Pocketbooks are worn much flatter this season.

Good beef is scarce and high in this market.

Easter, the Queen of Festivals, dawns to-morrow.

April seems to have borrowed a leaf from March to-day.

The dye house is where they knock spots out of things.

The latest curtains are alternate stripes of blue satin and lace.

Grown fowls sell readily to-day at from 70 to 80 cents a pair.

Never confide a secret to your relative. Blood, you know, will tell.

No interments, we are glad to say, in either Oakdale or Bellevue this week.

Miss Fannie Davenport is booked for the Opera House in Norfolk, May 1st and 2d.

Trinity College Commencement will be June 12th and 13th. Chapel Hill June 5th and 6th.

Outside pockets for ladies are fast becoming scarce. They offer too great a temptation for thieves.

Don't forget the meeting of the Second Ward Democratic Committee, called for to-night, at the Court House.

It is thought that the best cure for a cold in the head is to blow it out. If there are no handkerchiefs in the house, a shot gun will do as well.

Contributors will take notice that we have already more spring poetry than we need. What we want is a liniment that is dead certainty on rheumatism.

The box sheet for the Cantata on Monday evening is fairly black with pencil marks of seats taken. The few not yet disposed of are going fast, very fast, and those who are not yet supplied should bestir themselves.

To cure a soft corn—saturate a piece of raw cotton with lemon juice, adding some of the pulp; bind this to the corn, and continue the application until all soreness is removed. The cure is more rapid if all pressure is removed from the corn.

Easter eggs will soon be in demand. Artificial eggs of very curious design have been made and are placed upon the market this year, and some of them are a kind that will mightily please the little folks. The natural egg, however, is the only one the boys can use for "pecking."

A Strawberry Festival for the benefit of Brooklyn Sunday School will be held in Brooklyn Hall next Friday evening. We all know how pleasant these Festivals have been on former occasions and we doubt not that this will prove equal to the best.

This week's issue of the Charlotte Democrat, dated yesterday, arrived here last night at 10 o'clock and was received on delivery this morning, while we read in the Raleigh Observer, of yesterday, printed night before last, an article from yesterday's Democrat. Brother Yates has the floor.

SPEED'S PORT GRAPE WINE FOR WEAKLY PERSONS.—This excellent product of the grape is prescribed and used by the leading physicians in the country, and by the most fashionable families as evening entertainments, and by churches for communion.

The patronage among the first-class hotels in New York is constantly changing from one hotel to the other. The Grand Central Hotel has recently incited the direst wrath of its competitors by offering the same accommodations for one and two dollars per day less than the others.

Mothers, Mothers, Mothers.
Don't fail to procure Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

The August Elections.

The Raleigh News tells us that Constables are not to be elected at the August election. The Democratic Executive Committee was in error in so stating. The Committee neglected to mention Superior Court Clerks as among the officers to be then elected.

Good Friday.

The day was very generally observed here by a suspension of business and attention to religious duties. The various churches in which services were held were well filled at each service with attentive and devout congregations. There are some who think that there was a more general observance of the day than was ever known before, a fact which will bring a glad feeling to every Christian mind. We hope to see the day yet when this anniversary of the crucifixion of our Saviour will be devoutly observed by all.

Unmailable Letters.

The following is a list of unmailable letters remaining in the Postoffice at this place:
John Stocks, Molvel Point, N C; Dr J W Denby, Fetville, N C; Ben Allison, care of J W Russell, Savannah, Ga; Mr McDowell, Flemington, N C; B F Newcomer, Baltimore, Md; Ashle Page; Rev J M Brown.

For Congress.

The list of candidates who are willing to sink all private considerations and serve this district in Congress swells rapidly each day and surmises and speculations thereon are abroad in the land. In addition to Col. Waddell and Maj. Stedman, from this county, we hear spoken of Maj. McClammy, of Pender; Mr. Scott, of Onslow; Col. Allen, of Duplin; John W. Ellis, of Columbus, and Maj. McRae and W. C. Troy, of Cumberland. There are some others out in the woods who haven't come in yet, but who will doubtless be heard from within the next few weeks.

City Court.

Three colored youths, just merging into manhood, were brought before the Mayor this morning on the charge of disorderly conduct Thursday night over in Brooklyn.

Officers Allen and G. W. Davis made the arrest and testified in substance, that their attention was attracted on the night above mentioned by very loud cursing and swearing and on proceeding to Nixon street between Eighth and Ninth, they found the disturbance was occasioned by three youths who were cursing some man because he had requested them not to make so much noise, "as there was a sick woman in this house." The officers of course promptly made the arrest and the Mayor very properly and promptly pronounced sentence against them of ten dollars or ten days, for the most disorderly one, five dollars or five days, for another, and one day's confinement in the city prison, for the third one, who was found with a razor in his pocket. This concluded the Mayor's levee for the day.

The Spring Bonnet.

