A TERRIBLE FIRE.

The Burning of Mr. F. A. Schutte's large Furniture Establishment Entire Destruction of the Building and Contents-About $40,000 Gone Up.

The destruction of Mr. F. A. Schutte's

furniture establishment last night was the most serious conflagration we have had here in many months. The alarm was first given a little after 11 o'clock. At that hour officer G. W. W. Davis, of the police force, had just passed down Front street and around on Dock to Water and found everything secure. The light in the Front street portion of Mr. Schutte's store near the street was burning and everything seemed right. He passed on around by Water to Front streets when he heard the alarm given. He ran to the spot and locating the fire saw that the gas light had been extinguished since he had last passed there. Some parties were at the door then endeavoring to force it open, but they were restrained, and officer Davis then ran around to the Dock street entrance where several sailors had broken in the doors. This caused a rush of air The mild weather induces late hour into the building and the flames began to rage very fiercely. As soon as possible all of the various arms of the fire depart-The truest end of life is to know the due to the Cape Fear (colored) Steam Fire Engine Company. They all worked very manfully, but it was impossible to control or check the flames, the fire having spread rapidly through the entire establishment gathering in its fiery embrace the imscarce commodity in our marfiet and prices | mense stock of goods stored on the three floors of the large building. By 12 o'clock the destruction was complete, and it was only when the flames were becoming exhausted through the want of fresh fuel, that the immense volumes of water poured into the burning buildings produced any perceptible effect.

The surrounding buildings were all in great danger at one time, but through the almost superhuman exertions of the firemen, they were all saved with some slight

The fire originated in the workshop of the establishment which was on the first floor of the building on Dock street and where there was a considerable amount of very combustible upholstering material. Opinion is divided as to whether it was accidental or incendiary. The Front street building communicated in the rear with an alley way running back of Mr. J. H. Neff's saloon and it is possible that some villain may have found his way into the building through this rear door and needed, which is evidence of a very com- then fired the building. Mr. Schutte's loss is very heavy. He states that he had in store between $28,000 and $29,000 worth of goods and on this there was inhad $13,000 insurance apportioned among the following agencies: With Jno. W. Gordon & Bro., in Lycom-$1,000; with DeRosset & Northrop, in Norwood Giles, $3,000, in Orient, of Hartford; $2,000, in Phomix, of Hartford; and $2,500 in Howard, of New York; with Atkinson & Manning, $2,000 in Phoexix, of Brooklyn; and $1,000 in Fire Association, of Philadelphia. Mr. Schutte lost very nearly his entire stock, only a few street entrance of Mr. Schutte's store, belonging to H. VonGlahn, was very slightly injured. It is occupied by Mr. J. H. Mc Garrity, but Mr. McG. would not remove and therefore sustained no loss.

The building next north of the fire, on Front street, took fire through one of the windows, but the flames were soon put out. Damages about $300. The building belongs to the estate of the late C Tienken and was insured for $4000 with Norwood Giles in the Phoenix, of Hartford On the first floor of this building is located next to Schutte's, Mr. Charles Klein cabinet maker. His losses by water and removal will probably amount to $400 and he had but $200 insurance in the Orient, of Harttord, Norwood Giles Agent. Mr. J. F. Stolter, who has a grocery floor in this building, next north of Mr. Klein's, was damaged about $250. by removal. He is insured for $1,250 with DeRosset & Northrop, in the Underwriters. of New York.

the only sufferer to any appreciable extent. He occupied a part of a building next to the fire, used by him as a storeroom, and his loss by damages form the water will probably reach $300. He has insurance with DeRosset & Northrop for $800 in the London Assurance Corporation, of England.

The building on South Water street, 31 p. m. immediately in rear of the fire and adjoinning burning building, occupied by Mr. Joseph Neff as the "Verandah Saloon,' and owned by Mr. A. H. Neff, was at one time in imminent danger but by strenuous exertions the flames were driven back. The damages on this building will probably amount to only $200 or $300 and it is insured with Atkinson & Manning, in the Queen of Liverpool, for $2,000. Mr. J. H. Neff's stock and fixtures in the billiard room were injured to an extent which will hardly exceed $200. He is insured with Atkinson & Manning in the Hartford of Hartford, for $2,000.

Mr Schutte recovered his safe this morning and from it his books and papers, as well as about $100 in money. The books were but slightly scorched. It was at the opening of his safe that Mr. Vollers, which had but then occurred to him, and that was that while in Mr. Schutte's store ment had reached the spot, the credit of at 6 o'clock last evening he remembers to on Dock between Front and Waterstreets in tempting style. throwing the first stream of water being have smelled an odor as of something Rev. J. L. Keen, chaplain. Services every burning but paid no attention to it thinking that it was merely caused by the burning of a piece of paper which had been purposely lighted. In this fact may be found a possible solution of the cause of the fire. It is not unlikely that a spark may have been communicated from a pipe or a cigar or a lighted match carelessly thrown aside which communicated to the combustibles among which the fire was discovered. This, we think the most plausible theory of the many
