Blackberries were retailing on Saturday at 2 quarts for five cents.

We have had rain enough this time to saturate things sufficiently.

The long season in May bids fair to outlast the flowery month.

Delegates to the Congressional Convention are requested to meet at Munds' Hall this evening.

The scholars of Misses Burr & James' school will have their regular May picnic at Hilton to-morrow.

MR. TROY WITHDRAWS.
[Special to Daily Review.]

FAYETTEVILLE, May 27, 1878, 2 P. M.

W. C. Troy has withdrawn from Congressional contest in favor of A. M. Waddell. This will give Cumberland, Moore and Harnett solid for Waddell.

This Evening.

Those who attend the complimentary entertainment tendered Prof. Chase, the Cantata of Esther, at the Opera House this evening, will not be disappointed in their expectations of a pleasant affair. In addition to the Cantata there will be a choice selection of vocal and instrumental music.

Strawberries and Cream.

This warm weather is suggestive of strawberries and ice cream and to meet the demand and fill the want, the ladies of Front Street M. E. Church will give a strawberry festival in Rankin Hall to-morrow evening where delicacies cool and sweet, will be served ad libitum and ad pocketum. We bespeak for them a large attendance.

Memorial Festival.

The Children's Memorial Association will give a Festival on Friday evening next in the vacant store in Evans' Block on which occasion there will be lots of good things to eat and pretty girls to look at. The object is to raise funds for the benefit of widows and orphans of Confederate Soldiers.

Duplin Convention.

We have as yet received no regular advices from the Duplin County Democratic Convention held at Kenansville on Saturday, but according to the reports in circulation here to-day Col. Waddell's friends claim the county for him. It is said that resolutions were introduced instructing the delegates to vote for Col. Allen but that they were voted down and the delegates will therefore go into convention to vote as their best judgment may dictate.

The Republican Nominees.

At the Republican County Convention held at the Court House last Saturday the following nominations were arrived at late in the afternoon, and after that day's issue of the REVIEW had gone to press:

Superintendent Kellock.

George Kellock, Superintendent of the Out Door Poor, under the department of Charities and Correction, died of heart disease at his residence, No. 441 Lexington Avenue New York. The Commissioners of Charities and Correction were at their Board meeting when the information of Mr. Kellock's death was received; all business was immediately suspended, and after some introductory remarks by the President that their Board will convey to the family of the deceased an expression of deep sorrow and regret at their loss of a devoted husband and father and this department of a faithful public servant and of the deep sympathy that the Board feels for his bereaved family in this, their hour of affliction. It was also ordered by the Board that the flag of the Central office of the department be placed at half mast until after the funeral and that flags (under his charges, of the institutions) be placed at half mast on the day of the funeral. Mr. Kellock was appointed to the position which he occupied at the time of his death in May, 1846. During the thirty-two years that he was in office he made many friends in both public and social life. There is scarcely a section in the States that has not known a kindness in some form or other from Superintendent Kellock; the wayward have been returned to their home far and near. His nobleness of nature and mammoth heart made him indeed the suitable dispenser of charity and goodness. Many can testify to his considerate attention; the sick, destitute—in fact the applicant was never turned aside that came in the name of Wilmington.

City Court.

There were more than the usual number of cases for the Mayors disposal this morning, there being no less than four prisoners in the Dock all of whom had been forwarded to Mayor Fishplate's court through the potent and mighty influence of that worst of all tyrants—king alcohol.

The first case called was that of John Henegan, colored, who was arrested on Saturday evening for drunkenness and disorderly conduct; and in addition to the foregoing charge was arraigned for resisting the police. It took no less than four men to convey the prisoner to the Guard House.

The sentence of the court was $10 fine or fifteen days in the City Prison.

The next case called was that of H. W. Williams, colored. Officer Green, who made this arrest, swore that on Saturday evening there was quite a crowd of politicians on the corner of Second and Market streets, cursing, and swearing in very loud tones, and behaving quite disorderly—that he notified them to cease their noise and to disperse; that they all left except the defendant, who said, damn the police, whereupon he immediately made the arrest. The Mayor pronounced sentence of $5 fine for the cursing and remarked that he was determined to stop this loud cursing and swearing on the streets; that there was too much of it going on in the city, and he furthermore stated that he was determined that his police should be respected, and would, therefore, add an additional fine of $5 for the defendant's cursing the police.

A white man, who gave his name as John Smith, was fined $5 for being drunk and down on Sunday morning, about 3 o'clock, at the corner of Second and Mulberry streets.

A poor, fallen white woman, who inhabits the most disreputable haunts in the city was the next case on docket, the charge being that she was found lying on the street, at the corner of Second and Mulberry streets, on Sunday morning, about 3 o'clock, drunk. When asked by the Mayor what she had to say, she raised a drooping head, and in a very tremulous manner, said: "Nothing." Her sentence, was $5 fine, or five days in the city prison. This completed the proceedings for the day. The court then adjourned.

Painful Injury.

