New Advertisements.
MURRAY—Elegant Black Cloth.
M. JEWETT—Look.

Peaches are beginning to turn red.
Make a paste of soft soap and emery for polishing steel.
Use carbolic acid and water to purify sinks, drains, etc.
When the boatswain pipes all hand, who furnishes the tobacco?

The recent heavy rains ought to bring milk down to low water mark.
Dip candle wicks into spirits of turpentine and then dry before using.
Old paint pails and cans may be thoroughly cleaned with strong, hot lye.
When washing cambrics, do not allow soap to come in contact with the fabric.
A spoonful of vinegar should always be put into the water in which fish is boiled.

The rain it rained again last night, and the rain god deluged everything and everybody caught out in it.
Now look out for scrub yacht races on the river, between this and the time for the regular races.
A special train will be run on the C. C. R. W., on the 12th inst. to carry delegates to the State Convention, at Raleigh.

Don't forget the Festival to be given this evening by the ladies of Front Street Methodist Church, in Rankin Hall. They will feast you on the best, and not charge you too much for it, either.
The picnic to have been given to the scholars of Misses Burr & James' school, to Hilton to-day, was postponed on account of the general wetness of the weather, the grass and the ground, until to-morrow.

At a meeting of the delegates from this county to the Congressional Convention, to be held at Clinton on Friday next, the 31st inst., Mr. F. W. Korchner was elected Chairman of the Delegation.
Improvements.
The elegant structure in course of construction on Sunset Hill is about completed. Preparations are being made to tile the roof, and when the house is finished it will be occupied by a celebrated novelist, who is now writing a novel, to be known as Drift-Wood.

Masonic.
The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of North Carolina will meet in Winston on Monday, June 3d. The Winston Chapter have planned an excursion to the Pilot Mountain for the entertainment of the visiting brethren.

Open Air Concert.
There is but little doubt that the retail stores will, from the first of June, be closed at 7 o'clock in the evening, and the music-loving portion of the community are looking forward with much pleasure to the open air concerts of the Cornet Concert Club.

It is Right.
Proprietors and clerks in the retail establishments uptown are discussing the question of closing their places of business at 7 o'clock during the heated term. It is right that some recreation should be given those of this community who are up with the lark and who are cooped up so to speak, for fourteen or fifteen hours a day.

Walking Hats.
New walking hats, for the city or for travelling, are of black chip, with sides turned up slightly all around, and bound with velvet. These have round crowns, and are very handsome when trimmed with satin and gauze together and some feathers. Flowers are never used on such hats. The trimmings around the crown should be very fully pleated, reaching out to the brim, or else the hat will have a scant look. An edging of two rows of silk braid, with a piping of black satin between, is very stylish on the brim of such hats.

Mothers, Mothers, Mothers.
Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for all diseases of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

Harnett for Waddell.
(Daily Review Special.)
RALEIGH, May 28th.—Harnett County Convention has declared for Waddell.

For Columbia.
The Wilmington & Weldon and Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroads will pass delegates to the Congressional Convention to be held at Clinton on Saturday next, for three cents a mile each way, and the Carolina Central Railway for one fair for the round trip.

Rev. Alexander Sprunt.
The pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church was filled last Sunday evening by Rev. Alexander Sprunt, who preached a very fine, interesting and instructive sermon. Mr. Sprunt is a young man of talent and bids fair to take a stand among the leading divines of the South.

A Compromise.
The long unsettled matter of a telegraph tax has been finally adjusted after various conferences between the city and business committees and Mr. L. A. Angel, the manager here. The result which was arrived at yesterday afternoon is that the company will withdraw the additional charge made by them of 25 cents on each message for this city and substitute thereupon 10 cents as collectable on each message delivered here, the special city tax being fixed at $50 per month. A tax of $25 a month and no additional charge on messages was suggested but was not agreed to.

