THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. 3. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1878. NO. 67

PLEASE NOTICE.

We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but:
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.

But three more days in Lent.
Hen fruit have stiffened up to 15 cts a dozen.
Strawberries are getting more plentiful and cheaper.
The wisecracks of this community are predicting snow.
Green peas still cling lovingly to 50 and 60 cents a peck.
The shipment of sturgeon to northern markets is on the increase.
Not exactly the weather this for picnics or moonlight promenades.
Good split oak wood is retailing now for one dollar and fifty cents per cord.
We saw, last evening, some very fine radishes at Boatwright & McKoy's offered at one cent a bunch.
Bishop Atkinson preached in Christ Church, Newbern, on Sunday last, and confirmed upwards of thirty persons.
Fine large strawberries are retailing for twenty-five cents a basket, which is just one half the price charged for them a week ago.
The vegetable market is now well supplied with early vegetables, which are being sold for a reasonable price, as people are too poor to pay anything else.

The Wilmington Light Infantry and the Whiting Rifles will drill as a battalion this evening, under command of Lieut. Col. Gordon of the Second Regiment N. C. S. G.
Fannie Davenport and Count Joannes are both booked for Norfolk early in May, and the Kellogg, Cary and Rose Opera Troupe will be there about the middle of the month.
Quarterly meeting will be held at Fifth Street M. E. Church, next Saturday and Sunday, to be introduced with a Love Feast on Friday evening. Services on Saturday and Sunday at the usual hours.
The Waif.
The colored infant which was left on the piazza of a residence on Dock, between Sixth and Seventh streets, yesterday morning, has been turned over to a colored woman whose name we could not ascertain, at her request.
Good Friday.
On Friday next, Good Friday, work will be suspended in this office and the REVIEW will not make its appearance on that day. On Saturday, though, D. V., we will again come to the front with the latest news and plenty of it.
Postponed.
The meeting of the members of the Produce Exchange, Chamber of Commerce, and Board Trade of this city, which was to have taken place at noon to-day was postponed until to-morrow the 18th inst at 12 o'clock, pending some compromise measures which it is thought may be effected between the Telegraph Company, and the commercial community that are affected by the advance of the Western Union Company's rates.
"It is Perfectly Splendid."
"There's nothing like it." "Never could use baking powder till I tried yours." "Can't speak too highly of it." That's what they say of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER.
New Jersey Premium Wine.
Physicians state that the Port Wines that took the premium at the Centennial, produced and offered for sale by Mr. Alfred Spear, of New Jersey, are wines that can be safely used for medicinal purposes, being pure and free from medication, and are more reliable than other Port Wines.
Mothers, Mothers, Mothers.
Don't fail to procure Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.
By the exercise of the most judicious management, the Grant Central Hotel, New York, has very cleverly turned the tide of trade in its direction, not less by the sweeping reduction of its rates than through its excellent management.

Anniversary Preparations.

At a meeting of the members of Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co. No 1., held last evening, the matter of a proper celebration of the anniversary of the Company, which falls due on Tuesday, May 7th, was introduced and discussed and Messrs. T. G. Pickett, J. H. Daniel and W. J. Gordon were appointed a Committee to solicit and collect subscriptions and make the necessary preparations for the celebration, to report at a meeting of the Company to be held next Tuesday evening.

Bridge Builder.

We learn from the Charlotte Observer that Mr. Thos W. Whisnant, son of P. S. Whisnant, Esq., formerly of that city, has been appointed bridge-builder of the Carolina Central Railway Company to succeed Mr. J. R. Hawkins, who received fatal injuries on that road a short time ago. The Observer thinks that this appointment is most worthily bestowed. Mr. Whisnant is an intelligent young mechanic, a competent and experienced bridge builder, and a young man of excellent character and habits.

Testing the New Bridge.

The following interesting item, relative to the new bridge at Weldon, recently erected by the Seaboard & Roanoke R. R., we find in the Petersburg Index-Appeal: On Friday last the strength of the new iron bridge, recently built over the Roanoke river, near Weldon, on the Seaboard & Roanoke railroad, was tested in such a manner as to leave no doubt that the structure is a very strong and secure one, as well as ornamental to the road. The testing of the strength of the bridge was made by running of three locomotives, with tenders attached, weighing in the aggregate three hundred thousand pounds, safely across it. When these locomotives first passed over the bridge the speed made was about four miles per hour, and on their return to Weldon the time made was at the rate of twenty miles an hour. The locomotives, which belonged to the Seaboard & Roanoke road, and which were coupled together, extended exactly the length of one span of the bridge. Workmen are now engaged in doing the masonry work for the erection of another span of the bridge on this side of the Roanoke.

Business to be Suspended.

The banks of the city have advertised that their doors will be closed to business on Good Friday, the 19th inst.
This, together with the fact that the Produce Exchange this morning held a meeting and decided to close the Exchange on that day, implies that business will be entirely suspended from Thursday night the 18th inst. until Saturday morning the 20th, i. e. so far as Water street is concerned.
A great many of our up-town merchants also will, we presume, follow the custom they established for themselves last year, and again close their places of business on this anniversary of the solemn event we all commemorate.

City Court.