Lucy H. Hooper, writing at Paris, thus describes the new spring bonnets: The new spring bonnets for the coming season have made their appearance in the show rooms of some of the more enterprising of the fashionable milliners. These very early blossoms of the spring fashions are of course intended for the foreign trade, but are none the less tasteful and elegant. Straw is to be the reigning material, and feathers, flowers and ribbons are all to be employed in trimming; sometimes all three are on a single bonnet. The shapes are very graceful, being small and close with set crowns, a trimming of silk or flowers inside the brim, and in many instances narrow strings to tie under the chin. Fringes of drooping flowers will be much used, but white lilacs and other graceful blossoms will also be worn. Satin ribbon is much in favor for trimmings and strings. For elderly ladies, bonnets of black jet, embroidered very finely with small beads of cut jet, are shown; they are arranged with a diadem front of cut jet with fringe to fall over the hair, and with strings of black net, edged with lace and clasped with a small sprig in a cut jet.

Delicious Cookery.

The most delicious, light, white and wholesome biscuits, rolls, muffins, waffles, cornbread, cake, etc., are possible to every table by using the celebrated DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER. It is absolutely pure and will go much further in use than other kinds of baking powder. It is impossible to fail with it in baking. Ask your grocer for it, and do not be put off with any other.

Fight With an Alligator.

A day or two since two colored hands employed at Messrs. Northrop & Cummings steam saw mill, in the lower part of the city, crossed over to the timber pen, on the opposite side of the river, to get some logs which were required at the mill. They had not more than set foot upon the timber when a large alligator emerged from the water and crawling upon the logs advanced upon the men. They retreated but his alligatorship continued to advance and finally they were compelled to accept the gauge of battle, and a fierce fight ensued when the amphibious monster was finally killed. We tell it as it was told to us.

The Date of Easter.

Easter Sunday, falling on April 21, is considered late this year, and it is thirteen days after the mean date, but it is to be remarked that in no year since the introduction of the Gregorian Calendar into England has the festival occurred on the latest possible date, April 25, though in two years, 1761 and 1818, it fell on March 22, which is the other limit. In 1886 Easter Sunday will fall on April 25, in the new or Gregorian style, for the first time since the year 1734, or eighteen years before this style was accepted in England. The only other occasion since the reformation of the calendar by Pope Gregory XIII, upon which Easter has fallen on the latest possible date, was in 1666 and after 1886 this will not again occur until 1943.

A Not Very Odious Comparison.

There are few housekeepers but have remarked the steady and rapid decline of meats of late but not many have stopped to make a comparison and thus ascertain what is the actual shrinkage. It is really startling to know that meats have declined from 33½ to 60 per cent during the past three years, yet such is the fact. We have been at some pains to get together the figures necessary to demonstrate this and present them herewith to our readers. They are taken from the books of a provision broker and are therefore undeniably accurate. We compare the market as it stood May 1st, 1875, and as it stands to-day, April 20th, 1878:

May 1st, 1875—North Carolina hams, 10½; dry salted shoulders, 9½ to 10; dry salted clear rib sides, 13; smoked shoulders, 10½ to 11; smoked clear rib sides, 14 to 14½; city mess pork, $24 50 to $25; sugar cured hams, 10 to 10½.
April 20th, 1878—North Carolina hams, 10 cents; dry salted shoulders, 4½; dry salted clear rib sides, 6½ to 6; smoked shoulders, 5½; smoked clear rib sides, 7 to 7½; city mess pork, $11 75 to $12 50; sugar cured hams 8 to 12.

Superior Court.

The April term of this court, for the county of New Hanover, convenes in this city on Monday next, the 22d inst., His Honor Judge Eure presiding.
There are several important civil suits to be argued. Among them we may mention one of an injunction against the city restraining the collection of taxes on certain property.

Shelton's Renovator.

On Monday next Mr. W. T. Johnson will leave the city for a visit to other points in this state where he will exhibit the benefits of the Shelton Renovator. We commend him to our people everywhere. The renovator is no humbug and will do everything that is claimed for it as scores of the most respectable people in this city can testify. The business in this city will be conducted, as usual, during his absence, by Mr. Thomas J. Johnson, Sr.

Political Gossip.

There is considerable excitement and stir now in the Republican camp relative to nominations for "office" and not only the woods but the streets and alleys and sometimes the back yards, are full of them. We hear of a few of the most prominent "asperrunts," chief among which may be mentioned F. W. Foster, W. H. Moore and J. C. Hill, for the Senate, Benj. Scott and E. D. Hewlett, (present incumbent) for Coroner, and Sheriff Manning (present incumbent), Doctor H. E. Scott and Duncan Holmes, for Sheriff. As for the House it is said that every other "fire trial" you stumble across wants to go "thar" and we therefore mention no names simply from an appreciable want of ability to do justice to the subject.

"You are spending every cent I can earn for striped stockings while there's not a pound of meat in the house," is what the drunken man was saying to a barber's pole Thursday night, when a policeman took him in.