Overboard.
On Sunday night last Patrick Jordan, the insane Irishman who was sent here from Columbus county, and who has been allowed to go at large for some time past, was discovered by the watchman at the depot of the W. C. & A. R. R. leaning against a warehouse. The watchman approached to warn him off when Jordan struck him a powerful blow. The watchman did not know the man, and looking upon this as part of a well-laid scheme of violence and robbery, drew his pistol and leveled it at his assailant. To his surprise Jordan broke into a boisterous laugh and told him to shoot, whereupon the watchman blew for the city police to come up and take him off to the guard house. Officer Woolse appeared in answer to the summons, and then Jordan ran off towards the dock and jumping on a stick of timber, paddled out into the river with his hands for paddles. The officers got a boat and followed him, and finally managed to secure him but not until they had both taken an involuntary bath in the river, the results of their efforts to secure the madman without doing him bodily injuries. Jordan is now held to await some disposition by the proper authorities.

Bad Behavior at the Opera House.
We come now to write about a matter to which we respectfully invite the attention of the proper authorities with the earnest hope and desire that the subject will receive immediate and proper attention.

There is a crowd of half grown boys, and perhaps some of older growth too, who frequent the Opera House whenever there is a performance enacted there, and who by their conduct on such occasions mar the pleasure of the audience frequently in no little degree. Their behavior, to say the least that can be said of it on such occasions, has been very indecorous indeed. But last night it was simply outrageous and unendurable. All kinds of shrill whistles were started from the benches immediately in rear of the parquette which were echoed in the gallery only to be re-echoed back again from the benches where these unearthly noises were originally started from. In addition to this, each boy who was provided with a great big club called a stick, hammered away on the seat in front until ladies who occupied that row of seats in the parquette felt that they would almost be compelled to leave the place; their whole frame was jarred and made to ache by these rude demonstrations mislabeled applause. Yet not a policeman moved to make an arrest or to cause quiet to be restored. Such conduct might very well suit the Bowery, in New York, and we very seriously doubt whether such behavior would be allowed even there, but it certainly is not fitting for a refined and chaste entertainment like the one last night, where the audience is composed of ladies and gentlemen.

Very fine pig-fish sold in the market yesterday afternoon at 10 cents a bunch.

The Beautiful Queen.—Esther.
The Cantata of Esther, the beautiful Queen, was again repeated at the Opera House last night—this time for the benefit of Professor Chase, and was greeted with a tolerable fair audience as regards numbers, but surpassing fair as regards their appreciation of the excellent music and fine acting of those who took part in the Cantata.

Several quartettes and duets were rendered before the play of Esther commenced. The first of these, a quartette, "Oh, how I love my Mountain Home," was sung in excellent style by the Misses Thompson and Messrs. C. H. Robinson and W. H. Northrop.

Miss Sallie M. Thompson, by special request sang the Scotch ballad "Comin' thro' the Rye" in such exquisite style and with so charming a manner that she was applauded again and again.

Professor A. Paul delighted the audience with a well performed piece on the violinello entitled "A Prayer from Stradella."

The duet "Friendship" by the Misses Thompson, soprano and contralto voices, was sweet enough to have been repeated and to have received the hearty encore that it did.

The entire performance passed off with much eclat and reflects great credit upon Professor Chase and the talented ladies and gentlemen who assisted him.

FOR THE REVIEW.
National Memorial Service, May the 30th, 1878.

Decoration Day is a holy day which honors every class of our citizens. Each had its heroes. All rejoiced in the victory, and can mingle in the tribute of sympathy and sorrow which on each recurring year we pay to the departed valor of those who died that the nation might live.

"There's a burden of grief on the breezes of spring,
And a song of regret from the bird on its wing;
There's a pall on the sunshine and over the flowers,
And a shadow of graves on these spirits of ours."

ALL the BLUE and the GREY, are respectfully invited to assemble at the National Cemetery at 4 o'clock p. m., on the 30th inst., to participate in, or witness, the ceremony attending the decoration of the graves of the nation's dead.

The military, under command of Lt. Col. G. L. Mabson, and all organizations, will assemble at their usual place of meeting at 3 o'clock, and march to the cemetery by such route and manner as they may choose.

The Excelsior Rose Bud and Cape Fear Bands will discourse appropriate music en route to the cemetery.

EXERCISES AT THE CEMETERY

2. By the Choir—"Rest, Soldier, Rest."

The Superintendent of the cemetery requests that no carriages will enter the enclosure.

Respectfully,
E. H. McQuigg,
Secretary of Committee.

Don't Know.
We have been asked frequently of late if any special prizes were to be offered by the merchants of the city for the yacht races which are to take place at an early date on the river? We are unable to answer but think it more than likely that some inducements will be held out by somebody.

