The Board of Aldermen meet to-night.
The Storm Signal flutters before the March wind breezes to-day.
A man that don't know anything will tell it the first time he gets a chance.
Hood called the slamming of a door by a person in a passion "a wooden oath."
The girl of the period, who is no bigger round than a candle, must have a taper waist.
On account of the inclement weather yesterday the excursion on the Passpor was postponed.
Jno. Robinson's Circus will give us the go by. He goes from Lumberton to Fayetteville and thence to Magnolia.
A white girl about thirteen years of age can get a permanent home by applying at this office.
The farmers are taking advantage of the beautiful weather to press forward their spring plowing.
The railroad authorities say that the Roanoke iron bridge will not be completed before the first of April.
March is keeping up its traditional reputation to-day. The wind blows at the rate of twenty-five or thirty miles an hour.
It has been observed that a lady with a diamond ring will scratch her nose, in a given period, four times as often as any other women.
It is confidently believed that every modern hackman was in the cavalry during the war, and hence his audacity in charging.
Ten or twelve persons were immersed at the foot of Wooster street yesterday by the pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist Church (colored).
Greek is the language for poetry, French for love and Italian for hand organ melody, but a man with a shirt collar that don't fit is the same helpless being in all.
Quite a change in the weather since yesterday. Within twenty-four hours the atmosphere has changed from spring to winter, and overcoats and fires are again comfortable.
It has been discovered that lager beer is a certain remedy for corns. We believe the usual method of applying the remedy is to let it soak into the corn from the inside of the foot.
Home, Sweet Home.
There's no place like it, especially if the breakfast biscuits or bread and the tea rolls or muffins are nice, light and enjoyable. Always use DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER in the production of these articles, and, other things being equal, home will always be sweet and happy.
An experienced traveller says: "After a week's sojourn at the Grand Central Hotel, I have no hesitation in saying that it is the best and cheapest first-class hotel in New York." 1w

Mardi Gras at Home.
Excursion tickets to Charlotte and return will be sold by the Carolina Central Railway, at the greatly reduced rate of five dollars for the round trip, beginning with to-morrow morning. This is done to accommodate parties desirous of attending the Mardi Gras Ball in Charlotte at the Central Hotel, on the evening of the 5th inst. Parties leaving here on tomorrow morning's train, will arrive at Charlotte in ample time for the ball to-morrow night. Tickets good to return for five days.

Another Discoverer
A rumor among the colored people of this city to the effect that a quantity of the "dollars of our daddies" had been unearthed on the banks of Greenfield pond in the southwestern portion of the city has gained a considerable impetus, and the mining fever is spreading with the rapidity of a hurricane. Some years ago a box of spanish dollars was found near the banks of the pond and it has just been heard of by the colored people. Probably some one thought he had made the discovery of a money mine and wanted his name handed down in "de archives ob grability" along with those of Columbus and Stanley.
Jews Holding Office.
It is only during the last ten years that a Jew could vote or hold office in the State of North Carolina, and now Mr. Fishplate, a coreligionist, has been elected Mayor of the city of Wilmington. He is the first Jew that has ever been elected to any official position in North Carolina, therefore the honor is more to be appreciated by him.
The Harmony Social Club has been re-organized and elected the following officers: President, Jacob S. Mack; Vice President, H. Brunhild; Secretary and Treasurer, Isaac Bar; Janitor, H. Marcus.
Philadelphia Paper:
There is a slight error in the above statement in regard to Mr. Fishplate being the first Jew that was ever elected to any official position in North Carolina, as Mr. Solomon Bear a citizen of Wilmington of the Hebrew faith was elected a magistrate in Wilmington township by the last Legislature of North Carolina, and qualified as such last November.

Doings at Burgaw.
We understand that the deeds for the land donated to the County of Pender by the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. Co. were received by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners on Monday last and also, that those who have recently purchased lands there have had the titles thereto confirmed.
The Board of County Commissioners for Pender county meet at Burgaw to-day, and as usual it is expected that there will be a large crowd present.
On Wednesday night there will be an entertainment given for the benefit of the Sabbath School at Burgaw, and the ladies are making great exertions for its success. The admission price has been placed very low, only twenty-five cents, and everybody and his wife are expected to be present on that occasion.
We are indebted to our correspondent W. B. for the above facts.

Accidently Shot.
We learned with regret this morning of an accident to Capt. Green of the Steamer North State on Saturday last. Just after the steamer had left Fayetteville one of Capt. Green's passengers, took out a pistol to fix it, as it did not revolve. The passenger thinking that he was in the stern of the boat, pointed it towards the partition and while trying to remedy the fault, the pistol was accidentally discharged, the ball taking effect in the fleshy part of Capt. Green's thigh, who was sitting in his office. Capt. Green sung out he was shot, whereupon the passengers and crew gathered around him. The North State was then taken back to Fayetteville and the necessary medical aid given to the Captain. The steamer then proceeded on her way to this city.

State Laborer.
Abraham Hall, colored, was brought up from Smithville this morning by Deputy Sheriff Wm. Brown en route for the "Pen" where he will serve for twelve months. He was convicted of larceny at the last term of the Superior Court of Brunswick county.
About sixty colored persons, members of a Masonic Lodge of Smithville came up on the Passpor this morning to participate and assist in laying the corner stone of St. Luke's A. M. E. Church on the corner of Seventh and Church streets.

City Court.
Wm. J. Gardner, colored for drunkenness and disorderly conduct was fined $15 and costs or fifteen days imprisonment.
George Gavan, white, for an assault upon Joseph C. Powell with a sheath knife was bound over in the sum of $200 to the next term of the Criminal Court, failing to give the bond he was committed to the custody of the Sheriff.

Can't be Helped this Time.
We regret very much our inability to publish this afternoon the proceedings of the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners held this morning. But the fact is, it is not our fault. Our reporter was on hand two or three times this morning to get a report of the proceedings, but the Board was still in session, and continued in session until half past two o'clock this afternoon, at which time an adjournment was effected. The reporter of the REVIEW was there ten minutes after, so parties at the Court House informed us, but he was not soon enough to see the Clerk, who, as soon as the Board adjourned, locked up his papers and adjourned himself likewise, to prepare to participate in the laying of the corner stone of St. Luke's A. M. E. Church.

Laying the Corner Stone.
The Corner Stone of St. Luke's A. M. E. Church was laid this afternoon by the Masonic fraternity (colored) of this city. The services were conducted by James W. Telfair, D. G. M., and the oration for the occasion was delivered by J. C. Hill, G. S. The Giblem and Mt. Nebo Lodges of this city and Pitagoras Lodge of Smithville, headed by the Rosebud Band, were punctually enroute for the church, where an immense crowd had gathered to witness the ceremonies.
