It is thought that the Episcopal Convention will probably adjourn to-morrow.

There seems to be a pretty general unanimity of sentiment in regard to a suspension of business on the Twentieth, but no one seems willing to take the initiative.

Who will lead the movement, and thus show honor to Old North Carolina by observing her Independence Day?

The toast at the Firemen's Supper on Tuesday night to "The Mercantile Interests of the City of Wilmington" was responded to very happily by Mr. A. H. VanBokkelen. Through an oversight, which we very much regret, this statement was omitted in the report published by us yesterday.

Rather Unanimous.

As an incident of the recent municipal elections in North Carolina we are informed that Mr. Henry K. Nash was elected Mayor of Hillsboro on Monday last by a unanimous vote, Democrats and Republicans, white and blacks alike voting for him. There was but one vote in the town which was not cast for Mr. Nash and that was his own.

On motion of Rev Mr Lamour, a committee was appointed by the Chair of the following gentlemen: Rev Geo Patterson, D D, Dr A J DeRosset, and Mr R E Calder to contract for the printing of the Journal of the Convention.

Rt Rev Bishop Atkinson read a report of the duties performed by him since the adjournment of the last Convention, of which the following is a summary:

Number of persons confirmed, 219; baptised adults, 33; infants, 24; buried 4; ordained, 21 Deacons and 1 Priest; received into the Diocese 4 Priests and one Deacon; transferred, 3 Priests to other Dioceses; deposed, one Deacon; whole number clergy in Diocese at present, 63; which is larger than ever before. There are now 5 candidates for Priest's Orders, 3 for Deacon's Orders and 5 Postulants.

Summary—Bishop Lyman visited 81 churches or missionary stations, some more than once; baptised 13 infants confirmed 213 persons; officiated at 2 marriages and at 1 funeral; he consecrated 2 churches; administered Holy Communion 52 times besides other celebrations in service of churches.

On motion of Rev J W Larmour the addresses of Bishop's Atkinson and Lyman just now received, were referred to the Committee on the state of the Church which is as follows: Rev E M Forbes, Rev D H Buel, Rev N C Hughes.

The following is a further extract from Bishop Atkinson's address: "We should remember that in christian education, the right training of the mind and the heart is not needed for girls only, but at least, as much for boys and youths. Their temptations are even greater; their need of preparations for the toils and trials of life more urgent than girls. It was to meet this want that the Wilberforce School at Morganton has been planned and we must acknowledge that not very much has been done as yet to accomplish this plan. The obstacles in the way have been mainly the difficulty in finding a suitable person for the office of principal, and the want of adequate endowment. The former hindrance, we have reason to hope, is about to be removed though we must struggle the best we may to surmount the obstacle which is bearing upon us and by constant and unrelenting efforts to make the school an ornament to the church, if such a thing be possible, but at any rate a success, thereby insuring the proper christian education to the youth of the land."

On motion of Dr. Sutton, that part of both addresses referring to the Wilberforce School at Morganton, was referred to a committee of three, as follows: Rev Dr Sutton, Rev Dr Huske and Capt S A Ashe.

Mr H A London, Jr, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That section 1, article XII, of the Constitution, be amended by striking out all after the words "District Orders" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "and a concurrent vote of the majority of all the clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and of the delegates from at least 20 parishes in union with the Convention (the said delegates voting by parishes) shall be necessary for a election."

On motion, the Convention took a recess until 5 o'clock, this p. m.

To one quart of flour add two teaspoonfuls DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, a little salt, butter the size of an egg, rubbed in the flour, one pint sweet milk, and the yolks of two eggs beaten very light. Add last, stirring in lightly, the whites of the eggs well beaten and bake in a square pan in a quick oven. Break in squares for the table.

A Serious Difficulty.

A serious difficulty occurred last evening in the Mozart Saloon, on South Front street, between Mr. George Sullivan, Foreman of the Fifth Ward Bucket Company and recently a member of the Police Force, and a stranger here, a chiropodist who calls himself Charles Brown, and who claims to hail from Hanover, in Germany.

