The Wrong Pew.

He was gayly attired, bear's grease on his hair and a fat looking letter in his hand. He bustled into the Register of Deed's office and, approaching the R., said. "Here's a letter for you." The officer took it, and saw it was directed to A. Stewart & Co., New York. "Why this is not for me," he said." "Yes'tis." said the bear grease man. "No, no," said the R. "You is the Register, is you not?" Oh yes." "Well that letter has got money in it, and Bill Jones told me to bring it to town and have it registered." The R referred the rural gent to the post master, and he went on his way rejoicing, singing "Sweet bye-and-bye."

For the benefit of any of our readers who are inclined to send to the Paris Exposition, any agricultural exhibits, we publish the following "more recent decision" of Commissioner General Mc-Cormick, sent to the Secretary of the Cape Fear Agurcultural Association (that was) by the Commissioner of Agriculture at Washington.

Department of Agriculture, division in charge of Exhibits of American Agricultural products for the Paris Exposition

Washington, D. C., February 9th, 1878. Secretary Cape Fear Agricultural Association, Wilmington, N. C.

Sir :- I beg leave to call your attention to a more recent decision of Commissioner General, Hon. R. C. McCormick that Agricultural exhibits for the Paris Exposition may be sent to this city as late at March 3rd, and to New York until March

It is greatly to be perferred that they be sent here by the former date. But, where necessity shall require them to be sent to New York, they should be addressed to the "Department of Agricul-ture, care of U. S. S. Ship Wyoming, Brooklyn Navy Yard, New York."

Very Respectfully, WM. G. LEDUC, Commissioner of Agriculture.

In the following letter from the Raleigh Observer's intelligent Wilmington corres pondent, "Cosmos," will be found a very interesting account of the recent fashionable wedding which took piace at St. James'

Church, in this city, on the afternoon of H. HOWEY, JR., No. 47 Market street, the 20th inst:

WILMINGTON, Feb. 20, 1878. MESSES. EDITORS-St. James' Church this afternoon was the scene of the most brilliant wedding of the season. Miss Lily VanBokkelen, only daughter of A. H. VanBokkelen, of this city, was married at 5 o'clock, to Mr. Eugene Wiggins, son of Mason L. Wiggins, Esq., of Halifax, a It will pay you to examine my stock before venerable gentleman of the old regime, who is familiarly known to your readers in Halifax, Nash and Edgecombe as the old Senator. The Church was crowded with invited guests, and the bright rays of the afternoon sun, slanting through the richly H. Marcus & Son. stained glass windows, mingled with beautiful effect with a blaze of gas jets. The bride's maids and groomsmen were:

Miss Minnie VanBolkelen, of New York. and Mr. Louis P. Davis. Miss Isabella Davis and Capt. F. M. Knowles.

Miss Adele Smith and Mr. Jas. W. Miss Etta VanBokkelen, of New York, and Mr. Edward Eilers. Miss Nida Brown and Mr. A. H. Kelly. Miss Eliza Anderson and Mr. Wm. Lat-

Miss Meta Dav's and Dr. S. S. Everitt. Mr. Wiggins entered with Mrs. Van-Bokkelen. The bride, who was, and well deserved to be, the cynosure of all eyes, entered on her father's arm. The impressize ceremony was performed by the Rec- OFFICE TREASURER & COLLECTOR, tor, Rev. Dr. A. A. Watson. I observed Alfred Houston vs. A. D. McGowan, among the audience the Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, Rev. Dr. Patterson and Rev. Mr. Morelle, as representatives of the

> The bride's dress-I am sure your lady readers will not object to the paragraph I am going to write, and the gentleman, you know, can skip it if they are not interested-was of pale silvery silk of one of the indefinable new colors, exquisitely made by a Gotham artiste. It fitted the sylph-like form of the wearer perfectly, The arrangement of the bride's coiffure was a master piece of somebody's deft fingers. Crowning its maze of golden colored puffs and tiny curls was a spray of orange blossoms, which caught the folds of a delicate veil that enveloped the entire figure in a gossamer sheen of misty white. Mendelsohn's Wedding March was performed on the organ as the party entered and left the church, and during the ceremony one could catch the faint murmur of a melody played on the softest diapa-son organ stops. The bride and groom leave on the next train for New Orleans which city they will reach in time for the Mardi Gras festivities. The sincere good wishes of hosts of friends will follow the hands of the City Attorney for collection. them, and many an earnest response to the prayers in the inimitable marriage service of the Episcopal church has been uttered for them.
