Fire and overcoats are again in vogue.

The prospects for a fresher in the river are good.

Cold and disagreeable rains last night and this morning.

All other knowledge is hurtful to him who has not honesty and good nature.

Women go further in love than most men; but men exceed them in friendship.

Our strength often increases in proportion to the obstacles which are imposed upon it.

This must be "the cold snap in April," which everybody recollects is always bound to come—after it gets here.

The greater the difficulty, the more the glory in surmounting it. Skillful pilot gain their reputation from storms and tempests.

The Criminal Court continues its sessions from day to day and is rapidly adding to the effective force of the railroad brigade of dirt throwers.

In addition to the names already published as on Major Flanner's staff, Mr. Samuel J. Johnson, of Raleigh, has been appointed Sergeant-Major of the Battalion.

The April number of the Carolina Farmer is at hand. As usual, it is bright and attractive and full of useful and interesting matter. W. H. Bernard, Wilmington at $2 a year.

Maj. Burgess informs us that the full punishment for the Cadets who went April fooling on Monday last and got caught in a thunder storm afterwards, is that they are required to walk post an hour each evening during the week, besides receiving each eight demerits and returning to their books on Saturday. Poor fellows!

The Postal Excursion.
 The postal excursion of distinguished gentlemen and a number of ladies, passed here this morning, en route from Washington City for Key West and Havana. They remained here but a short time, only long enough to take breakfast and to change trucks on the cars, and then left with the regular mail train for the South. The party was composed, with possibly one or two exceptions, of those named by us in yesterday's issue, with the addition, at this point, of Hon. R. R. Bridgers and Col. A. Pope. Beyond these two gentlemen, we do not think there was a Southerner in the party.

Complimentary.
 Says the Oxford Torchlight: We are pleased to learn that our former townsman, Mr. T. B. Kingsbury, now editor of the Wilmington Star, has been invited by Col. James, Superintendent of Texas Military Academy, at Austin, Texas, to supply him with some extracts from his essays, addresses, &c., to be published in a work illustrative of Southern literature, eloquence, &c. He has also been requested to send him the address of any North Carolinian whose productions would reflect credit upon the South according to his critical judgment, and indicate the topics to be discussed.

"MY DEAR," said Mr. S—, to his blooming helpmeet, "I must congratulate you on your improvement in cakes, biscuit, bread, rolls, every kind of pastry in short." "O!" said the wife, "I've solved the secret by using the greatest thing in the market for baking—DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER. Henceforth I'll use no other."

Mothers, Mothers, Mothers.
 Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

Sacramental Wine.
 Speer's Port Grape Wine is a pure unadulterated wine, from the finest native grown Port Grapes, especially for the use of Christian Churches, and guaranteed to retain its grateful flavor and essential qualities unimpaired for any period. Much used for evening parties and by invalids.

Temple of Israel.

Services to-morrow (Friday) evening, at the Synagogue, corner of Fourth and Market streets, beginning at 8 o'clock. Subject of lecture: "Moses and the Pentateuch." The public are cordially invited to attend.

By advertisement published elsewhere it will be seen that Mr. W. T. Johnson announces a fact we have already stated locally, that he has purchased the State right for Sheldon's Renovator. We have had work done for us by this renovator and can most unequivocally assert that it works splendidly and does all that is claimed for it.

Vital Statistics.
 From the record kept by the Superintendent of Health we compile the following vital statistics of our city for the month of March just closed:
 During the month there were 17 deaths—7 white and 10 colored; 19 marriages—4 white and 15 colored; and 22 births—9 white and 13 colored,—14 males and 8 females.

The New Crockery Store.
 Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, Messrs. Giles & Murchison's new crockery store on North Front street was opened early last evening to the general public amid a blaze of bright gaslight which illuminated, almost as with the light of day, every nook and corner of the large store and was reflected back from the polished surfaces of the thousands of beautiful and useful articles found there. The stock they exhibit is a large and handsome one, albeit their glassware has not yet been opened, and comprises almost every article of use or ornament known to the trade. Everything is new, pretty and stylish, and everybody and especially every lady, is respectfully invited to call and make a thorough inspection of the stock.

Postal Ruling.
 Postmaster James, of New York, has issued the order of the Postmaster-General providing that printed matter of every kind or description offered for mailing at third-class rate must be received into the mails for transmission therein at the rate of one cent for each ounce, or two ounces, or fraction thereof as the case may be. This applies to printed directions, or requests or any printed matter upon the envelopes, as well as the inclosures therein. Respecting price-marks upon samples of merchandise, they will not subject such samples to a higher rate of postage, provided such price-marks appear in the original print. This ruling is intended to repeal and overrule any rulings heretofore made inconsistent with the same.

