cheapest daily in the State. The News has a splendid record.

We make our bow to the editor of the Robesonian for his kindly mention of the Review and its Editor. We trust that the Robesonian may yet live to become a daily, i. e. if the present Editor and Proprietor so desires it, and that brother Mac may survive to see it and reap the benefit—if there is any.
 Captain Tilton, of the schr. B. M. Tilton, reports seven feet of water on the obstructions at New Inlet yesterday.

OPERA HOUSE.
Sothern in his Character of the Crushed Tragedian.
 Quite an appreciative audience assembled last night at the Opera House to witness Mr. Sothern's performance of his really great character of the Crushed Tragedian. We say great character, because this talented Comedian has made the character of De Lacy Fitzaltamont one worth seeing and hearing, has thrown life into it, and made by his impersonation of the part, an odd and uninteresting character, one full of interest and humor to his audience, which excites the plaudits of all dramatic critics. One objection to the play may be found in the fact that there is not enough of Fitzaltamont, Tragedian of the Snaggleton Circuit.
 Mr. George Hollad as Captain Rackett of the "Rhinceros Irregulars" we thought particularly happy in his part and afforded almost as much amusement as the irrepressible Fitzaltamont.
 Miss Agnes Proctor as Florence Bristowe we think deserves especial mention for her admirable performance of the character she assumed. Mr. Lacy as Ernest Glendenning was passable. Mrs. Geo. F. De Vere as Miss Mountcashel sustained her part well. Taken as a whole, we think the Company the best we have seen this season.
 Mr. Sothern was repeatedly called out during the evening between the acts. The Troupe left this morning on the Southern bound train for Charleston, where they are expected to open an engagement to-night.

Stockholders Meeting.
 The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Bank of New Hanover was held at their Banking House in this city to-day at 11 o'clock a. m. Mr. William Calder was called to the chair and Mr. W. H. Green was made Secretary. Six thousand three hundred and seven shares of stock were represented, being a majority of the capital stock. After the report of the President and Director's was made, an election was had for Director's for the ensuing year which resulted in the election of the old Board as follows:
 John Dawson, D. R. Murchison, Donald McKee, H. Volders, R. R. Bridgers, J. W. Atkinson, C. M. Stedman, E. B. Borden, Jas. A. Leak, B. F. Little, I. B. Granger.