We are sorry to learn that our young friend Joe Strange, youngest son of the late Col. Robert Strange, and a student at Chapel Hill, received a severe injury recently while playing at the Hill with some other boys, whereby one of his knees was severely hurt. The injury is of such a nature that he cannot walk, and it was found necessary to bring him home, where he now is, and at the house of his uncle, Joshua G. Wright, Esq.

Rev. R. E. Terry, formerly of St. John's, this city, is now Rector of Christ Church, Hudson, New York.

Pender County Convention.

Pursuant to notice the Democratic Convention of Pender met at Burgaw on the 25th of May for the purpose of electing delegates to the Congressional, Judicial and State Conventions. Dr. Satchwell was called to the chair and T H W McIntire requested to act as Secretary.

On motion the chair was requested to appoint a committee of three on permanent organization. The following were appointed on said committee, to-wit: Messrs Thos Williams, Edward Shaw and E A Hawes. They reported through their chairman Dr S S Satchwell for permanent chairman and Thos H W McIntire and Dr Ennett as permanent secretaries. Res. received and adopted.

On motion the chair was requested to appoint one from each township on resolutions. The following compose said committee, to-wit: Messrs T A McLendon, S P Hand, J P Richards, R J Armstrong, G F Walker, R J Nixon, John Moore, J E Rivenbark. Through their chairman they reported the following, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The doctrine of rotation in office, upheld by Jefferson and Madison, and enunciated in 1798 by them and the early fathers of the Democratic party, finds congeniality and endorsement from that day until now in the great Democratic masses, and it is now, as it has always been, a cherished virtue and cardinal principle, not alone of the Democratic party, but of our free institutions and popular form of government—a doctrine and principle that opens up the honors and offices of the land to all and prevents their monopoly by the few; and whereas, it is equally true that the great interests of society and of this Congressional District, State and county at large—the farming interests and the rights and interests of laborers and the industrial classes generally,—demand that these life-sustaining classes should have at this weighty and vital condition of public affairs, in the prevailing poverty, depression and oppression upon the District, State and county, a larger representation in our State Legislature and in our National Congress, we behold in the House of Representatives of our National Congress about two hundred and fifty lawyers and politicians of the entire number, about three hundred, who compose the present House. The time has come when laws should be made by farmers, and when the reins of government should be in the hands of farmers and producers instead of being, as now, in the hands of lawyers and politicians; therefore

Resolved, That the preambles and resolutions, adopted on Saturday last at several Democratic township meetings in Pender, announcing the fundamental Democratic doctrines herein expressed, are doctrines of the people, for the people and with the people, and we are rejoiced to know from information received that they are approved, adopted and endorsed by the masses of the people of this Congressional District, and that the farmers of the District are arousing and coming to their support and practical enforcement; therefore

Resolved, That the favorite of Pender and the acknowledged champion of these rights and interests—Major Charles W. McClammy, the true patriot and honest man, the toiling farmer, the eloquent speaker, the man of the people and for the people and the brave soldier in the late war, is heartily endorsed by this Convention, as in all respects well-qualified and entirely worthy of a seat in Congress from this Congressional District, and that this Convention cordially endorses him and recommends him for nomination by the District Democratic Convention to assemble at Clinton on Friday next to nominate a candidate for Congress.

During the absence of the committee Mr E W Kerr, of Sampson, being loudly called for came forward and addressed the Convention in his usual happy style.

Loud calls for L W McClammy brought this gentleman out, who won new laurels as a public speaker.

On motion it was

Resolved, That our delegates to the Congressional Convention be instructed to vote for Maj C W McClammy as its first choice.

On motion the delegates from each township were requested to retire and select five delegates each to the different conventions. The following compose the lists:

Resolved, That if any delegate fail to attend either of the conventions he can give a written proxy to any of his colleagues.

Resolved, That this Convention endorse W N H Smith for Chief Justice and Allmand A McKoy for Associate Justice as our choice for these positions.

Resolved, That Major C W McClammy be chosen as chairman of the delegation to the State Convention.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this Convention be sent to the Wilmington Democratic papers for publication and the papers of the Congressional District requested to copy.

After a few interchange of views the Convention adjourned with three rousing cheers for Maj. McClammy, after passing the usual complimentary resolutions in favor of the Chairman and Secretaries.

By order of the Convention.
T. H. W. MCINTIRE,
W. T. ENNETT,
Secretaries.

Sudden Death.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Hanstein, wife of Mr. S. Hanstein, of this city, died very suddenly this morning, of heart disease, from which she had been a sufferer for some time past. She arose this morning saying that she felt better than for some time past. Mr. Hanstein went down stairs to get her a cup of coffee before allowing her to exert herself, and she died just as he entered the room on his return. Our respectful sympathies are tendered the afflicted husband and brother.

A Reliable Wine.

Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, whose Port Grape Wine has such a wide reputation, and which Physicians prescribe so generally, was the first in this country to introduce the art of making wine from the Oporto Grape, which is now the best wine to be had, and has become a great favorite among the most fashionable in New-York and Philadelphia.

The Grand Central Hotel, New York, possesses all the requirements, in size, style, location and appointments of the modern first-class hotel, and keeps its reputation as a model house.