The State Guard.
 We understand that a meeting or convention of the commissioned officers of the North Carolina State Guard will be held some time in May, in Charlotte, for the purpose of discussing measures in which the organization are deeply interested. The call will be issued by Adjutant-General Jones who seems to know no rest in his efforts to promote the discipline and efficiency and welfare of the Guard. The most prominent subject for discussion will be a bill which is proposed to introduce into the Legislature at its next session, laying a small tax upon all non-military citizens who are within the limits of the required age, in consideration of their exemption from duty, for the benefit of the various companies, thus making their militia service in this State an entirely volunteer one. The plans will be fully explained at the meeting referred to and submitted to the action of the officers.

Hotel Arrivals.

For the Review.

ED. REVIEW:
 Permit me to correct a slight error which you made in your paper of yesterday in reference to the Memorial poem and psalm.

Mrs. Preston is a sister-in-law of Stonewall Jackson. I therefore thought she would contribute a poem entitled "The Tenth of May" to "The South Atlantic." As soon as I had mailed the letter containing a request to that effect, it occurred to me that the poem might be useful to the ladies of the Memorial Association. I called on the President, Mrs. Chas. D. Myers, and she told me to get Mrs. Preston's consent for the poem to be used on Memorial Day. I wrote to Mrs. Preston in the name of the Association and she promptly notified me of her willingness to oblige the ladies. I received the copyright to psalm and poem. The Psalm will appear in the May number of The South Atlantic, and at the suggestion of the officers and managers of the Ladies Memorial Association every Confederate Memorial Association in the South will be sent a printed copy of the Memorial psalm.

We concluded at a meeting of the ladies, held a few days since, that it would be a good idea to have the same beautiful psalm sung throughout the month, wherever the 10th of May is kept sacred to the Confederate soldiers.

I append a series of resolutions, which are now being printed in handsome style, to be sent to Mrs. Preston.

At a meeting of the Ladies Memorial Association, held in Wilmington, on the 28th of March, 1878, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1st.—That we, the officers and managers of the Wilmington Memorial Association, tender our sincere thanks to Mrs. Margaret J. Preston for the beautiful and appropriate Memorial poem and psalm, written by her for the Memorial celebration of 1878.

Resolved 2nd.—That the manuscript copy of said poem and psalm shall be preserved among the official documents of the Association as cherished souvenirs of their distinguished author.

Resolved 3d. That we especially appreciate the graceful courtesy with which Mrs. Preston responded to our request to send us contributions from her pen, to be used on the day sacred to our martyred heroes.

Resolved 4th. That although the flowers we strew upon the graves of the Confederate dead may wither and die, we are gratified to know that we can perpetuate, in enduring form, the touching tribute of song paid to them by one of the most gifted poets of The Land We Love.

Mrs. CHAS. D. MYERS, President.
 Mrs. DR. THOMAS, Vice President.
 Mrs. DR. ANDERSON, Treasurer.
 Mrs. HETTIE JAMES, Secretary.

Mrs. CICERO W. HARRIS, Sec. pro tem.

As the regular Secretary has returned to the city, I hope she will, in a few days, be able to give you the full programme for the occasion, which promises to be one of unusual interest.

Finally, let me warn the newspaper men, that the poem and psalm will bear stamp of The South Atlantic copyright and until they appear in that magazine they are forbidden to copy them. After that, however, I shall give every southern paper the privilege of publishing them. The poem is one of Mrs. Preston's finest productions; the psalm is short and will be easily set to music. It is also worthy of the distinguished lady who wrote it.

Very Respectfully,
 Mrs. CICERO W. HARRIS.

Consumption Cured.
 An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 126 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Incurring a Tremendous Risk.

They incur a tremendous risk who sojourn or emigrate to reside in districts where malarial disease is prevalent, without medicinal means of fortifying their systems against the periodic scourge. The danger to bilious subjects, and to those who lack bodily stamina, is particularly serious. A preventive and curative agent of known anti-malarial efficacy should be frequently used and constantly kept at hand by such persons; and on none can they rely with such certainty of protection and aid as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This grand specific roots out every vestige of the malarial poison from the system, and endows it with an amount of vital activity and repelling power that nullifies the influence of miasma. It also prevents and remedies disorders of the stomach, bowels and liver, which are particularly prevalent in malarious regions, and is an incomparable general invigorant.