The two had been playing cards in the rear room of the Mozart when the corn doctor having developed a very disagreeable disposition Mr. Sullivan determined to leave him. With this purpose in view he advanced into the front room, to the bar, whither he was followed by Brown who finally addressed to him an epithet which no man is willing to take from any one.

At this Mr. Sullivan knocked the man down twice in succession, the offence having been repeated. A third time Brown applied his remarks to Sullivan, but on this occasion he advanced under the other's blows and was seen to strike at his antagonist several times in quick succession. The blood spurted from the neck of the latter and fell to the floor while Brown made for the door opening on the alley with the view of effecting his escape.

As he did so Capt. Jim McGowan sprang forward and seized him and then leaving him in the charge of two parties whom he had summoned to his assistance, he rushed to Mr. Sullivan's aid, blowing his whistle, as he did so, for a policeman. Mr. Sullivan was found to be very badly wounded and Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy, whose office was near at hand, was at once summoned.

On entering the saloon he at once recognized Mr. Sullivan's danger and without removing the wounded man from the floor he at once compressed the artery with his thumb and finger and sent for Drs. Wood and Lane to assist him. On their arrival the wounded man was very carefully removed to a table in the rear room where proper surgical aid was rendered him. The lobe of the left ear was found to be badly cut and under it there was a deep gash extending for about two inches, besides two smaller wounds in the right side. He bled very profusely and we are satisfied that nothing less than Dr. Bellamy's early arrival on the scene saved his life. The wounds were inflicted by a two-edged, ivory handled instrument resembling a paper scraper, which was found on the floor of the Saloon.

Brown, the corn doctor, was taken to the guard house where he will be held to await the result of the injuries inflicted by him. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Sullivan, who was removed to his house last night, is this morning much better and that he is considered in no immediate danger.

Rogues Captured.

A friend at Whiteville sends us the following account of the capture of two of the parties supposed to be implicated in the robbery at Clarkton, an account of which we have published:

Thursday night, May 2nd, the dwelling house of John D. Currie and the storehouse of Messrs. Clark & Currie at Clarkton in Bladen county were entered by a thief or thieves and two gold watches, $50 in money and the store key was taken from the room where Mr. Currie and family slept. The store was then entered and a lot of goods taken therefrom. About 8 o'clock Friday night, at Whiteville depot, on the W. C. & A. R. R., the thief was captured. He made a desperate effort to escape; made two attempts to get his pistol from his pocket and in the scuffle drew his knife and succeeded in getting it nearly open, when he dropped it and suffered himself to be choked down before he would surrender. He gives his name as Jo Lee, alias Jo Bryant, alias Jo Clark, alias Chas. Hill, alias Richard Lee, alias Walter Maxwell. He is a penitentiary bird and the latter is the name under which he was indicted, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for robbing Mr. William Bonitz, of Goldsboro, in the year 1876. After having been imprisoned he charged one D. W. J. King, colored, of Florence, S. C., as being an accomplice and said that King owed him $500, that he had loaned him. Sheriff Haynes learned that a man by the name of Dan King, a stranger, had been staying at Coleman's Mill for three or four weeks. The said mill is about fifteen miles from Whiteville in a very obscure locality. Sheriff Haynes proceeded on Monday night to visit the house where King was staying and found him asleep. He arrested him without trouble; he had in his possession a gold watch, two dollars, fifteen hundred cigars, one trunk filled with very fine clothing and a few other goods such as ladies' collars and cuffs, a few hats, calico &c., and a gold cuff button. He also acknowledged getting $610 from Richard Lee about the middle of March in Florence, S. C. He said that Richard gave him $300 to take off the other $300 and get it changed up into small bills for him and that the money was in $100, $50 and $20; that in going to Columbia S. C. to get the money changed some body stole $200 out of his pockets; the balance he had spent. Yesterday, May 7th, Walter Maxwell told the Sheriff that the $300 was taken out of the house of J. H. Durham at Fair Bluff, N. C. the first week in March last and this is probably the money.
