No-City Court this morning.
 There were no interments in Bellevue Cemetery during the past week.

In Pine Forest Cemetery, there was but one interment—an adult, during the past week.

There were four interments in Oakdale Cemetery during the week—two adults and two children.

U. S. District Court convenes in this city on Monday next, His Honor Judge Brooks will preside.

There were four marriage licenses issued by the Register of Deeds for the week ending to-day. One of those was for a white couple and three were for colored couples.

We are requested to state that in the absence of the Pastor, the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian Church will be filled to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock by the Rev. Alexander Sprunt. There will be no services at night.

The members of the First Ward Democratic Club are requested to meet at Brooklyn Hall on Monday evening, the 29th inst, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of reorganization. This request is preferred by Capt. W. M. Parker President of the Club.

Rev. Dr. Wilson being absent attending a meeting of Wilmington Presbytery, the Rev. Dr. Burkhead will preach in the First Presbyterian church to-morrow morning, services commencing at 11 o'clock. There will be no services in this church at night.

More Young Shad.
 Messrs Quinn & Russ of the United States Fish Commission passed through this city last night en-route to Macon and Albany, Georgia, with 120,000 young shad hatched at Avoca.

The Cape Fear.
 Capt. Garrason, of the Steamer D. Marchison reports that owing to heavy rains in the vicinity of Fayetteville on Wednesday and Wednesday night, that there was a rise of fourteen feet in the river from 2 o'clock Thursday to 7 o'clock Friday morning, which was the time of his departure.

Lutheran Synod.
 The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of North Carolina meets in Frieden's church near Gibsonville in Guilford county on Wednesday next, the 1st day of May. Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., Pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church of this city, and Mr. Henry Haer lay delegate from the same church will leave here on Monday morning as delegates from St. Paul's to attend the Synod.

The Seaside.
 As will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, the new and elegant steamer Passport will make an excursion to Smithville, the fortifications and other points of interest, on Wednesday, May 1st. Tickets are limited, therefore those who wish to enjoy themselves on that occasion, should procure them immediately. The agent promises "a treat never before offered," and all who know him are assured that he means what he says.

Quick Payment—Knights of Honor.
 In our State news column, we published on yesterday information from the Tarboro Southerner of the payment of $2,000 to the wife and children of G. B. Lipscombe, deceased. Mr. Lipscombe was a member of the Knights of Honor and had been dead but a short time when his family received the insurance money. From one of the officers of the order in this city we learn that there are fourteen lodges of the order now in the State, with a membership of about four hundred. The order was introduced in this State about two years ago, and Mr. Lipscombe's death is the first which has occurred among the members in N. C. The lodge of the order in this city is in a flourishing condition and receives applications for membership at every meeting.

A Slight Mistake.

Our cotemporary of the Charlotte Democrat publishes an article from the REVIEW in its issue of the 26th instant and credits it to the Wilmington Star. Now there was nothing very brilliant in the effusion, but still, we just like to father our own responsibilities so as not to cause any one else to suffer for our iniquities—that's all.

Off for Washington
 Mr. John C. Cantwell a son of the Hon. Edward Cantwell, and one of our Wilmington young gentlemen leaves here to-morrow morning for Washington, D. C., where he goes to stand an examination for appointment to the grade of cadet in the Revenue Marine Service.

The examination is competitive and exceedingly rigid, and takes place on the seventh of May.
 We understand there are only four vacancies and as many as ninety applicants. We trust our young friend will meet with the success he aspires to, and which we think he deserves.

Officers for Memorial Day.

We understand that the Rev. Dr. C. M. Payne, of the Second Presbyterian Church, has been requested by the Ladies' Memorial Association to act as Chaplain on the tenth of May and that he has consented to do so.

Mr. R. E. Calder Chief Marshal, has appointed the following named gentlemen as Assistant Marshals for Memorial Day, viz: Messrs. James Taylor, J. H. Currie, Eugene Wiggins, Joseph N. Bowden, R. F. Langdon, I. B. Grainger, R. M. McIntire, Richard W. Price, Geo. M. Crapon, John McEvoy, Robt. Lilly, and J. E. Crow.

Meeting of the Third Ward Democratic Club.

