Working for bare life—making shirts for babies. An important suit—the first jacket and trousers. Two heads are bet'er than one—in a barrel. The Revenue Cutter Colfax is on the Railway for repairs.

All girls are fond of steak—at least they all love a tender line. It is a great deal easier in these days to borrow trouble than to borrow money. The steam yacht Passport takes down a private party to-morrow to the Blackfish Grounds.

The colored people indulged in a picnic at Hilton to-day. They marched out, headed by a band of music. Worth made fifteen toilettes for the fair Rothschilds Roseberry. Merit makes the man, and Worth the woman. No minister who smokes can now be admitted to a Methodist pulpit in Tennessee. This is a novel way to weed out the clergy.

Blankets were again found comfortable this morning. Queer weather, this, for the middle of May. Some of the clerks are getting uneasy and think it is about time to take some steps towards inaugurating the usual summer schedule for closing the stores early in the evening.

The Board of Aldermen meet this afternoon in adjourned session, but too late for a report of their proceedings to appear in this issue. Jennie June says a fashionable bonnet can be bought for a dollar and a half. And so it can. It is the from six to twenty dollars' worth of trimming that strikes the pocketbook in a sore spot.

There is no doubt that walking is a healthy exercise—no doubt, except in the mind of the boy who is sent on an errand. He believes in sitting on the fence. The people have very short memories. It was Cato who said that the best way to keep good deeds fresh in the minds of men is to refresh them constantly with new ones.

The sale of the cargo of lime ex-schooner Cattawamteak, advertised for to-day by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, has been postponed until Thursday next, the 16th inst., at which time it will take place at the foot of Orange street. "What to eat and how to cook it," is the name of a book recently published. "What to eat and where to get it," would meet with a livelier sale among the laboring classes here just now.

The Oriental Amateur Concert Club will give an entertainment, musical and magical, at Lippitt's Hall on Tuesday (to-morrow) evening, at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the colored military companies of this city, to assist them in uniforming the colored battalion. Wine with Cake at Entertainments. We take pleasure in directing the attention of the public to Speer's celebrated Port Grape Wine, a pure and unadulterated article upon which every one may most implicitly rely. This wine is made at Speer's vineyards, Passaic, New Jersey. It has a rich flavor, mellow juiciness, and brilliant color; and is not only an agreeable beverage, but highly beneficial in all its properties for invalids and aged persons.

In the general distribution of medals, if it had been possible for the "International Jury of Award" to have given a medal to the best hotel in Philadelphia, this honor would have been received by the Colonnade, "for all the requisites of a model establishment in every respect." Mothers, Mothers, Mothers. Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

Confirmation.

The services at St. John's last night were unusually interesting. The Church was filled and there were fifteen clergymen, including the venerable Bishop of the Diocese, all in full canonicals. The sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Hale, Rector of Christ's Church, Newbern. The candidates for confirmation, eight in number, five ladies and three gentlemen, were presented by the Rector of the Parish, Rev. Geo. Patterson, D. D.

Death from Paralysis.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Frances C. Tracey, of New York, was stricken with paralysis on the piazza at the residence of Rev. Dr. Watson, on Market street. Mrs. Tracey was taken to the residence of Dr. E. A. Anderson, where she has been spending her winters for the past three or four years, and died in about eight hours after the stroke. Her remains were taken to New York this morning and will be interred in Greenwood Cemetery by the side of her husband. Mrs. Tracey was nearly seventy-five years of age, and her sudden death has cast a gloom over her many warm friends in this community.

The County Committee.

A meeting of the recently elected members of the Democratic County Executive Committee is called to meet at the office of DuBrutz Cutlar, Esq., on Wednesday, May 15th, 1878, at 4 o'clock P. M. The members of this Committee, with the exception of those from Federal Point township, from which there were no appointments, as announced at the Convention held on the 4th inst., are as follows: First Ward—J. J. Ives, W. D. Mahn, W. J. Mott. Second Ward—DuBrutz Cutlar, Wm. Calder. Third Ward—James W. Collins, Matthew W. Iveyer. Fourth Ward—O. H. Robinson, John W. Atkinson. Fifth Ward—F. H. Darby, P. T. Dicksey. Cape Fear Township—A. J. Grady. Harnett Township—Gerrett Walker. Masonboro Township—John J. Farrow.

The Castle Hayne Pow Wow.

The gathering of the Radical clans at Castle Hayne on last Saturday afternoon is reported to have been fertile in the usual disagreements. During most of the time that locality was a Babel of confusion. The squabble first arose on the appointment of a Chairman, the rival factions putting forward H. E. Scott on the one side, and Joseph Sharpless on the other. Finally Scott withdrew, and Sharpless got the Chair. James Heaton, Bill Moore, Joe Hill, Sheriff Manning, John Holt, John Sampson and others were the speakers. The greatest point of confusion was when Geo. L. Mabson's friends wanted him to speak. This, the opposing faction were determined he should not do, and they brought forward John Sampson. The confusion then became uproariously confounded, and so excited were the opponents that the rival speakers were lifted on the shoulders of their friends and borne towards the stand. But the crowd would not hear Mabson, and so Sampson got the floor. In the way of business, it is said that literally nothing was accomplished.

Fire This Morning.

A small frame building on the southeast corner of Third and Wooster streets, owned and occupied as a store by Mr. Cornelius Jackson, was destroyed by fire, together with its contents, about 4 o'clock this morning. We have heard no theory advanced as to the origin of the fire. Mr. Jackson has been peculiarly unfortunate, having been burned out three times in the last four or five years. He was insured with Messrs. John W. Gordon & Bro., in the Home Protection, of North Alabama, for $100 on the building, $250 on the stock and $50 on the store fixtures, which will hardly cover the amount of his loss.

