A correspondent of the Times at San Stefano is able to state that neither the surrender of a portion of the Turkish fleet nor a claim on the Egyptian tribute is included in the conditions of peace, and there is no interference with the portion of Turkish revenue which is hypothecated to foreign cred-

The Grand Duke Nicholas will probably visit Constantinople on Monday. It is said that he will move his headquarters to Ferikeni, within two miles of Pera.

The Daily Telegraph's Pera correspondent professes to give the conditions of peace. He makes the indemnity fully as heavy as was reported on February 25-viz., one thousand four hundred million roubles, with £40,-000,000 sterling in bonds added. The viously incomplete.

The Standard's correspondent at Vienna states that the Austrian and British Ambassadors have been inenter Constantinople.
