MOORE'S CKEEK, April 21st 1878 EDITOR WILMINGTON REVIEW:

It is proposed by Caswell in your issue of the 19th inst., for the Magistrates of Pender County to meet and consult, as well as to appoint pollholders, &c., on the 1st Monday in May. At an informal meeting of some of the Magistrates at Burgaw on the first Monday in April it was agreed to meet at the bounty site on the first Monday in May at 12 M.

The Use of the Lemon.

A piece of lemon upon a corn will relieve it in a day or so. It should be renewed night and morning. The free use of lemon juice and sugar will always relieve a cough. A lemon eaten before breakfast every day for a week or two will entirely prevent that feeling of lassitude peculiar to the approach of spring. Perhaps its most valuable property is its absolute power of detecting any of the injurious and even datgerous ingredients entering into the composition of so very many of the cosmetics and face-powders in the market. Every lady should subject her toilet-powder to this test. I'lace a teaspoonful of the suspected powder in a glass and add the juice of a lemon. If effervescence takes place it is infallible proof that the powder is dangerous and its use should be avoided, as it will ultimately injure the skin and destroy the beauty of the complexion.

Fifth Ward Bucket Company. Yesterday the truck of the Fifth Ward Bucket Company was moved from the building on 9th, between Castle and Queen streets, where it has been kept for some time and quartered in the building on the corner of 5th and Nun street where it was orginally kept. We think it a good change as the present truck house is more centrally located and more accessible to most of the members. Last night the boys had a"little wetting" at the hall of the company all leaving at a late hour well pleased with the affair.

Died From Home.

This morning, about 2 o'clock, Mr. Charles Geeb, of Newark, New Jersey, died at the Purcell House, of consumption, Mr. Geeb had been in the city for about a month, and 'had come South in hopes that his disease could be cured or his life prolonged. He was about twenty-eight years of age and was attended during his last illness by Drs. Walker, King and Cobb, Rev. Dr. Watson attendidg to his spiritual

The young man, though a stranger in the community, was not friendless. Every thing that could be done by kindly hands was administered by those of the proprietors of the house. Fire this Morning.

A large frame building adjoining the coal and wood yard of Messrs O. G. Parsley & Co., on Water street, was discovered to be on fire this morning about 91 o'clock. The building was used by Messrs Preston Cumming & Co., as a store house for hay and a stable for horses and | the Nightingale chants to the Rose and a mules owned by the latter. The fire was burning between the roof and tin, and was exceedingly difficult to get at but owing to the prompt and well applied action of willing hands the fire was extinguished before it could do much damage The excitment in the neighborhood at the time of the fire was intense, but no general alasm was given though Mr. Furlong the engineer of the Adrian, started for the engine, when it was ascertained that the fire had been gotten under control.

The Silver Mountain Mining Company again comes to the front. Almost a year ago, Mr. J. W. The series of revival meetings begun on Saturday night at Fifth Street M. E. Church were continued last night. Rev. Dr. Burkhead preached to a large congregation and much interest was manifested in the services There were four penitents at the altar and one conversion. Dr. Burkhead was assisted by Rev. Mr. Hall, the Col. S. L. Fremont, Jas. A. Willard, pastor of the church. The meetings will John L. Holmes, Capt. I. B. Grainger. be continued to-night and every night Alternates-Capt. C. D. Myers, J. City Court.

Henry Clements, an old sailor, who was arraigned for being drunk and disorderly, was sentenced to two days imprisonment. But the old fellow pleaded very hard, and said: "If it place yer Honor and ye will pardon me this time, the like 'o it shill niver occur agin, ' and in addition to this special pleading, a shipmate of the Old Tar came forward and testified that they had just got in port and hauled alongside of the wharf when some of the boys sent off and bought a bottle of liquor, and forced the old man to take couple of drinks, which floored him. This being such an unanswerable argument. the Mayor felt constrained to reconsider his previous judgment and permitted the old son of Neptune to return to his ship. Scipio Hill, No. 2, colored, was brought up on the charge of slapping a small boy five and six hundred dollars. in the face, but owing to the previous good character of the defendant judgment was suspended.

The case of Richard Martin, colored, arrested for disorderly conduct, was dismissed. This finished the business for the

The Flower Queen.

A very large and appreciative audience assembled at the Opera House last evening to witness the rendition of the beautiful Floral Cantata, entitled the Floral Queen. The Operetta is in itself a gem, being full of exquisite strains from the well known composer, George F. Root, but as it appeared to us last evening, embellished with blooming youth, music. lights and flowers, a combination ever most charming, it presented a scene of great beauty. The performers, seventyfive in number, were all under the direction of Mr. A. B. Chase, who has certainly drilled them in excellent style, and whose clear baritone added no little to the general effect. Where all did well, and all were equally charming, it is scarcely possible to discriminate, but we cannot forbear a passing tribute to the fair "Rose," Queen of the evening's festivala young maid whose sweet voice and modest deportment rendered her peculiarly attractive; also the "Daisy," (by the way, an exquisite flower if it is wild) the character assumed by little Miss Garrell, ing little girl, Miss Hattle Bringle. These were a few of the many beautiful selec-

Among the most attractive features of the evening were a pine-an-o solo, performed on sticks, by Mr. A. B. Chase and prepared by him expressly for the occasion; also the Interlude, where the little duet is the consequence The Floral March was also beautiful, the children keeping perfect time, and forming, as they marched, a wheel within a circle; this March succeeded the Coronation which was gracefully performed by the "Lily of the Valley.'

On the whole it was a very charming and a very agreeable entertainment, and we predict for its repetition this evening a huge house. The object is a worthy one, and the entertainment chaste and attractive.

Superior Court.

The case of Duncan Holmes and wife vs. Michael Fitzgerald, the first on the Calendar, was decided in the above court to-day. It was referred to Mr. J. I Macks, as referee, who reported and the report was confirmed by the Court. The balance of the day, up to this writing, 4, p. m., has been devoted to a hearing of the ejectment case of the Swann heirs. The argument is as to the removal of the case

Tried Before U. S. Commissioner McQuigg.

Mr. James A. Hewlett, of Masonboro Sound, was tried before U. S. Commissioner E. H. McQuigg this morning for a violation of the Internal Revenue laws. Lewis Spencer, a colored man, was the principal government witness, and his testimony failed to substantiate the charge which he had made and which caused the arrest of Mr. Hewlett. The defendant was thoroughly exonorated from any violation of the law and acquitted without an examination of the witnesses for the defense.