There was quite a large attendance at the meeting of the Third Ward Club, at Mund's Hall, last evening. The object of the meeting, as stated by the President, L. H. Bowden, Esq., after the meeting had been called to order, was for the purpose of reorganizing for the ensuing campaign. Mr. Bowden then tendered his resignation, which was, on motion, accepted, and the election of a successor declared in order.

Mr. W. J. Yopp, and Capt. R. F. Langdon were placed in nomination, and Col. John L. Cantwell and Capt. I. B. Gringer appointed tellers.

The Secretary announced, as the result of the ballot, that there had been 101 votes cast, as follows: W. J. Yopp, 64; R. F. Langdon, 35; L. H. Bowden, 1; blank, 1.
 Mr. Yopp, having received a majority of the votes, was declared duly elected.
 On motion, the election was made unanimous, and Messrs. Jno. W. Perdew and H. A. Bagg, were appointed to conduct the President-elect to his seat.

Mr. Yopp, on taking his seat, responded briefly to calls for a speech, at the conclusion of which Messrs. Jno. W. Perdew, Jno. H. Allen and Samuel Bear, Jr. were appointed a committee to nominate suitable candidates for officers of the Club.

During the absence of the committee, the chair requested some gentleman to entertain the meeting with a speech.
 Mr. Thos. D. Meares then remarked that he noticed a distinguished gentleman from another portion of the State, present, and requested Maurice Q. Waddell, Esq., the gentleman referred to from Chatham, to address the meeting.

Mr. Waddell responded in a short speech of five minutes, in which he spoke of being from the Cape Fear section, and referred to the familiar facts that he used to know that are now no longer visible, though he thought that he could recognize the likeness of many of his departed friends in the faces of their descendants that he saw around him. Mr. Waddell then touched upon national politics and the success of the Democratic party, and concluded his remarks by suggesting that we allow no dissension in our ranks. Mr. Waddell's remarks were well received and applauded.

The Committee having returned, made the following report for nomination, to the different offices of the Club, which were unanimously confirmed by the Club:
 For First Vice President—Don. McRae.
 For Second Vice President—Timothy Donlan.
 For Secretary—Jas. H. Taylor.
 For Treasurer—F. G. Roberson.
 Executive Committee—Messrs. Morris Bear, Geo. Sloan, J. B. Huggins, Aug. Deumelandt and Jno. M. Robinson.

On motion, the thanks of the Club was unanimously tendered the retiring officers.
 On motion, the meeting adjourned.

There seems to be an universal desire for a repetition of the Cross of St. John's and the Limerick Boy by the cadets of the Cape Fear Military Academy.

A MEMORIAL PSALM.

FOR THE TENTH OF MAY.
 I.
 Past, the clash and clang of battle,
 Past, the terrors, trials, fears,
 Past, the deadly roar and rattle,
 Yet, we meet in tears.
 II.
 Not a shout of exultation
 Breaks the silence, solemn, deep:
 On the death-day of a nation,
 Is it strange we weep?
 III.
 But the homage that we render
 Softens with a proud relief,
 And a joy supremely tender,
 Mingles with our grief.
 IV.
 For the heroes wrested from us,
 When the overwhelming flood
 And their memory's bow of promise
 Spans our years of pain!
 V.
 Countless eyes have conned their story,
 Countless hearts grown brave thereby
 Let us thank the God of glory,
 We had such to die!
 VI.
 Where had been the Church's honor,
 Have not lived nor died in vain;
 Heads low drooped where brave they
 Other foes rushed there upon her,
 But for martyrs' blood?
 VII.
 Where the lofty acclamations
 Of the wretch of the woman's chain;
 Where the grandeur of the nations,
 But for patriots slain?
 VIII.
 Shall we, then, in sad procession,
 Now we lay above the breast—
 Only bring our tears to freshen
 Graves where heroes rest?
 IX.
 Let us rather, as the laurel
 Now we lay above the sod,
 Learn their lives' majestic moral,
 Wait, and trust in God!

Mrs. Preston's Poem.

Though the courtesy of Mrs. Cicero W. Harris editor of the South Atlantic we are enabled to lay before our readers today the beautiful Memorial Psalm, written by Mrs. Margaret J. Preston for the use of the ladies Memorial Association of this city on the tenth of May. In an editorial upon the subject in the South Atlantic. The editor says: "The newspapers throughout the South are desirous to republish the Psalm for the benefit of some remote Associations which this magazine may not reach."
