After all that has been said about "sweeping reductions," the Grand Central that has made a "sweeping reduction." It offers first-class accommodation for $2.50

Little Bridge.

The repairs to Little Bridge, the contract for which was some little time since awarded to Duncan Holmes, have all been completed and travel across the bridge has been resumed. The repairs seem to be substantial, and it is thought that the sub-structure of the bridge is good now for at least ten years to come.

Continued.
Justice Wagner was busy this morning in examining parties who had been warranted by the Mayor in sums under two hundred dollars, for the payment of their proportion of the assessments made by the city for the improvement on Front street—laying the Belgian pavement &c.
The investigation was continued until the 25th inst.

Died of His Wound.
Lewis Davis, who was stabbed last Saturday evening by Samuel Robinson, died this morning from the effects of the wound. He will be buried to-morrow evening with military honors, he having been in life a member of Co. B, Fifth Battalion N. C. S. G.

The members of Companies A and B of the battalion are ordered to meet at their armories punctually at 1 o'clock.
Samuel Robinson, who struck the fatal blow, is now in jail and will be tried for his life at the next term of the Criminal Court.

The Cost of It.
The State and County tax on a piece of property owned by a gentleman of this city amounted to 69 cents. The owner of this property omitted to pay it, and the property was sold for taxes, and bought in by the State. After it was too late he wanted to pay his tax, and in order to regain the property, he was put to considerable trouble and found the costs and tax amounted to $6.02, which he had to pay to recover it. This example should be a warning to others to pay promptly or before their property is sold and the costs added to the tax.

City Court.
One unsophisticated individual from the country, charged with disorderly conduct at a respectable house in the lower part of the city, was released upon his agreeing to pay the damage claimed and the costs of the court, and to go and sin no more.

Another party arraigned on the charge of cursing and interfering with the police was fined five dollars or five days imprisonment failing to pay the fine the defendant was committed to the city prison.

A third party, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was required to pay the costs of the court. There being no further business, the Court adjourned until Monday morning.

The Address at Chapel Hill.
We learn from the Raleigh Observer that Maj. J. A. Engelhard has been selected by the young men at Chapel Hill to deliver the address to the graduating class at next Commencement. We copy here, with our endorsements the remarks of the Observer in making the announcement:

According to the ancient and honored custom of the University, the privilege of selecting the orator to deliver the address to the two literary societies, and especially to the graduating class, belongs this year to the Dialectic Society. Maj. Joseph A.
Engelhard is the choice. The committee empowered to convey to this distinguished gentleman the great but deserved compliment consists of Messrs. G. A. Robbins, A. D. Jones and R. D. Reid. The friends of the University will be doubtfully gratified by the wisdom and appropriateness of the selection. In the first place the students call back to them an old Chapel Hill boy, familiar with its traditions, proud of its history and intimately connected with its past glory and its renaissance, and ask him to point out to them the road to prosperity, to tell them as an older brother would they may avoid them. In the second place it is a cause of pride to all North Carolinians, and we claim them all as friends of the University, that her young sons recognize so readily that we have merit as a teacher, as a scholar and as an orator at home. Mr. Badger, Mr. Gaston, Mr. Moore, Mr. John Y. Mason and a long catalogue of distinguished men ranked it as one of their chiefest honors that they had been chosen by the suffrages of the representative youth of the State to give them a God speed on their untried careers.
Maj. Engelhard has won a reputation as a journalist that is not confined to North Carolina or her sister States, but it remained for the trying campaign of 1876, the glorious Summer of our redemption, to develop his talents as an orator. It is safe to say that no man made a more eminent or more decided reputation as a popular speaker. The handsome majorities that followed in his wake vouched for the efficiency of his work. We thank the young gentlemen for the honor they do themselves and for the compliment they confer by calling upon Maj. Engelhard to make the annual address to the two Societies. We congratulate the University upon the exhibition of State pride.

Republican Politics.

The "Star Club of the First Ward" held a meeting last evening on Sixth street, between Brunswick street and the line of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R.
The meeting was organized, on motion of Duncan Holmes, by calling Mr. James Wilson to the Chair and appointed John J. Rhodes, Secretary. Addresses were then delivered by various parties present after which the following resolutions, introduced by J. J. Rhodes, were adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of five members of this club be appointed by the Chairman to confer with citizens of the other four wards of the city with a view to organize clubs to act in conjunction with the club of the First Ward.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves not to support any man for an office of any kind who has in the past acted the part of traitor by selling out.

Resolved, That we return our thanks to the Hon. James Wilson for the able manner in which he presided over the meeting.

On motion the meeting then adjourned to meet again next Tuesday evening.

More Postal Service.
It was certainly a fortunate thing for the people of this section when Hon. A.
M. Waddell, Representative, from this District, was appointed to the Chairmanship of the Committee on Postal affairs. Since he has filled that position he has labored earnestly and unceasingly for the benefit of the people, a fact which is fully attested by the increased mail facilities everywhere. A few days since we published a communication in the DAILY REVIEW from citizens of Angola relative to an increase of service from Burgaw to Jacksonville and now we have the pleasure of laying before our readers the following prompt response from Col. Waddell showing that the matters set forth as required have already been accomplished.
The letter speaks for itself:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14th 1878.
DEAR SIR:

I have just read the communication in the REVIEW about the mail route desired from Burgaw to Jacksonville, and I have the pleasure to inform you that the matter was attended to three days ago, and before the article was published. I have secured every postal facility which has been asked for by my constituents, and frequently have anticipated them. By the 1st October next, Pender, Onslow and Carteret, will have all the mail routes and postoffices they want. I fix this date because some of the new services will not begin until September. Among the routes then to go into operation will be that from Wilmington to Point Caswell by steamer, and thence to Lisbon &c.
The route from Rocky Point, via Long Creek, to Point Caswell will remain as it is, with an increase to semi-weekly service, and one or two new offices. Brunswick will be improved also, by taking the mail off between Smithville and Shallotte and re-opening the old line, from Wilmington, via Town Creek (El Paso being abolished) Bell Swamp &c to Shallotte, and thence to Little River.

The order for these changes has been already issued. Changes are contemplated in the re-establishment of the old routes from Fayetteville down each side of the Cape Fear to Elizabethtown to connect there with the route to Clarkton.
And so in other counties. I write in haste only to advise you of some of the changes which have been and are being made. Yours truly,
A. M. WADDELL.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Esq., Wilmington N. C.

Stolen Goods Recovered.
A few days ago a party whose name we could not learn, living at Smithville, was robbed of several articles of household goods and having reasons for suspecting the thief and goods were in this city, had a search warrant taken out and a house occupied by Lucy Morse in an alley running from Third to Fourth streets, between Ann and Nun streets, was searched. Officer Richardson, who served the warrant and instituted the search, succeeded in finding one feather pillow, a cot, one sheet and a feather bed. The latter articles could not be identified by the owner but the pillow, cot and sheet he was satisfied were his property.
Lucy Morse had a preliminary examination yesterday and was sent to jail in default of justified bond of $200, for her appearance at the next term of the Supreme Court of Brunswick county.

Celebrating It.
The four sailors who were arrested and lodged in jail a few days ago for desertion and who were released from custody yesterday, because of the want of evidence, chartered a dray this morning and were sailing before the wind through the streets singing and otherwise glorifying over their success and freedom. John Barleycorn was at the wheel, and the party were as olly as "tars" could be.
