The Penn Mutual.

We invite attention to the very attractive exhibit made by the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, from its organization to December 31, 1877, which will be found in a double Great Inducements column advertisement in this issue. Our clever friend, Mr. J. D. Brooks, is the general agent for this company and the Penn! may thank his indefatigable personal efforts for the fine reputation it enjoys in this State. We solicit a careful reading and consideration for the statement.

Bonitz's Hotel

We have before had occasion to commend Bonitz's new hotel, in Goldsboro, to the traveling public. It is well kept, pre-linsurance company can appeal and it is sents a splendid table and excellent beds, doubtful if they carry the matter any and the employes and servants are as at- further. tentive as at any house in the State, while Mr. Bonitz gives his personal superintend ence to everything. The charges, too, are very low.

Down the River.

The steamer Passport took down quite a pleasant crowd yesterday to the seashore Smithville was reached in good time, when a portion of the crowd disbarked and others remained on the boat, which then steamed out over the bar going a short distance to sea. There was a pretty good sea on at the time, but the gallant little boat rode it nicely, and nobody lost the fine dinner which was provided for them on the boat.

Arrested.

John Munson, colored, was arrested this morning by officer Green, while at tempting to sell a lantern with the initials of the C. C. Railway Company stamped on it, for ten cents. The officers of the road were notified from the Police Headquarters of the facts in the case, when the property was identified by the storeout before Justice E. D. Hall for the arrest of the defendant. The prisoner was then turned over by the city authorities for trial before Justice Hall.

Gold and Silver.

Gold was quoted weak at 101 in New York on Saturday. The predictions o the "gold shriekers" and some of the New York papers were that upon the passage of the Silver bill gold would go up and bonds would come down. Now they are trying to explain why their predictions were not verified, but their explanations amount to about as much as their predictions. Gold is now lower than it has been since the Jays of the war and "the dollar of our daddies" will again take its stand along with the dollars of the Wall street gang. A silver dollar and a copper one-cent piece will now buy a gold

A Cutting Scrape.

Considerable of an excitement was caused on Saturday night by the cutting of Lewis Davis, a well-known colored man, by another colored individual named Samuel Robinson. It was all about a bunch of fish and a woman. Robinson, it seems, was passing along on North Water street near Market Dock, swinging a bunch of fish in his hand and as he passed Davis in company with a colored woman the latter was struck with the fish. She was naturally indignant and did not last, safe and sound. drawn into the quarrel, the result of which was that Robinson drew a pocket knife and stuck it into Davis in the left breast, just above the heart. Davis, who is a stevedore, received the necessary surgical attention and Robinson was arrested by officer Goodman and taken to the guard house. The wounded man is to-day doing as well as can to be expected and will probably recover. The case will be heard before Justice Hall, probably to-

Calla Lilles.

The Raleigh News says: A lady of our city, of great experience as a horticultur. ist, says that if the stalk of a calla lily be cut close to the ground and in a careful manner, another bloom will be found at its base.

A New Style Postal Card.

The committee on Post-Offices and Post-Roads in the House has agreed to recom mend a bill providing the adoption of the double-stamp return postal-card. This card is of the same size as that now in use. The two upper corners of the card have each a one-cent stamp affixed.

Custom Made Clothing.

Byl spec'al announcement, published elsewhere in this issue it will be seen that Messrs. Brown & Roldick have received the sole agency here for Devlin & Co., the great New York clothiers, and are prepared to receive orders for custommade clothing at New York prices. A full line of samples on hand and kept constantly replenished, an inspection of which they solicit.

Again Successful.

Col. E. R. Brink, Postmaster here, returned from New York on Saturday night, where he has been for several weeks past in attendance in the trial of the famous Lexington fire auit on which he is a plaintiff. He has again gained a victory which may this time prove a final one as there is but one more court to which the

At Beaufort

The Newbern 'Nut Shell says: beautiful steam yacht Tourist, with Commodore Chas. A. Cheesbor ough, owner in command, arrived at Capt Gray's wharf, foot of Craven Street, yesterday and was visited by many of our citizen, The Commodore, who with his family left his home, Northport, R. I., on his handsome craft some time since on a pleasure excursion, has visited. Wilmington, Beaufort and other points of interest on our coast. The Tourist will be in our waters only a day or two.

Gov. Vance Invited to Lecture Here, An invitation has been extended Gov. Vance, by the Ladies' Benevolent Society, to deliver a lecture in this city for the bene fit of our poor. If he accepts, he is to appoint his own time, of which due notice will be given. Capt. Pennypacker has kindly offered the Opera House for the occasion. The Governor has not yet had time, however, to reply to the letter, but we trust he will consider the petition favorkeeper of Company, and a warrant sued ably and delight our community with one of his interesting lectures.

