Fretting is a sort of religious swearing at troubles.

No man likes to hold a girl baby in his arms until she is seventeen years old.

There are only 300 shades of blue. We sometimes feel as though there are twice as many.

On the 29th of July there will be an eclipse of the sun. It will be total in quite a number of places.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins, of Rockingham, will preach at Fifth Street M. E. Church to-night at 8 o'clock.

There is no necessary connection between a serial tale and a monkey's tail, simply because both are continued.

The annual meeting of the Historical and Scientific Society will take place in the Session Room of the First Presbyterian Church this evening, on which occasion there will be an election of officers for the ensuing year.

Privilege Tax.

Warrants were issued against some of our merchants this morning who have not paid their privilege tax. The cases will be heard to-morrow morning by the Mayor, and throughout the week until all are disposed of. Those who do not feel disposed to have the cost added to the tax should step up to the Captain's office.

Sudden Death.

Yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, Mary Livingston, colored, aged 66 years, dropped on the corner of Sixth and Ann streets, and expired in about ten minutes.
At the time of her death she was wending her way to St. James' Church to witness the funeral of one whom she had nursed during her infancy. An inquest was held over her body this morning, the verdict being death from heart disease.

Bears.

This morning two large fine looking dressed bears were brought into market and sold to one of our butchers.

One of the bears was caught in a trap near Sneads Ferry, Onslow county, and the other was shot by Mr. Jno. Edens, near where the first was caught. The supposition is that the bears were en-route from one pocon to another, which is but a short distance from the place they were captured. They are very fat and nicely dressed.

Wake Forest.

We thank the Marshals for an invita-

Better than Foreign Port.

Speer's Port Grape Wine is better than Imported Port, and since the adulteration of the latter, it must take its place. It is pure and really excellent and health-giving.
—Try Times.

The most select 5th Avenue families use this wine at their evening entertainments.
Our Druggists have some direct from Mr. Speer.

Housekeepers and Cooks

You can always use Dotter's Yeast Powder in all your receipts where cream tartar and soda is specified. The yeast powder is pure and always reliable.

Death of Mr. Kelley.

We regret to learn of the death of another old citizen of Wilmington, Mr.
Oliver Kelley, who died at his residence in this city early yesterday morning, aged 61 years. Mr. Kelley had been suffering very much for some ten days but only took to his bed on Friday last. He had never recovered fully from the injuries received by him last Summer in being knocked down and injured by a locomotive at the Nutt street crossing, and it is thought that this may have hastened his death.

A Sad Accident.

The body of a young man by the name of James Christie, Second Mate on board the British barque North Carolina, was found drowned last night in the dock near Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son's wharf. Coroner Hewlett was notified of the fact, and there having been some rumors afloat of foul play, Dr. A. E. Wright was called in and made an examination of the body.
He could find no marks of violence and so reported, and thereupon the jury rendered a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death by drowning, supposed to have been accidental.

Mr. Christie was a young man only twenty-three years of age, and was from the Isle of Shetland, Scotland, where his family now resides. He was a very exemplary young man, sober and correct in the discharge of his duties, and was thoroughly esteemed by those who knew him here, and especially by Capt. Buchanan, of his ship. He disappeared very suddenly on Thursday and was last seen at about 1 o'clock on that day, at dinner. An unavailing search was made for him, and finally Capt. Buchanan was compelled to sail without him. The theory is that in stepping ashore after dinner on Thursday last, he must have fallen between the vessel and the wharf, and being unable to attract anyone to the spot by his cries, and not knowing how to swim, was drowned. It is possible that he was partially stunned in falling by striking his head against the vessel, or the cap of the wharf.

The flags on the British Vice Consulate's office and the vessels in port of that nationality, are at half-mast to-day in respect to his memory, and his remains will be followed to the grave this afternoon by Vice Consul Sprunt and a number of his countrymen.

Knights of Honor.

Through the courtesy of the Grand Dictator, Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy, we are permitted to give the following extracts of the proceedings of the Knights of Honor, he having received the advance sheets from the Supreme Dictator of the order in the United States:

The Supreme Council is now in session at Nashville, Tenn. The Order was organized on June 30th, 1873. There are now 1,055 subordinate lodges in the United States, with 40,025 members. North Carolina has thirteen lodges, with a membership of over 400. There have been two deaths in this State, both of which were in Tarboro. Up to April 1st, 1878, there have been 228 deaths, all told. There have been paid out to the families of deceased members $508,000. To pay this sum there have been thirty-seven assessments of $1 each. The largest number of assessments was in 1877, when there were eleven.

