Almost cool enough for frost this morning.

No session of the City Court this morning.

Fishing parties are the order of the day now.

This month has five Mondays and five Tuesdays.

One can almost see the green things growing to-day.

March came in like a lamb and went out like a dandelion.

The Board of Aldermen met last night, but adjourned for the want of a quorum.

Black alpacas cheaper than have ever been known, and an immense stock, at J. Hahn's, Fourth street.

The regular annual meeting of the members of the Produce Exchange will be held next Tuesday.

We understand that two new field pieces have recently been added to the armament of Fort Johnson.

Mr. J. N. Van Soelen, who for some time past has occupied the position of Deputy Marshal, has resigned and Col. D. Klein will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

If the person who plays the accordion near our residence every night would only change the tune occasionally or come near enough for us to scold him he would receive the thanks of the neighborhood.

Capt. Brock, Chief of Police, has been doing a good work of late in looking after the streets and sidewalks in the neighborhood of the Post Office. The improvement is a very great one.

It is rumored that Mr. R. W. Chadwick, who for a number of years has occupied a prominent position in the Custom House in this city, is to be "ousted" and Mr. Lawson E. Rice will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

The Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Co. did some good work at their regular monthly parade and practice yesterday afternoon. They gave the Market House a thorough cleansing and drew the water from the cistern of the First National Bank building.

The Peace of a Household
Is often dependent on the culinary and domestic skill of the housewife. Ladies know this, and by using DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER insure themselves the most perfect bread and pastry possible. Its use is economy also, for every can is absolutely full weight, and it is so strong and pure as to demand the use of a much smaller quantity than usual.

Sacramental Wine.
Speer's Port Grape Wine is a pure unadulterated wine, from the finest native grown Port Grapes, especially for the use of Christian Churches, and guaranteed to retain its grateful flavor and essential qualities unimpaired for any period. Much used for evening parties and by invalids.

Consumption Cured.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 126 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Sharp competition is the order of the day, among the first class hotels in New York. With one or two exceptions, they are trying to keep their old trade while adhering to their previous high rates. The Grand Central has reaped much benefit from this, by quietly "cutting" the rates from one to two dollars per day.

Mothers, Mothers, Mothers.
Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

Never Known Before.

Our ladies are turning their attention to the dry goods emporium of Mr. J. Hahn, on Fourth street, and from the number who are seen on the street leading to Mr. Hahn's establishment one would suppose the street was the principal promenade of the city. The fact is they are visiting and purchasing their goods from this house being able to get them for a less price by reason of the fact that the store expenses are not as high on Fourth Street as they are down town. The establishment presents as large and as fine an assorted stock as can be found in the city and in these days when ever, one is looking for "hard pan" prices buyers naturally turn their attention to Mr. Hahn's store as they are sure to get goods cheap, and have a fine stock to select from. The rapidly diminishing piles of calico, hats and dress goods speak well for the popularity of Mr. Hahn's goods and store. The yard wide piques and cheap alpacas receive very much attention from the gentler sex while "paterfamilias" looks sensibly on the yard wide bleaching with wonder and surprise at the very cheap prices charged for them. With experienced, polite and attentive clerks customers can not fail to be well pleased.

Dangerous.

A new and dangerous counterfeit $5 note is just reported as in circulation. It is on the Pocasset National Bank, Fall River, Massachusetts, of the "C," and dated January 2nd, 1865. Two of them were presented at the counter of the Pocasset National Bank on Friday, and their character, detected. They are also in circulation in Boston. The secret service are engaged in working up the case, and hope soon to capture the entire gang, two of whom are already in the toils of the law.

Ladies' and children's straw hats at New York prices, at J. Hahn's, Fourth street.

Criminal Court.

This tribunal got fairly to work yesterday afternoon, making rapid progress. The following cases have been disposed of since our report yesterday:

State vs. James Kegan, for selling liquor to minors. Verdict not guilty.

State vs. Richard Hooper, for committing an assault with a deadly weapon upon Wm. Richardson. Motion by the State, upon affidavit of Solicitor, for removal. Motion allowed, and ordered by the Court that this cause be removed to the Superior Court of Pender county for trial at the next term. Wm. Richardson and Ellis White, witnesses, recognized in the sum of $60 each.

State vs. James Taylor, for keeping a disorderly house. Verdict not guilty.

State vs. Obadiah Royal, for assault and battery. Guilty.

Motion for a new trial was made, but over-ruled. The judgment in the case was $1 and costs.

Bryant Morse, assault and battery. Guilty.

The case of Sam'l. Robinson, charged with the murder of Louis Davis, was set for Friday next and a special venire of sixty men ordered.

Wilmington & Coast Turnpike Company. Misdemeanor, obstructing a public road. Guilty.

Another case on the same charge against the Company is now in progress, but will not be finished up to our going to press.

Unmailable Letters.

The following is a list of unmailable letters remaining in the Postoffice at this place:
John Stocks, Molvet Point, N C, care Anderson Hill; Mr Randall McDaniel, Mullins Depot, S C.

City Court.

The Mayor had an interesting levee this morning. Two cases of disorderly conduct were disposed of and a case of too much ardent went the way of the others. The case was that of a female who had worshipped Bacchus and awoke to a sense of her degradation and shame before the city tribunal.

For the Ladies.

Mr. M. M. Katz returned to the city last night after a two weeks' trip to the North, where he made a close canvass of the new stocks and purchased some of the best and prettiest of everything for this market. In a few days everything will be in store and then look out for a grand opening and a big advertisement in the REVIEW.

The Chalk Nuisance.

There is a very general complaint all over the city about school children defacing the walls and fences of residences with chalk. In many instances indecent pictures and obscene language has been written. Monday morning a couple of half-grown colored girls were caught in the act of writing very obscene and disgusting words on the fence of a residence on Fifth street. No doubt the practice is not alone indulged in by the colored school children and as it seems to be growing with a rapidity heretofore unknown in this city, it should be put a stop to. A few police arrests of this kind of offenders, if not of the law against sense and modesty, decency and propriety would have a very soothing effect upon the balance.

Largest and cheapest stock of corsets is the city at J. Hahn's, Fourth street. †

Market Report.

Mr. L. M. Williams, Clerk of the Market, has submitted his report for the period running from June 26th, 1877, to April 1st, 1878, and has paid into the city treasury for that time $1,849.63.

This is a capital showing as compared with the reports made by G. W. Green, colored, the former incumbent of the office. For the same space of time, viz: from June 26th, 1876, to April 1st, 1877, Green paid in but $1,027.26, over eight hundred dollars less than Mr. Williams has rendered for the same period of time, notwithstanding the fact that under Democratic auspices there has been a reduction of $75 per month ($900 a year) in the rents of stalls, &c. This looks something like reform, and is certainly complimentary to Mr. Williams' honest and faithful discharge of his duties.

Returned.

Capt. N. H. Sprunt returned here last evening from his regular Spring visit to the Northern cities, made in the interest of his customers. He has purchased lots of new and pretty and cheap things and promises to make a grand display in a few days of all of those mysteries and miseries of millinery and white goods, so dear to the average and the unaverage female heart.

Crockery vs Cash.

Messrs. Giles & Murchison's retail crockery and glassware department will be open to the public to-morrow evening, when everybody and his wife and children are invited to attend. The stock is a very handsome one and as it was all bought entirely for cash it will all be sold at very low prices for cash.
