Excursion to Columbia.
T. H. HOWAY—To the Public.
S. JEWETT—Look.

Most uncomfortably warm to-day.

Day's length 14 hours and 19 minutes.

No interments this week in Bellevue Cemetery.

There have been three interments this week in Oakdale one child and two adults.

The Register of Deeds has issued but one marriage license this week, and that was for a white couple.

Geo. Z. French, Esq., has been chosen as Orator for Decoration Day, (next Thursday) and will deliver the address at the Cemetery on that occasion.

The Good Samaritan excursion to Columbia takes place on Monday next, 27th inst. The fare for the round trip is only $2 and the indications are for a large crowd.

The pulpit of the Second Presbyterian Church will be filled to-morrow by the Rev. Angus McDonald, of Kentucky, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Rev. E. A. Yates, who has been in attendance at the General Conference of the M. E. Church South, at Atlanta, will arrive home to-night and occupy his pulpit to-morrow.

We learn from the Raleigh News that Prof. Kerr will soon make a trip down the Cape Fear river, from Lockville to Wilmington, in a tin boat. The voyage will probably be an exciting one.

By advertisement of L. M. Williams, Esq., it will be seen that the market hours will from June 1st to October 1st be from daylight to 9 1/2 o'clock in the forenoon and on Saturdays from 5 p. m. to 9 1/2 o'clock p. m.

The box sheet for the sale of reserved seats to the Cantata of Esther, for the complimentary benefit tendered Prof. Chase on Monday evening, is now open at Heinsberger's, where seats may be secured without extra charge.

The Rocky Mount Mail says: Father Riley, Pastor of the Roman Catholic church of Wilmington, N. C., lectured in the Court House on Friday night last. He discoursed on the "Holy Eucharist," advocating in clear, strong, conservative terms the Doctrine of Transubstantiation in connection therewith. A large congregation attended the discourse.

A Good Opportunity.
To those of our people who may have business on the line of the W. C. & A. R. R. an excellent opportunity is offered on Monday next, when a coach for the especial accommodation of white persons will be attached to the excursion train of the Good Samaritans which leaves here at 9 1/2 o'clock a. m. on Monday and returns on Wednesday evening. The fare is very low, only $2.

The Cross of St. John's.
The Cadets of the Cape Fear Military Academy will on Wednesday evening next present the Cross of St. John's and the Limerick Boy at the Opera House, the object being to procure funds to pay for their proposed excursion to Fayetteville. The box sheet will be open at Heinsberger's on Monday when reserved seats may be secured.

Mothers, Mothers, Mothers.
Don't fail to procure Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

Orange Cake.
Two cups of sugar, two cups of flour half cup of water, the yolks of five eggs, the juice and rind of two oranges, two teaspoonfuls DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, and a little salt. Bake as a jelly cake, and put the whites of three eggs, the juice and rind of one orange, and sugar to make the icing stiff.

The Grand Central Hotel, New York, possesses all the requirements, in size, style, location and appointments of the modern first-class hotel, and keeps its reputation as a model house.

Organization of the Memorial Association of the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Third North Carolina Infantry.

The surviving non-commissioned officers and privates of the Third N. C. Infantry met at the City Courtroom last night for the purpose of organizing themselves into an association to be known as the Memorial Association of the Third N. C. Infantry.

Upon motion of J. M. King, Col. Wm. L. DeRosset was requested to take the Chair. Col. DeRosset, upon assuming the Chair, thanked the meeting for the honor conferred and stated that the movement about to be inaugurated was one that he had long desired to see, and it was a movement that he felt the deepest interest in. But inasmuch as this was intended to be an organization of the non-commissioned officers and privates, he thought it more fitting that one of their own number should be called upon to preside, but assured them most earnestly of his entire sympathy and promised them his hearty cooperation.

Col. DeRosset was then excused. Serg't Alex. Wiggs was elected permanent President and Sergeant F. V. B. Yopp, Vice President and Corporal Jno. D. Pugh, Secretary. Committees were appointed to dra a Constitution and By-Laws for the Society, and also to notify members not then present, of the organization, and urge their attendance at the next meeting.

