LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements. MUNSON & Co.—Cuffs and Collars. J. W. Lippitt—Canaries and Bird Cages.

Col. H. B. Short was in Tarboro last Monday. It will soon be time to borrow sun umbrellas.

Mrs. C. G. Kennedy received an anonymous letter yesterday containing one dollar, which was what was left of the expenses of a dance.

The Bell Punch. EDITOR REVIEW.—If the Moffett Bell Punch is adopted in this city will the dealers be required to pay the $12 50 monthly tax imposed by the city?

Ego. We have been informed that in the event the Bell Punch is adopted in this city the special tax alluded to will be abolished and the consumer will pay the tax through the medium of the Bell Punch instead of the dealer.

The Minstrels To-night. Simmons, Slocum & Sweetnam Minstrel troupe arrived here this morning and will give their first performance this evening.

Speaking From Experience. A very little experience is worth a vast amount of theorizing. That is what Lord & Taylor, the celebrated New York merchants, have to say about the agency through which they built up their large and prosperous business.

A Bone Bonanza. We saw some specimens yesterday of bone deposits taken from the farm of Capt. S. W. Noble, about three miles from this city.

Mothers, Mothers, Mothers. Don't fail to procure Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases of teething in children.

Puffs. One quart of flour, one tablespoonful of butter, salt, two or more tablespoonfuls white sugar, two eggs, three teaspoonfuls DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, and one pint sweet milk.

Wine and Cake for Evenings. Alfred Speer of New Jersey, it should be known, is one of the most extensive producers and dealers in Pure Wines and Brandies in the United States.

Controversy among the first-class hotels of New York shows that the service is constantly changing from one first-class hotel to the other, and the bills of fare show the same variety of dishes.

Proposed Excursion.

We are glad to learn that the Wilmington Light Infantry have in projection an excursion to the seacoast, to be given on the steamer Underhill on the recurrence of the anniversary of the Company, next May 20th.

The W. L. I.

For the first time in several months the Wilmington Light Infantry appeared on our streets yesterday in full-dress parade. Their ranks were thinner than we like to see but their splendid evolutions, their gallant appearance and their almost perfect manual of arms, more than made amends for everything else.

Why is it that the citizens of Wilmington do not take a greater interest than they do in all that pertains to this Company? It is an organization of which any city might well feel proud, and one that never has and never will reflect ought but lustre upon our people.

Dots.

Capt. Hussey, the Washington correspondent of the Raleigh Observer, tells some things about Wilmington that are of interest. He says that Mr. Henry Nutt, representing the Chamber of Commerce of Wilmington, was before the Committee on Commerce on Wednesday in behalf of the Harbor and River appropriation.

Also that Gen. Abbott, Collector of Customs at Wilmington, and Ex. Mayor Canaday are in Washington looking after the Custom House. He adds "there is to be a vacancy and Abbott recommends Canaday as his successor. Mr. Chadwick, an efficient and capable attaché of the Custom House, is also strongly recommended by the best citizens of Wilmington."

County Commissioners.

A called meeting of the Board of County Commissioners was held this noon, present, the Chairman and a full Board.

Mr. J. K. Brown was appointed County Surveyor in the special case of J. N. Maffitt and Wm. B. Giles.

It was ordered that the report of John F. Divine and James F. Post, in regard to the work done on Smith's Creek bridge, known as Little Bridge, be accepted and that the Clerk of the Board spread the same on the minutes.

Duncan Holmes tendered his bond for $500, in accordance with an order of the Board, for keeping in repair above bridge for the term of five years, which was approved and accepted and ordered spread on the minutes.

The Election Law.

We republish, on the third page of this issue, the synopsis of the election laws which we found in the Raleigh Observer, and will suggest here the correction of some few errors into which that paper has fallen.

The election for Members of the General Assembly, for Justices of the Supreme Court, Superior Court Judges and Solicitors and for Surveyor, Coroner, Sheriff, Clerk of the Superior Court and Treasurer, will be held on the first Thursday in August, the first day of the month, instead of the eighth, as the Observer has it. That is for this year only and hereafter all such general elections are to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November.

Again, the Board of County Canvassers are required to meet on the second day after the election to canvass the returns and this will therefore be on next August 3d, instead of August 10th.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.

At this writing, 3 p. m., it is cloudy and threatening rain.

Not Claimed.

The velocipede spoken of by us yesterday has not yet been claimed and is still in the possession of the Janitor of the city prison.

Bag of Meal.

The bag of meal found by Officer Woebe night before last has not yet been claimed and the Mayor has authorized Chief Brock to hand it over to the Ladies Benevolent Society.

The ladies of the Memorial Association held a meeting last evening to inaugurate arrangements for the proper celebration of Memorial Day, but the proceedings are not yet ready for publication.

Board of Aldermen.

A called meeting of the Board was held last evening, when the following proceedings were had: The Mayor stated that as the meeting was for the purpose of considering the apportionment of the expenses for the next year, that that was the first business in order.

On motion of Alderman Myers, it was resolved that the street apportionment for laborers be placed in the hands of the Mayor and Chief of Police, and that 75 cents shall be the minimum and 85 cents the maximum for a day's labor.

The apportionment of the expenses for the next fiscal year was adopted as follows: For the Police Department, $15,277; Street, $6,330; Fire, $6,170; Light, $6,303; Sanitary, $1,590; Elections, $400; Public Buildings, $1,850; Printing, Advertising and Stationery, $700; Prisoners, $150; Salaries, $5,040; Miscellaneous, $400; Extraordinary, $1,700. Total, $46,000.

On motion of Alderman Hill, the motion by which the apportionment of $5,040 was made for salaries of city officers was reconsidered, and the motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

On motion of Alderman Myers, it was resolved that any member of the police force who shall serve twelve months, and against whom no charge for neglect of duty shall have been made, shall become the sole owner of his uniform, provided that the buttons and all insignia of a police officer be removed.

The Board adjourned to meet on Tuesday next, at 8 p. m.

The New Bishop.

The Richmond Whig is authority for the statement that among the last official acts of Pope Pius IX, was the designation of M. Chatard, formerly President of the American College, at Rome, to be Bishop of Vincennes, Ind., and Rev. John J. Keane, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's church, Washington, D. C., to be Bishop of Richmond and Vicar Apostolic of North Carolina, as successor of Bishop Gibbons. It was first understood that M. Chatard would succeed to the Richmond bishopric, but it has transpired that the new Archbishop of Baltimore has thrown his influence in favor of Father Keane to be Bishop of Richmond.

Jefferson Davis.

We stated in yesterday's issue that Jefferson Davis was in the city and registered at the Manning House, and such was the fact, but we did not say a word about our old chief, ex-President Davis. As a consequence of the publication, however, we are informed that scores of our most prominent citizens called at the Manning House, many of them with the intention of carrying him off with them bodily to their homes, one or two having even dispatched messages to their good wives to prepare the guest chamber and kill the fatted calf, when it was discovered that there was no mistake as to the name of the gentleman in question, only as to his identity, the gentleman who had registered his name as Jefferson Davis having arrived here yesterday from Wayne county.