Suspended.

The Wilmington Democrat has, we understand, suspended publication, no paper having been issued from that office on Saturday. We regret this as the Democrat has proved a staunch party paper and would have exercised an influence for much good during the campaign this summer. The Raleigh News says: "The Independent Order of Sons and Daughters of Samaria," a local colored beneficial organization, gives an excursion from this city to Wilmington on the 14th inst. The posters put the price per passenger at $3.

Military Appointment.

We learn that our young friend of Sergeant N. F. Parker, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, has received the appointment of Sergeant, Major of the Second Regiment N. C. S. G., from Col. C. W. Alexander, commanding. This is a well merited compliment and the appointment will be hailed with pleasure by all who know Sergeant, Major Parker.

Excursion To-morrow.

Don't forget the excursion to be given to-morrow to Smithville and Fort Caswell on the steamer Underhill. The boat will leave her wharf, foot of Orange street, at 9 o'clock and there will be a band of music on board, as well as refreshments at city prices. The fare is only 75 cents for the round trip for adults and 50 cents for children and Capt. Lippitt, the Manager, will use every exertion in his power to make the affair a pleasant one for all who may go.

R. R. and R.

The richest, rarest and most racy scene that it has been our good fortune to witness this season, was the meeting of the Republican County Executive Committee in the County Court House in this city to-day. Strong personal advocates, both as to the pros. and cons., spoke at length and frequently and after four hours' discussion it was decided to hold a County Convention in this city on Saturday, May 25th. Oh! for the powers of Billings! The scene beggars description and can only be appreciated by the few who saw it.

Capt. DeRosset.

We are truly glad to be able to chronicle the fact that Capt. DeRosset's condition has somewhat improved, although we are not able to state that there has thus far been any decided change for the better. He is somewhat easier and this report, slight as it is, is thankfully received by his many friends. We hope to be able to announce a decided change for the better in to-morrow's issue.

Fashion Dots.

Clair De Leine combs are among the latest novelties. White is going to be worn a great deal this summer. Silk stockings come in all of the pale shades; embroidered cost only $10 a pair. The kilt plaited skirt, now so fashionable, is becoming to most every one. For trimming, fine French lace is used in great quantities, but to look prettily it must not be used sparingly. A pretty white suit which was simply made attracting attention, was of fine French muslin, made princess and trimmed with insertions of Valenciennes with colored ribbons underneath, making a pretty and simple suit. In hats there are all shapes, from the wide brimmed hat down to the small Copote. The Fra Diavolo is one of the prettiest and most becoming to every one. The Organdies and lawns are simply beautiful, most of them in the pale, plain shades of ecru, blue, lilac, green or pink, with a profusion of flowers strewn over them. Bordered percales are largely imported. Some of these are gay bourette figured borders, while others are just the reverse. The lace collars and cuffs are a pretty ornament and are worn to great extent. For evening the hair is worn high, with a profusion of curls, frizzes and putts.

For Register of Deeds.

BURGAU, N. C., 13th May, 1878. To the Voters of Pender County: FELLOW-CITIZENS—I most respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds of this county, subject, however, to the action of the coming Democratic Convention. Your aid, therefore, in securing to me the nomination for, and the election to, said office is most respectfully solicited. MARION MOORE.

Honesty vs. Fraud.

How many baking powders are there in the market, which, aside from being adulterated, are put up short weight. Every package of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is strictly full weight, and the article itself is absolutely pure.

All of the delegates to the late Episcopal Convention, with one or two exceptions, have left for their homes.

The season for pig fish has been an unusually fine one and they can generally be bought cheap.

A Good Time at Scott's Hill.

SCOTT'S HILL, May 11th. MR. EDITOR:—Scott's Hill has experienced a sensation. To-day, by the gray dawn of the morning, carts, buggies and other vehicles were seen moving toward Mr. L. H. McClammy's landing, on the Sound, where the sailing yacht E. Francis lay at anchor. By an invitation of the Captain, we were to be entertained with a sail over the bar out to the blackfish grounds, some five miles distant. By 7 o'clock, everything being in readiness, we weighed anchor, and our vessel swung gracefully around to the wind, poised herself for a moment, as her sails filled, and bore gently down the channel for the bar. A more happy party it would be hard to find as we bounded over the green swells out upon the broad bosom of the Atlantic. But alas! Mr. Editor, all human hopes are destined to be blighted (or at least so with many of our party), for about this time, we had noticed some of the "fellows" crawling up under the bow, whose gills had lost the rosy hue they had at starting. Some reclined gracefully, with back against the mast, eyes upturned, as if imploring mercy from on high, while others were busily engaged in paying tribute to the sea. How long this state of things might have continued we leave you to conjecture, but the wind being stiff we were soon at our destination, where the vessel was thrown out of the wind and some relief tendered to poor suffering humanity. Fishing tackle was produced and our party had the satisfaction of capturing many varieties of the finny tribe. As the sun began to approach the meridian we were again under way, and after a magnificent sail of about half hour were once more safely playing around the anchor. Baskets were brought forth and a repast spread which would have done honor to Delmonico; after which was tendered a vote of thanks to the captain for his hospitable entertainment when the party dispersed for their homes feeling this to be the most pleasant day they had ever experienced.