Buck Hill, colored, was arraigned on complaint of Jno. C. Heyer, Esq., in that the defendant was ordered out of complainant's store and refused to go until he got ready. His Honor fined the defendant $5 and costs.
Joseph Gause, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and refusing to obey the policeman on duty when spoken to, was dismissed on payment of costs and admonished by the Mayor as to his conduct in future when an officer of the law addressed him officially.
Lewis Green, a previous attendant at the Mayor's Court, appeared before Mayor Fishplate this morning for the first time since Mayor F.'s induction into office. Lewis, as usual, was arrested for disorderly conduct, cursing and swearing and threatening to use his knife on a policeman. The Mayor said $5 and costs or five days in City Prison, when Lewis concluded to take the alternative of five days in prison, not from choice, however, but from necessity, he not being possessed of the cash amount necessary to secure his release.
The case of Elizabeth Chambers, the colored girl arrested yesterday for robbing a little white child of cakes, was continued.

Thos. Brown, the half-witted negro who was told yesterday by Mayor Fishplate to leave town, appeared before the bar of the court again to-day. It seems that the prisoner, in pursuance of the orders given him to turn his back upon the city and get out of the city limits, was arrested a mile or so out of town by the colored Deputy Sheriff, Dan Howard and one or two others on suspicion and brought into town again. The Mayor dismissed the case and told Brown to move on as he did yesterday. Brown said, "Yes, sur," and moved.
This finished the business of the Court for to-day.

Fire at Clarkton.

Our correspondent in Clarkton sends us an account of a fire which occurred at that place on Monday night which destroyed a turpentine distillery belonging to Messrs. Clark & Currie. The fire occurred about 12 o'clock at night and is thought to have caught from some dross which had been burning at the still yard the previous afternoon. The distillery was first found to be on fire and from this the flames spread to the spirits shed near at hand, and soon both were destroyed.
At one time the railroad warehouse was threatened but fortunately the wind was not blowing in that direction and it was saved. Had this taken fire the flames would almost certainly have spread to Messrs. Clark & Currie's large store house and the disaster would have been a very serious one. As it was the loss is supposed to have been in the neighborhood of $500 and there are many hearty thanks that it was no more. The distillery was not insured.

Fashion Dots.

The bouquet embroidered gloves are novel.
Cameos are decidedly fashionable in jewelry.
Cardinal capes are among the new spring wraps.
Silver and mouse grey shades prevail in kid gloves.
Pretty new fans are of rustic bamboo hand painted.
Butterflies are among the new ornaments for spring hats.
The street hat should be dark and to a certain extent plain.
Dresses are trimmed of double pipings of contrasting colors.
Lovely spring prints are selling as low as 4 1/2 cents per yard.
Plaited skirts have deep yokes, which give a splendid appearance.
Basques, entirely covered with flowers, are in vogue for evening toilets.
Cream color and greenish gray are the popular tints in linen dress goods.
Misses' parasols are of small size in the design and colors used for ladies.
All straw hats and bonnets are principally restricted to the dark colors.
Byron collars and cuffs in guipure lace, for the ladies, are among the latest.
Yokes and plaited and gathered waists are very becoming to tall, slender women.

Appleton's Journal

For May has several papers of special interest. The first is an elaborately-illustrated article on "Rapid Transit in New York," which gives views of the elevated roads now nearing completion, describes and illustrates the method of constructing the Gilbert road, and includes engravings of the various plans for transit that have been proposed, thus affording a complete pictorial history of the subject. It is a paper that will be read everywhere with interest, inasmuch as elevated railways in cities are an experiment that is watched in all parts of the country with close attention. The second article of special interest is a collection of hitherto unpublished correspondence by Edgar A. Poe, gathered from original sources by J. H. Ingram, the English biographer of the poet. The letters were written in the last three years of the poet's life, and throw a new light upon a part of the poet's career never hitherto explored, viz., his relations with three high-minded women, around whose names the documents naturally group themselves. Julian Hawthorne has the first part of a striking novelette, entitled "Mrs. Gainsborough's Diamonds." Dr Guernsey gives a graphic description of the African king, Mtesa, whom Stanley affirms he converted to Christianity; Lucy Hooper writes from Paris a description of some of the more important French pictures designed for the Paris Exposition; Nora Perry has a short story, "For Love of Her;" there is a paper on "Real and Ideal Houses," in which the bric-a-brac mania is well hit; and the editorial and book departments are not less interesting than usual.

Sad Accident.

We regret to learn that a little child, daughter of Col. Roger Moore, some ten or twelve years of age, met with quite a serious accident last night by the capsizing of a kerosene oil lamp, by which the child was seriously burned and also her father. It seems that two or three children were seated around a table with a lamp upon it, playing at some game, when one of the little ones jumped up rather suddenly and jarred the table so much that it caused the lamp to capsize and the oil to ignite, from which the little girl's clothes caught on fire. The child immediately screamed and her father, who was upstairs at the time, rushed down stairs and seizing his child threw her on the floor and extinguished the flames with his hands, which were quite severely burned in the effort. The little girl, we understand, though suffering a good deal, is not dangerously injured; her face and neck escaped the fire, but her hands and other portions of her body were seriously burned.

For the Review.

Burgaw Academy.

All the friends of education and advocates of a first-class school in Pender are specially invited to lend us their aid and contribute in a small way to the noble cause. It has been decided by the Committee of Arrangements to hold a festival on the first day of May, at Burgaw, the proceeds of which are to be appropriated to the Academy. It will be seen that on the same day and place there will be a Rail Road meeting. We appeal to the generosity of all and particularly the good ladies of Pender to cook up something good to the taste and bring it out and present it as a token of their high appreciation of education.
The Academy is now in progress of construction and we lack means for its completion and have adopted this plan to assist us in the great cause. Those who contribute and all who would wish to have a nice time generally would do well to be present on the occasion as a large crowd is expected from Wilmington and elsewhere. A band of music will be in attendance, therefore the gay and frolicsome may exercise their own taste in amusement.
