Shad are plentiful and cheaper.
Now is the time to trim rosebushes.
A man always feels put out when he is taken in.
The Ger. barque Violette is reported in below.
White Swiss scarfs with ends of lace are again worn.
Peanuts vary from five cents a pint to five cents a quart.
Yesterday's rain was welcome to everybody and especially to the truckers.
Second street, North of Princess, is being improved with a layer of ballast.
The 7 1/2 A. M. Lenten services are generally very well attended these pleasant Spring mornings.
Dainty silk handkerchiefs are formed into ladies' breakfast caps, which are tasteful and becoming.
The style of dressing the hair with ladies is about an even thing now between the doorknob and pitcher handle patterns.
The modesty of individuals who might be benevolent is still of great intensity, and as a natural result, so is the suffering among the poor.
Read the ad. of the Manning House Bar.
The price of beer has been put down to five cents a glass, and the drinking community seem to appreciate it.
Samuel Bowles used to say there was a sixth sense—the "newspaper sense." There is also a seventh sense—nonsense.
This paragraph is a specimen of it.
The housewives in that section are reluctant to know that Mr. R. Thorburn is about to open a bakery on Third street, between Walnut and Red Cross.
A young man in the fifth Ward says it requires a very eloquent tongue to make a widow believe that a red nose is produced by a frequent rush of blood to the head.
On one side of the trade dollar is a young lady in a night gown sitting on a bale of cotton holding an olive branch in her extended hand. Who can resist this silent appeal for peace?
The beautiful flowering moss is now in full bloom in the woods around the city and the young folks of the new generation seek it every day as eagerly as their parents did a quarter of a century ago.
The most enterprising piano manufacturers of this country have already prepared their circulars announcing that they were awarded the grand prize at the Paris Exhibition for the best and sweetest-toned instrument.
Through travel is rather light just now.
In consequence of the advanced season there are but few health seekers going Floridawards and as it is rather early for the spring trade there are not many merchants as yet bound North.
This is the kind of weather in which to take cold. Do not be deceived by the flight of birds northward, by the sudden rising of windows or by the sounding of accordeons at midnight. Summer is not here. Keep on your thick shoes, and if you wear a red flannel pen wiper on your chest do not take it off until turkey's eggs are in bloom.
Hymenial.
Dr. W. C. Green, formerly of this city, but now a practicing physician in St. Louis, is to be married in that city to-morrow evening, to Miss Mellie J. Moulton. The cards state that the ceremony is to take place at 8 o'clock, and that a reception is to be held at 3,708 North Ninth street, the residence of the bride's parents, from 9 to 11 o'clock.
Dr. Green is a Wilmington boy, second son of the late Col. James G. Green, and only a few years since removed to St.
Louis, where we understand that he has already secured a good practice. We ter-der our best wishes for the success and happiness of himself and his bride.
To an already well established reputation, are constantly added the warmest praises of travellers who have enjoyed the hospitalities of the Grand Central Hotel, New York.

Then and Now.
It is said that the winter of 1829-'30 surpassed the present one in mildness.
Farmers ploughed every month of the season, and no snow fell until February 2.
It was followed, however, by a cold, backward spring with a snow storm in May which killed the returning swallows.
Personal.
Col. Wm. Lamb, of Norfolk, one of the gallant defenders of Fort Fisher, was in the city yesterday and registered at the Purcell House. Col. Lamb's visit was altogether on private business, and it was not generally known to his many friends in this city, that one of the heroic defenders of Fisher, who was so deservedly popular in this community in the time that tried men's grit, was in our midst until after his departure this morning.
Deserved Promotion.
Mr. George W. Bryan, who has been telegraph operator at Rocky Point for two years, has been appointed operator and agent at Halifax on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad. Mr. Bryan has a fine record for honesty, capacity, and devotion to duty and we are pleased to hear of his promotion. He is succeeded at Rocky Point by that promising and clever young gentleman, Mr. William H. Newell, who is a good telegraph operator, and quite popular, and acceptable in his present position.

False Alarm.
Last night about ten o'clock there was quite a stir made by the Hook and Ladder company starting out with their truck and running down Market street while the gong which is attached to the truck sounding with every revolution, of the wheels caused everybody around in the vicinity to wonder what the matter was and if there was a fire where was it? But no one could tell. So the gallant Hook and Ladder boys, like the famed crown head recorded in history, turned around and "marched up the hill again" until they reached the Hook and Ladder Hall, when the truck was safely stored away and the members of the company quietly stole away to their little beds. Fortunately no general alarm was given and the engines did not all come out.