Not Coming.
The two colored companies of the N. C. S. G., of Fayetteville, which were expected to arrive here on Wednesday night to participate in the decoration of the graves of the Federal dead on the 30th, have notified the colored companies of this city that it will be impossible for them to be in attendance, on account of some hitch in the transportation.

Excursion.
The Sunday School children of St. Thomas' Catholic Church indulged in an excursion and picnic at Maultsby's Point to-day. The steamer North East carried them to the Point and as there has been pleasant sunny weather since morning, we have no doubt that the enjoyment of the day was universal. The excursion was given to the School by Mr. F. W. Korchner.

Rowing Race.
There is to be a rowing match next Tuesday evening between the row boats White Swan and Little Katie. The start will be made at 6 o'clock from Market Dock, the route to extend to Kidder's mill and back; there will be four oarsmen to each boat.

Bets of cigars were freely offered and taken on the wharf this afternoon as to which would be the winning boat. Both boats with their full crews will be out for practice on the river this afternoon.

The Merchants' Excursion to Wilmington, Smithville, &c.

In accordance with an invitation from the authorities of the Carolina Central Railroad, the merchants and other patrons of this road in Charlotte, met at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, last night, to fix the time for an excursion to Wilmington, Waccamaw Lake and Smithville, tendered them by the officers of the Carolina Central. The meeting was large. After some discussion, Wednesday, the 29th of May, was agreed upon as the time. A resolution was adopted thanking Capt. V. Q. Johnson, Capt. T. T. Smith and other officials of the road for the kind tender of the excursion. It promises to be a large and exceedingly pleasant one. An invitation will be extended to the merchants along the line of the Carolina Central and Western North Carolina Railroads.—Charlotte Observer.

Caught in the Act.

For sometime past Capt. Owen Fennell, a commission merchant on the wharf, has been missing cotton from his warehouse at the corner of Mulberry and North Water streets, and in one or two instances has been very nearly upon the thief being so close on one occasion as to make him drop his bag. But yesterday afternoon about half past five o'clock, he was a little nearer than that, and pounced right in upon the thief while he was filling his bag, the rascal already having filled a cask or barrel after ripping open the ends of two bales to supply his cask and bag from. Capt. Fennell immediately seized hold of the "gemmem" and turned him over to a policeman who carried him to the guard house and locked him up.

This morning the case came up before the Mayor and he bound the defendant over to the next term of Criminal Court requiring a justified bond of $50 for his appearance at that term, in default of which the prisoner was delivered into the custody of the Sheriff. The defendant is a colored man and gave his name as James Williamson.

The only case for trial before the City Court this morning was that of the colored man James Williamson charged with larceny, an account of which is elsewhere published in this issue.

Sampson and Samson.
CLINTON, May 24, 1878.

EDITOR REVIEW:
Sampson county, in convention assembled here to-day, voted by an overwhelming majority that the Third Congressional District has another Samson by whose might the Republican Philistines in the district may be slain in the coming campaign and his name spelled in full is Alfred Moore Waddell. In other words Sampson county will go into Convention on the 31st Waddell all over. How strong ish dot for Samson?

Captain H. C. Brock, Chief of Police—Honor to Whom Honor is Due
To Editor of the Daily Review.

In company with one of our leading merchants yesterday, I took a drive over the city, and could but be struck with great improvement in numberless streets and side walks, which have been made by the above named gentleman since he has been office. Upon enquiry I was told that all of this work has been done with only four carts, while under the former Marshal, there were fifteen carts. Look at this work for yourselves, and see if he is not the right man in the right place. In addition to all this he has made the only decent road to the "city of the dead," which is and will be a lasting monument to his name, and he daily receives the praise due to him from the thousands who visit that lovely spot. Why should he not be most highly commended in his efforts to make the place look more like a city than any officer who has ever had the streets in charge? All praise then to him. The improvements he has made have done more to enhance the value of property than any Marshal can boast of since the war. That's the way to spend the people's money to their entire satisfaction.

Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, whose Port Grape Wine has such a wide reputation, and which Physicians prescribe so generally, was the first in this country to introduce the art of making wine from the Oporto Grape, which is now the best wine to be had, and has become a great favorite among the most fashionable in New York and Philadelphia.
