MARION MOORE. St. John's Parish, Easter Tide, A. D.

The Rector and Vestry of St. John's Parish duly convened, desire to place upon record their deep sense of the bereavement which has been sustained by them in the death of Mr. THOMAS CHILDS DEROSSET. Our deceased brother has so diligently and so successfully labored amongst us, that his sudden departure casts a shadow over this parish, and makes us realize that a loss has been experienced which will not soon be forgotten or repaired. He was eminently a courteous Christiangentleman. As a Vestryman he was clear and concise, though modest, in the expression of his opinions, and was liberal and generous in advocating principles and projects for the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom in this Fold, and possessed to a large degree the power of bringing those principles into practice. As the Treasurer of this Parish, he was ever ready to do what he could and all he could to advance lits temporal interests. By his agency a large work was inaugurated in our Sunday School, which will stand as a monument to his Christian activities and to his memory as a proof of his ability and his nfluence as a director of the lambs of the ach work of the Church in this parish. Resolved, By the Rector and Vestry of st. John's Parish that while humbly bowing to the will of God in this dispensation of His Providence, they desire to express their earnest appreciation of his character, as a devout Christian and an earnest worke for his Master.

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. De-Rosset, we recognize the loss of one of the most useful members of this parish. Resolved, That the grievous manner of his death has deeply touched the hearts of every one of us, and that in it we recognize the Master's gentle voice, "Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh." Resolved, That the Rector and Vestry desire to convey to his bereaved widow and fatherless children, the assurance of their sympathy in this sad affliction, and that they will implore the Good Shepherd to defend and provide for them by endowing them with the richest heavenly consolations. POTTER-At Fairfield farm, near Wil mington, Friday, May 17th, at 334 P. M., o consumption, WILLIAM F. POITER, aged

The funeral service will be from S. James' Church to Oakdale Cemetery, Sunday, at 4 P. M. The friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited.

DEROSSET-In this city, on the aft rnoon of 17th of May, in the 33d year of his age, THOMAS CHILDS DEROSSET, son of Dr. Armand J. DeRosset.

The friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend the funeral service at St. John's Church, thence to Oakdale, on Sunday morning, the 19th, at 9 o'clock.

But yesterday we were called upon to mourn the loss of an old and prominent itizen, who had, however, reached the age assigned by the Psalmist as the limit of manly life and who went down to the grave honored and beloved as few men seldom are and to-day the wail of sorrow again rises in our stricken community, for the reaper death, has taken from our midst one in the ull vigor of strength and youthful energy Thomas Childs DeRosset is dead, and the ireamstances attending his decease are well calculated to excite the deepest emotion. But one short week ago in the full enjoy ment of robust health, he was participating in the mournful ceremonies of Memoria Day, and while thus engaged the destroye came and claimed him for his own. Did the thought occur to one mind in that vast concourse, who were doing homage to our honored dead, that in one short week the grave would close over one of their number who was the type of youthful health and strength? Surely such visitations of Provi-dence may well make us pause, and should impress more deeply, upon our hearts the solemn injunction: "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the son o man cometh.

The death of one so young and estimable is a loss not only to his family and friends but to the community at large, for he pos sessed qualities of the highest order, qualities which exercised a wholesome influence upon those with whom he came in contact. Self-reliant and independent, he labored with commendable industry to quality himself for the duties of life. Stooping to no subterfuges, he was at all times frank and illustrated his creed by his own conduct and robes of the true Christian and died as he had lived in that blessed faith which he had embraced in health and strength. "There remaineth a rest for the people of God. We knew him well and loved him for hi terling virtues, and sorrowing as we do at nis untimely death, we could not refrain from paying some tribute to his memory even though it be nothing more than to lay a poor handful of moss upon his new-made
