THE WAR CRISIS IN EUROPE

Significant Utterance of a St. Petersburg Newspaper.

LONDON, April 7.—Commenting on the London Post's declaration of Saturday that the British Government would back up its circular, but was willing to consider the views of Viennese statesmen, the Journal de St. Petersburg says: "Russia can tranquilly regard the waverings of a nervous policy while herself maintaining her position unmoved."

The St. Petersburg Gazette, a journal published in the Russian language, has received a warning on account of an article inciting war.

A correspondent of the Paris Temps at Pesth had an interview with M. Tisza, Premier of the Hungarian Ministry, who said Austria-Hungary would go to war, if necessary, to prevent the establishment of a Slav State on her southern frontier.

A rumor is current in St. Petersburg that Prince Gortchakoff may resign in favor of Count Schouvaloff, with a view to restore confidence between Russia and Europe.

A Constantinople despatch says it is announced that Vefyk Pasha's indisposition has increased and a consultation of physicians has been held. It is said that Vefyk considers, in the event of an Anglo-Russian war, that the Porte should resist a British fleet passing through the Bosphorus. The Turks are to recapture Bujukdere.

The Observer believes that Mr. Gladstone coincides with the determination of the Opposition leaders to move no amendment to the address to the Queen on Monday.

The Observer says that M. Waddington, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, when answering Prince Orloff's representations in regard to the tone of the French press, assured him of his friendly feeling toward Russia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 7.—A report comes from a good source that the Khedive has announced that he will declare his independence should Turkey form any alliance against England.

It is stated that Russia has officially offered to quit the neighborhood of Constantinople if the British fleet withdraws.

Italy is endeavoring to induce the Porte to suspend hostilities in Thessaly, alleging fears of grave complications. Greece is similarly endeavoring to influence the insurgents.

A Poor-House and Inmates Burned.

CORNING, N. Y., April 7.—About one a. m. Sunday the insane building connected with Stoupen County poor-house, two miles north of Bath, was fired by L. C. Ford, of Hornellsville, an inmate confined in the institution with fits. He had been considered trustworthy, and was allowed liberties which enabled him to destroy his own life, together with fourteen others. The Bath fire department was called to the scene of the conflagration too late to be of much service. The building was of brick, with iron-grated windows and doors, and the inmates were unable to escape. L. C. Ford, David Curtis, John Albion, John Steensenger, Buel M. Page, Betsey Smith, Julia Davis, Rosa Welch, Ann Range, Mary Stone, Chloee Mudd (colored), Ann Thulst, Catharine Lullivax, Jennie Mills, aged four years, and Mary Hewitt, aged one year, were burned. There were sixty or seventy inmates altogether. The details of the terrible accident are blood-curdling. One man was badly injured. Over forty were rescued and several escaped. The scene presented by the charred remains and the debris is sickening in the extreme.

Ex-Gov. Moses, of South Carolina, Arrested for Forgery. New York, April 7.—Ex-Governor Frank J. Moses, of South Carolina, was arrested on Broadway to-night by Deputy Sheriff Conners, of Charleston, and locked up in Police Headquarters. He is charged with having forged the name of J. Woodruff for $316 and passing the note upon James Allen. Moses will be taken to Charleston in a few days. It is understood that the object in arresting him is to get him back to South Carolina to have him tried for crimes alleged to have been committed by him while holding a high official position.

Wine for Evening Entertainments. The Port Grape Wine of Alfred Speer of Passaic, New Jersey, is generally pronounced the most reliable wine to be obtained, and is now being used by those fashionable and families who are the most choice in the selection of wines for evening entertainments.

Mothers, Mothers, Mothers. Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

The Most Precious Gifts. Health is undeniably a more precious gift than riches, honor or power. Who would exchange it for these, the chief objects of human ambition? It is obviously the part of wisdom to employ means for the preservation of health and the prolongation of life which time and experience have proved to be reliable. Many of the dangers by which health is threatened may be nullified by the use of that most irresistible of correctives and tonics, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, by increasing vital power and rendering the physical functions regular and active, keeps the system in good working order and protects it against disease. For constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, kidney and rheumatic ailments, it is invaluable, and it affords a sure defence against malarial fevers, besides removing every trace of such disease from the system. Half a wineglassful taken before meals improves the appetite and insures complete digestion and assimilation.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. J. R. Hawkins, whose skull and leg were broken in the railroad accident last Saturday afternoon, died yesterday morning at a quarter past 5 o'clock.