Capt. A. L. DeRosset being called upon, delivered himself of a very happy little impromptu speech. He told the meeting that this organization was an absolute necessity to preserve the truth of history, that the children of the members of the Regiment studied in the schools, histories that were written in Yankee-land, by prejudiced Yankee writers; that from such books, our children would never learn of the untold hardships endured by their fathers during those four long, weary years of war. Capt. DeRosset was heartily applauded at the conclusion of his speech, and then Rev. Dr. Patterson, Chaplain of the Regiment, was called upon and replied by telling the members in a few very appropriate remarks that he was glad to see the organization begun, promised them his hearty co-operation in the good work, and felt sure that he could say the same for all the other officers of the Regiment. Col. Cantwell and Adj't. James, being called upon, said in substance that they could add nothing to what had been said and so well said, except to add their endorsement to all that had been said and done.

On motion of J. M. King, a vote of thanks was tendered to Capt. H. C. Brock for the use of the City Court Room.

On motion of J. H. Marshall, the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the President.

Carolina Yacht Club.
At the meeting of the Carolina Yacht Club, held last evening, Capt. I. B. Grainger was unanimously elected Commodore of the Club to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Wright, and Mr. George D. Parsley was elected to the vacancy thus made in the Governing Board.

The matter of a cruise this summer by the entire squadron was proposed, discussed and adopted and the Commodore of the Club was requested to go order it.

Several additions were made to the membership at this meeting.

City Court.
Alice Kelly, one of the soiled doves from the refined precincts of Paddy's Hollow, fluttered away from the Hollow last night and flew as high as Front street when her further progress was arrested by officer Williams who stopped her in her flight, owing to her very sad plight, she being very much overcome with John Barleycorn and quite ready to boot. The poor unfortunate was carried to the guard house and this morning Mayor Fishblade said she must pay $5 fine or stay five days in the City Prison.

This being all the business before this august tribunal, His Honor stepped down and out for the day.

The barque Lydia Peschau was lying on the west side of the river to-day in full holiday trim, with colors all flying when Mr. C. M. VanOrsdell according to previous arrangement came down to the waters edge and took her picture.

Thanks to Major Burgess, Principal, for an invitation to the Commencement Exercises of Cape Fear Military Academy, to take place at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, June 18th, at 8 o'clock.

To-morrow is known in the Church Calendar as the Fifth Sunday after Easter.

Battalion Parade.
The Fifth Battalion, (col.) N. C. S. G., will parade on Thursday next for inspection and review, under command of Geo. L. Mabson, Lieutenant-Colonel. Two companies from Fayetteville and one from Charlotte are expected to be in line with the Wilmington companies on that day.

Custom House Appointment.
Mr. James Heaton has received an appointment in the Custom House of this city to take effect the first proximo. The appointment came from Washington City, where he has been for several days. He disclaims any offer or acceptance of bribe money offered to him to withdraw from the political candidacy of the present day.

The Alarm of Fire.
Shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon a small frame house on, Fourth between Orange and Dock streets, nearly opposite the residence of Mr. Geo. R. French, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was immediately sounded, but the fire was extinguished by persons in the neighborhood before the engines could reach the spot.

The fire originated between the ceiling and the weatherboarding on the north side of the house. The only theory advanced as to the probable cause of the origin of the fire that we have heard is that rats must have carried matches in between the ceiling and in some way ignited them. This would seem strange, too, inasmuch as the building is unoccupied. There was no material damage done the property. The building belongs to Mr. Edward Kidder.

Excursion and Return of Thank's.
The ladies of the Dorcas Society of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church desire to return their sincere thanks to Capt. Paddison, of the steamer North East, for his gentlemanly attention on the excursion yesterday, also to Mr. E. Hamme, the owner of the plantation, and to Mr. Stevenson, the occupant, for their permission to use the house and grounds, and to Col. C. L. Grafflin, for his kind exertions in their behalf. The excursion was a decided success in every respect.

The grown folks, as well as the children, enjoyed rambling about in the shady grove which surrounds the house, or in partaking of the "good things of life," provided by experienced caterers. But, what is better still—quite a handsome sum was realized, the full amount of which is not yet definitely known.

The Radical Convention.
The show at the Court House to-day has been in full bloom ever since 10 o'clock and as yet there has been not only no organization, but the claims of the various delegations have not as yet been disposed of. Specifying seems to have been the order of the day and thus business is retarded. About sunset, it is thought, the Convention will be organized and some hours later the nominations are looked for. There have been some rich scenes thereto-day and money, it is said, has been spent pretty freely by those who have it to spend.
