The State Medical Society.

Goldsboro, N. C., May 15, 1878. EDITOR REVIEW

The great event here this week is the annual meeting of the State Medical Society. The Society convened on yesterday with an attendance of about seventy five physicians. The unpropitious weather does not suppress the self-sacrificing zeal of the doctors, who have literally taken possession of the town in their devotion to medical improvement and the elevation of are in session also. Papers and discussions on important medical subjects are the order of each day's proceedings. Today that terrible disease, diphtheria, will occupy much of the attention of the Soton and vicinity Drs. W. T. Ennett, F. W. every year of the meetings of the State Medical Society.

An important feature always of these annual meetings of the Society is the annual address by some prominent member appointed one year previous. This year voted physician of Pender county, Dr. William T. Ennett. The public at large are always invited to be present. The Society and the citizens of Goldsboro are expecting a rich treat from Dr. Ennett. The address will come off to-night in the Presbyterian Church here at eight o'clock. Much interest is shown in the address.

with proverbial hospitality. They can but admire the scientific devotion, the humane efforts of the North Carolina Medical Association. There is nothing selfish in what the members have been doing for the last twenty-five years of the existence of the Society. All is to learn better to cure disease, to prolong human existence, to lessen the ills of mortality. And then

It is a just tribute to its wise and skillful management, to its elevated purposes and to the devotion of its members to record this fact.

GOLDSBORO, May 16, 1878.

EDITOR REVIEW : The proceedings of the State Medical Society are of unusual interest this year. Exhaustive papers and discussions on that terrible scourge, Diphtheria, were before tiring devotions to its interest has skillful- the Society on yesterday. The State Board of Health is a popular subject at that beset it on all sides, and whose genial this meeting also. The Board is making hospitality and affable disposition ever en- fine progress and promises much good. An election for a new Board of Medical Examiners of the State took place yesterlay. The following ticket, proposed by Dr. Satchwell, was elected, viz: Drs. P E. Hines, Bahnson, Jeseph Graham, George L. Kirby, Haigh, R. J. Hicks and Thos. F. Wood. The members are scattered, as you see, all over the State, as should be.

The Presbyterian Church was packed last night by a highly intelligent and appreciative audience of ladies and gentlemen to hear the admirable and eloquent prompt attention. annual address of the orator of the Society-Dr. W. T. Ennett, of Pender. His subject was the Circulation of the Blood, and he handled it ably and well. He paid a glowing tribute to the immortal Harvey, and proved conclusively that in spite of the efforts of envy and detraction to rob this great discoverer of the credit of his discovery, originally, of the circulation, he was the true discoverer. Dr. Ennett reflected the highest credit 1000 Sacks Salt, upon his professional acquirements and abilities and was listened to most attentively by all present. He has won new laurels by this well-prepared and excel-lent address. It will be published by order of the Society, in the transactions of the year. The Publication Committee for the ensuing year are Drs. S. S. Satchwell, P. L. Murphy, G. G. Thomas, G. L. Kirby and W. T. Ennett. They perform the delicate duty of criticism on the par-pers read before the Society and of deciding which shall be published. The proceedings will be published in the North Carolina Medical Journal. Dr. W. W. Lane will be orator for next y ar. The next annual meeting will be held in Greensboro on the third Tuesday of next