The Washington Press learns that Dr. J. G. Bryant, of that town, has now in operation an col net, by which he is taking in large quantities of eels for shipment to the northern market.

Newbern Not Shell: We are glad to inform our citizens that Gov. Vance has accepted the invitation of the Memorial Society of this place, and will deliver the oration on the 10th of May.

Morganton Blade: On the night of the 25th of March, 1878, in the absence of John Oliver, living in Lower Creek township, his house was consumed by fire, and only by a special providence his two children were saved from burning in it.

Goldsboro Messenger: We learn from Johnston county that a little son of Anderson Gower, residing near Leachburg, had his skull fractured by a kick from a horse, on Wednesday of last week from which he has since died.

Goldsboro Messenger: The gallows on which the negro Shallogin alias Chalton is to expiate his crime on Friday next, at Snow Hill, has been erected within the enclosure temporarily put up around one end of the jail. The negro positively refuses to confess his guilt, but there is no doubt of it.

Charlotte Observer: Col. Walter L. Steele, our energetic and faithful representative in Congress, arrived in the city last night from his home in Rockingham, where he has been for the last ten days, on a leave of absence on account of sickness. It is a pleasure to state that he has considerably improved. He is stopping at the Central Hotel and will remain in the city to-day.

Monroe Enquirer: The heirs of Com. Stockton, through their attorneys, Messrs. Covington and Vann, will bring suit at the ensuing term of Court for the recovery of the lands in this county, belonging to the Stockton estate. On some of these lands are situated the Howie and Washington mines, which are of considerable value and a continued and stubborn suit may be looked for.

Monroe Enquirer: An attempt was made on the night of the 27th inst. to burn Mr. Joseph R. Hudson's gin-house. The discovery that it was on fire was made by his wife, who happened to wake up about mid-night, and some strange supernatural power caused her to go to the window and glance out. She then saw the flames and gave the alarm. Fortunately the fire had not gained much headway, and the flames were soon subdued without any considerable damage. It was no doubt the work of an incendiary.

Monroe Enquirer: About nine o'clock on the night of the 1st inst. it was discovered that Wesley Chapel Church (Methodist) in Sandy-Ridge Township, also the school-house near by, were in flames. On the arrival of the parties who reached there first, it was seen that nothing could be done to save the church, and their attention was turned to save the school-house, which they were successful in doing. This church was in the neighborhood of Mr. Hudson, and it is thought by many that the same persons committed both of the dastardly deeds.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. Worth, of the State agricultural department, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon with 500 land-locked salmon, which were distributed between Phifer's pond and that on the plantation of Capt. S. B. Sandless. These fish were hatched in the Baltimore hatchery. The agricultural department purchased from the hatchery about 400,000 eggs, but only about 18,000 fish were hatched from them. Mr. Worth has Baltimore a few days since with this number. He deposited 1,000 in the ponds around Greensboro; 8,000 or 9,000 in the Dan river, near Dabury; 1,000 at Salisbury. Arriving in Morganton yesterday afternoon, he deposited 600 in the mill pond of Maj. Wilson, near the town, and the following in tributaries of the Catawba: Upper creek 500, John's river 500, and Linville river 5,000 to 6,000. These fish live exclusively in fresh water, and attain their full growth in about three years.

Lumberton Times: We learn that a young man by the name of Johnson was killed last Saturday night near Hamlet, N. C., under the following circumstances, as near as can be ascertained: Nathau Walters, Jr., and Richardson Johnson started opossum hunting. They hunted until about 11 o'clock, when they went to the house of a Mrs. Stein in the neighborhood. Walters commented hollowing and kicking up a big fuss, Johnson remonstrated; told him it was wrong. They had some rough words. After awhile Walters said, let's make friends. Johnson told him all right, but to let him see his other hand, whereupon Walters plunged a knife into his throat, making a good sized wound, which produced death. They had both been good friends up to this time but were drinking, which accounts for the occurrence. Walters' ancestors had a good deal of Indian blood in them. Johnson had just returned from Texas, where he represented a large house. He was a clever young man; had a brother and a blind mother living at Hamlet, and a sister in Monroe. Walters made good his escape.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Send by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 126 Powers Block, Rochester, N. Y. 4w.