Magistrate's Court.
The colored man John Munson, an account of whose arrest was made in yesterday's issue of the Review, found in possession of a lantern with initials of the C. C. R.
W. Co., stamped on it, which he was trying to dispose of for the whole amount of ten cents, was brought to trial to-day before Justice E.
D. Hall, and in default of bond for the sum of two hundred dollars held for trial at the April term of the Criminal Court of this county.
The trial of Samuel Robinson, appointed for 11 o'clock to-day, was necessarily postponed by Justice Hall on account of the absence of witnesses for the defendant.
The trial is again set for 11 o'clock tomorrow.

The Queen of the Oven.
A breakfast-biscuit or tea-roll made with DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is certainly the queen of the oven—so light, white, and delicious. You lift it tenderly, break it open gently, spread it daintily with fresh, sweet butter, waiting to be gracious.
After breakfasting on biscuits made with DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, what man would contemplate suicide or grumble because his wife asked him for money?

Postal Dots.
The Railway Age, a spicy little paper published by mail agents and in the interest of that fraternity, contains some items of interest everywhere. We glean a few dots:
The name mail agents is generally applied to every man who distributes mail on the railways, but there is a distinction.
The men employed on the through lines are called route agents; those on short lines, mail route messengers. When on the lines where it is necessary to have two or more men to attend to the distribution of the different classes of mail matter, such parties are called railway postoffice-clerks. There is a difference in the salary of each.
The territory of the United States is divided into nine divisions by the Postoffice Department, with a superintendent to each of the divisions. North Carolina is in the fourth division, the superintendent of which is L. M. Terrill, with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga.
The employees of the railway mail service take more pride in their business than almost any other employees of the government. This is because each man stands upon his record. Every mislent letter or package is reported to the division superintendent daily, and there is no possibility of saddling the blame on the wrong man.
During the year ending July 1st, 1877, there were distributed 675,996,858 letters, and 163,736 were mislent. It therefore follows that only one letter in every 2,500 was mislent.

Mail Route to Point Caswell.
The contemplated new mail route between Wilmington and Point Caswell by steamer, has made some of the citizens about Moore's Creek and vicinity fearful that they will, in consequence, be deprived of mails. To all such we would say that the weekly mail between Long Creek and Point Caswell will be continued as heretofore. We have seen a letter from Hon. A. M. Waddell to that effect, and also he has written twice to other parties in that vicinity to the same effect.
The mail from Rocky Point to Long Creek will be semi-weekly after the 16th inst., and as before to Point Caswell by land.
We mention this fact in order that our subscribers in Pender county may rest satisfied on the subject of mails between Rocky Point and Point Caswell. The people in that entire section are much pleased at the prospect of a new mail route, by water, between this city and Point Caswell, but at the same time desire that the old routes should stand and be increased in service. Now is the time for those in need of additional mail facilities to strike and to make known their wants to our Representative.

Murder Will Out.
Ben McAlister, an escaped penitentiary bird who was arrested by officer Van-Soelen a few days ago and who was held for an investigation by Justice Harris, had a preliminary examination this morning which lasted some three hours. The charge against McAlister, is the murder of Mr. Ben Smith in Lumberton, Robeson county, some four years ago. There were no eye witnesses to the deed examined, but by Ben McAlister's own confessions to his fellow laborers on board of a river flat, which were made in a boasting and defiant manner, he let "the cat out of the bag," and also acknowledged his guilt in the killing of a boy in Cumberland county, some time ago, for which he was tried, and convicted only of manslaughter. He was sentenced to a term of years, from which he escaped and has since then foiled the vigilance of the law until a few days ago. Relative to the manslaughter of which he was convicted, he states he killed the man with a hatchet, and then placed the handle in his victim's hand to create the impression that the hatchet flew off the handle striking the man on the head and causing his death. Ben has at his command the arts and wiles of an old offender and laughs at the charge against him as simply absurd, and says he can prove an alibi if he is permitted to pick his own witnesses.
He was committed to jail to await a trial at the next term of Superior Court of Robeson county which, we think, convenes on Monday the 25th inst at Lumberton.
His Honor Judge Eure presiding.