There is a lodge of the order in this city which is in active and successful operation.
The rapid growth of the order, since its conception, during which time the country has been passing through the most serious monetary depression, is remarkably wonderful. It has now planted its banner in thirty-one States. The order is likely to gain ground largely in the next year, and there is no reason why its membership will not amount to 100,000 in the next twelve months.

The Camp Meeting.

The colored camp meeting in progress some distance below this city, near old Camp Wyatt, seems to have drawn very largely and so far as numbers are concerned to have thus far proved a complete success. The steamer Gov. Worth is running regularly between the grounds and the city and there is always a big crowd of both sexes and of all ages, waiting in front of this office to take passage.
It is estimated that there were between 4,000 and 5,000 present on the grounds yesterday. The meetings will close, we understand, on Wednesday, and housekeepers will rejoice greatly when the fun is all over and their servants are back again at work.

The Supreme Court of Massachusetts declares that a note given for a church subscription does not carry with it an obligation to pay, since it is given without consideration.

The new schedule on the C. C. R. W. goes into effect this evening. It will be found in full in our advertising columns.

American Sewing Machines.

We invite attention to the double column advertisement of the American Sewing Machine, to be found in this issue.
Mr. John H. Allen has accepted the agency here for these machines and has a number of them now on hand at his store on Market street, where he is prepared to demonstrate their superior excellence to all who may favor him with a call.

The Beautiful Queen.

A large number of seats have been taken for the rendition to-morrow evening of the beautiful cantata of Esther and we hope for the honor and profit of the benevolent object in view, the aid of the orphans, that there will not be an empty seat in the house. It will prove an occasion of rare enjoyment to all who may attend.

A Sad Day.

Yesterday was a sad day with many of the residents of Wilmington, for on that day were laid away to rest the mortal remains of two young and promising citizens.
Capt. DeRosset was buried in the forenoon, and Mr. Potter in the afternoon; the former from St. John's Church and the latter from St. James', and both in Oakdale Cemetery. The attendance on both occasions was very large.

The ceremonies attendant upon the interment of Capt. DeRosset and the administration of the last sad rites which either his church or his friends could offer him, were peculiarly sad and touching.
From the house to the church the remains were escorted by a long procession, amid which were the members of his Company, the Whiting Rifles, the Wilmington Light Infantry, and the Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company, all in citizen's clothes, the officers, teachers and children of St.
John's Sunday School, of which he has so long been the honored head, and the members of the vestry of that church, of which he has for many years been a faithful member, as also the vestries of St.
James' and St. Paul's. The church was filled to repletion, with the venerable Bishops of the Diocese; Rev. Dr.
Watson, Rev. Dr. Patterson and Rev.
Mr. Morrell in the church. At the Cemetery the services were unusually sad and impressive and when the earth fell upon the casket which held all that was left of mortality and the sweet voices of the children of the Sunday School rose on the still air in the notes of a little sacred song which the beloved deceased had himself taught them, there was scarcely a dry eye in all of that vast concourse.

The rainy season is still with us at the time of this writing on Saturday. Toothache is still on the rampage, and coal is being purchased in small lots by the economical housekeeper.

The Grand Central is now offering unusual inducements to business men, families and tourists. The prices for board have never been so low, and the table is still kept up to its first-class high standard.

Fish are very scarce, an effect of the untoward winds.

There will be a full dress rehearsal of the cantata of Esther at the Opera House this evening.

The Twentieth of May is with us today and there has been absolutely no recognition of the day as far as we can learn.

There was a small fire over in the upper part of Brooklyn yesterday afternoon, by which part of a shanty was destroyed.
The alarm did not become general, having been confined to that section of the city.

The fare on the excursion of the Good Samaritans to Columbia on the 27th inst. has been placed at $2 for the round trip, which is low enough, in all conscience, to suit the lowest pockets.

There is to be a general painting up this week of all of the yachts at Wrightsville Sound, preparatory to the summer regattas, and Mr. Charles E. Burr went down there to-day with a good force to do the work.

Mothers, Mothers, Mothers.
Don't fail to procure Mrs. Wixlow's Soothing Syrup for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

ject, however, to the action of the coming Democratic Convention. Your aid, therefore, in securing to me the nomination for, and the election to, said office is most respectfully solicited.

MARION MOORE.