Returned.

Mr. Adam G. Latta and Captain Walter Coney, two citizens of Wilmington, have just returned home after a three weeks' trip ting of the Court. to the South, during wnich time they have visited several Southern cities, including Charleston, Savannah, Montgomery and New Orleans. Our friends inform us that they encountered North Carolinians in nearly every place they visited, all of them occupying positions of trust and honor, and in several instances of profit also, which leads us to remark right here, par parenthesis, that it seems North Carolinians are appreciated far better in every State in the Union than they are in North Carolina, and it seems always have to go day afternoon, in that they not only deseaway from home to be appreciated, as it is State. Such men as Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk, and William R. King (Vice President under Pierce), Thos. H. Benton, Bishop Green, of Mississippi, and we think Bishop Polk also, would never have attained the eminence they reached had they not gone abroad from their own State limits. But to return to our friends who have ist returned—they are both looking remarkably well, and say they had a royal time of it, winding up their trip at New Orleans, where they witnessed the Mardi Gras festivities, and saw the monkey besides, to say nothing of the elephant, after which they embarked on the fast train for Wilmington, arriving here on Saturday

Found Drowned.

The body of a drowned white man floated up in a dock near the W. & W R. R. Freight Office this morning Coroner Hewlett empannelled a jury who elicited the facts that the deceased was August Olsen, of the Nor. brig Hilding, and FIFES, VIOLIN BOWS, BONES. and that it was a case of accidental drowning. The deceased was on shore on Saturday, the 2nd inst., on leave of absence but did not return at night or the following day, and on Monday the captain of the Hildingnotified the Norwegian consul of the fact, but stated that he thought the man was drinking and would probably return to the vessel when sober. The evidence shows that the captains, conjectures as to the man was true and that late on the Saturday evening in questionhe was in the insalubrious precincs of Paddy's Hollow very much under the influence of liquor. Since then nothing has been heard or seen of him until this morning. The deceased was about 28 years of age and hailed from Calmar, a town in the interior of Norway. He was a good seaman and was well regarded by his comrades before the mast and the officers of the ship. Mr. Heide, the consul, will see to the proper interment of the body and will notify his friends and relatives in that distant land of his sad and untimely death.

City Court.

The Acting Mayor had quite a leves this morning, there being an unusual number of cases on docket, and in consequence, an unusual number of attendants in the shape of witnesses present during the sit-

The first case called was Nelson McKoy, colored, charged with stealing apples from Messrs. J.H. McGarity & Co's. store, corner of Dock and Front streets on Saturday night, the evidence of guilt being pretty well established in this case by the policeman who made the arrest. The case was ordered turned over to Justice

Wagner for trial. L. D. Towers and Robert Phinney were arraigned for disorderly conduct on Suncrated the Holy Day by their behavior, rarely the case that they ever obtain any but broke the peace besides by engaging eminence within the borders of their own in a fisticuff fight, on the corner of Nutt and Mulberry streets, on the lot belonging to the premises occupied by Towers as a sailor boarding house, where pop skull and Jersey lightening is dispensed every day in the week, and Sunday too, to the denizens of Paddy's Hollow. The Acting Mayor imposed the heavy fine of $5 and costs to these violaters of the peace and of the Day of rest.

Henry Moore, colored, charged with disorderly conduct-behaving in a boistrous manner on the streets, was sentenced to one day's confinement in the city

Sam'l Robinson, colored, a rrested on a New York Cut and Finish. Saturday night for stabbing Lewis Davis, colored, was turned over to Justice Hall for trial. This ended the Acting Mayor's levee for the day, and the Court was adjourned.

The stock reports show 102,305 barrels of rosin on hand to-day against 63,929 on March 11, 1877, a balance in favor of this year of 38,376 barrels.

To an already well established reputation, are constantly added the warmest praises of travellers who have enjoyed the utes, roll thin, cut into biscuits, and bake hospitalities of the Grand Central Hotel, New York.

The Spring Styles.

Mr. A. David, the clothier, returned here last night from the northern markets where he purchased his Spring and Summer stock. He says that he has Elder, Thomas Evans, A D Cazaux, B F | never before seen goods so desirable and so cheap. He bought largely and will be busy all this week in receiving and opening his purchases.

Crockery as Well as Hardware.

Our lady readers will le glad to learn that Messrs. Giles & Murchison will open a large crockery and glassware establishment in the handsome store on North Front street, adjoining their present hardware house. Mr. Giles is in New York now, purchasing this stock as well as replenishing their line of hardware and tinware goods and in a few weeks the doors will be open and a handsome display of crockery goods will be made.
