WAR ABOUT CERTAIN.

England and Russia still Shaking Their Fists at Each Other.

The Congress Farther Off than Ever.

LONDON, March 25, 1878.—The Times' correspondent at St. Petersburg learns from a good source that no formal representation will probably be made for the present about the presence of the British fleet in the Sea of Marmora, but as was intended, the Russian troops will not embark now, as was intended. Influential and moderate politicians remark that fear of England's policy will force Russia to occupy Constantinople and drive the Sultan from Europe.

The correspondent adds:—"The only hope of peace is in the speedy assembling of the Congress. That hope, however, throughout Russia is fast fading. The bellicose excitement is intense, even in St. Petersburg."

The Times, in its leading editorial article, says:—"Lord Derby continues to insist that the whole of the treaty shall be submitted to the plenipotentiaries, but to guard against saying too much stress on this formal point he has asked whether the communication of the document to the several Powers is equivalent to the submission of it to the congress. Russia is understood to have replied that it is not. Thus she declines the only condition on which our government will send a plenipotentiary to Berlin."

The Journal de St. Petersburg says that England must yield her wishes to Europe and cease obstructing the definite conclusion of peace or the Congress must meet without England or Russia must act alone.

The Agency Russe, of St. Petersburg, says the statement that Russia has requested England to withdraw her fleet from the Sea of Marmora is premature.

The Czar has not absolutely declined to grant the concessions asked for by Reouf Pacha, but made his assent dependent upon a condition, which is believed to be a Russo-Turkish alliance. It is asserted that Reouf and Osman Pacha favor such an alliance.

Reouf Pacha, Osman Pacha and General Ignatieff arrived at Constantinople last evening. They will make a formal and ceremonious entry into the city to-morrow and have an interview with the Sultan. It is not yet known in what capacity General Ignatieff returns to Constantinople.

Count Zichy, the Austrian Ambassador to the Porte, has postponed his intended departure on Thursday because of the critical aspect of affairs.

The St. Petersburg Goloa declares that the treaty of peace falls short of the aspirations of the Russian people.

The Berlin North German Gazette says the treaty does not affect German interests.

A despatch from Volo says the Turks are blockading the insurgent villages of Mount Pelion by land and sea. Greece threatens to send troops to rescue the starving inhabitants if the Powers do not interpose. Greek interference would certainly cause war.

It is reported at Athens that the women and children massacred by the Turks in the sacking of the Thessalian villages of Olympus, Respassa, Caria and Litchochi number many thousands. Admiral Hornby, at the request of the British representative at Athens, has despatched a vessel to ascertain the truth of these reports.

As far as known up to Saturday night the North of England ironworkers had rejected the compromise jointly urged by the masters and their own delegates. The original demand of the masters was for a ten to seventeen per cent. reduction. The question will now be submitted to arbitration.

A DREADFUL DISASTER.

The British Training Ship Eurydice Capsized off the Isle of Wight—Loss of Four Hundred Lives.

LONDON, March 24.—A report has just been received here that the British naval training ship Eurydice, with 400 men on board, has capsized on the south coast of the Isle of Wight. The Admiral commanding at Portsmouth telegraphs the following particulars, received from the coast guard at Ventnor:—"The Eurydice capsized off Dunnoosehead at half-past four o'clock this (Sunday) afternoon in a sudden squall. One boy and a seaman were saved."

Other advices indicate that between three and four hundred lives were lost. The Admiral, on receiving news of the disaster, immediately despatched a steamer to the scene of the wreck.

The Eurydice was a training ship for ordinary seamen, under the command of Captain Marcus A. S. Hare. She was a sixth rate, of 912 tons burden, and carried four guns.

A violent gale, with snow, prevailed here to-day and extended through England. It was particularly severe at Liverpool.

LATER DETAILS.

ONLY TWO OF THE CREW SAVED—THREE DIE AFTER BEING PICKED UP.

LONDON, March 25.—A survivor of the Eurydice disaster gives the number on board as over three hundred.

Five were picked up by a passing schooner after being in the water over an hour, but all have died except two. It is not probable that any others were saved, as a strong ebb tide was running.

The Eurydice was under full sail when she was overtaken by a snow storm, accompanied by heavy squalls. The sun shown again brilliantly shortly afterward; but nothing was then visible except a few boxes floating down the channel. The survivors say they saw the ship suck down many as she sank.

CAROLINA.

Wayne county Superior Court is in session this week.

First strawberries of the season in Newbern on Sunday.

Concord Sun: A little daughter of a Mr. Springer, near Harrisburg, was tossed on the horns of a cow, last Monday, and her arm broken, besides receiving other injuries.

Charlotte Observer: Miss Harriet E. Bradshaw, daughter of Mr. J. A. Bradshaw, formerly of this city, has received the appointment of assistant teacher in school No 4 of the twenty-second ward of New York City.

Goldboro Messenger: Adjutant General Jones and Brigadier General Manly are expected here to-morrow on the occasion of the parade of the Rifles, for the purpose of an inspection.

Newbern Nut Shell: We are pleased to learn from a reliable source that through the influence of Senator Brogden the revenue cutter Stevens will soon be returned to duty in these waters.

Charlotte Observer: The dollar of the Mexican daddies maintains its popularity. The Merchants and Farmers National Bank received 5,000 by Friday night's press and began paying them out yesterday.

Wadesboro Argus: Mr. S. Murrell, of Charlotte, has opened several rock quarries in our county. He finds them all to be the very best quality of brown stone. He expects to work them on a large scale.

Newbern Nut Shell: The ladies of our Memorial Association have invited His Excellency Governor Vance to deliver the address on Memorial Day, who has given a qualified acceptance, and will, in all probability, be able to fill his engagement.

Goldboro Messenger: The Goldboro Rifles will celebrate the anniversary of the company to-morrow. They will parade the town in full uniform. The honorary members of the company have also been requested to accompany the parade either mounted or in carriages.

Wadesboro Argus: An affray took place on the 14th inst., between Leander Hamby and Elijah Church, two desperate characters of this county, which resulted in Church shooting Hamby through the thigh. At the last accounts he was in a critical condition.

The Newbernian learns that Mr. T. S. Gillett, of near Maysville, on Thursday last killed an alligator at his landing on the Whiteoak river, which measured 11 1/2 feet in length. Mr. Gillett says that these amphibious monsters are quite numerous in his section, and that he has lost several valuable hounds by them while hunting deer.

Charlotte Observer: The new thirty-ton Baldwin engine for the Western N. C. R. R. passed up that road Friday. It will be used altogether on the mountain work. The engine is not so large as was at first reported. There are a dozen engines on the Atlanta & Charlotte Air-Line R. R. of exactly the same size and weight.

Charlotte Observer: The litigants and lawyers in the case of McElwee vs Blackwell, for the right to the tobacco trademark known as the Durham bull, were engaged all yesterday taking the depositions of McElwee, the case having been re-opened by and with the consent of the commissioner of patents for this purpose.

On Friday next, the 29th inst., he will be still further ahead at Salisbury through witness, and will close the case, which will then go before the commissioner of patents for his action.

For the past ten days, says a correspondent of the Newbernian, the village of Pamlico has presented quite a busy aspect, numerous steamers and sailing craft, arriving and departing, freighting the immense amount of lumber to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, that the Messrs. Dail Bros. have manufactured at their mill at this place; not less than ten steamers and schooners have cleared from here in as many days, carrying to northern ports about one-half million feet of yellow pine inch boards, and there is still a large stock of it on their wharves ready for shipment. The energy and go-ahead-activeness that this firm displays certainly deserve success.
