THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. 3. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 29, 1878. NO. 102

PLEASE NOTICE.
 We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects general interest but:
 The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
 Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.
 Personalities must be avoided.
 And it is especially and particularly understood that the editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.

Help the little ladies of the Children's Memorial Association in the festival they are to give on Friday night for the benefit of the widows and orphans of our dead Confederate soldiers. Give them something to start with and then go to the festival and patronize their entertainment.

When you see a young fellow who a year ago used to step up and order lager for the crowd with the utmost sang froid, patiently trundling a baby carriage along the street on Sunday afternoon, and looking chagrinful in his last season's hat, don't it speak volumes for the reforming influence of woman's society?

For the Hill.
 The railroads through the State offer special accommodations to students who will enter the University Normal School this session. One fare for the round trip will be the highest price charged. The Western North Carolina Railroad will pass all students free of charge.

A Snake in a House.
 About 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon, as the lady of a residence near the Eastern extremity of Mulberry street entered her kitchen she found very quietly coiled up in a chair at the head of the table a chicken snake about two feet long which was promptly despatched as soon as a good stick could be found.

Down the River.
 Provided there is no more disagreeable weather in store for this week the excusion to be given under the management of Capt. Jas. W. Lippitt on the steamer Underhill to Smithville will take place Friday (day after to-morrow) on which occasion an excellent opportunity is offered our citizens to take themselves, their wives and their babies down to the coast for a mouthful of salt air.

Delicious Cookery.
 Light, white, wholesome biscuits, rolls, bread, and elegant cake, crullers, waffles,

 Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for all diseases of teething children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother.

This Evening.

The feature for this evening is the dramatic entertainment to be given at the Opera House by the Cadets of the Cape Fear Military Academy, on which occasion the Cross of St. John's will be produced, with The Limerick Boy as an after-piece, the object being to raise funds wherewith to assist in defraying the expenses of the excursion trip to be made to Fayetteville by the Cadets on Friday.
 We bespeak a full house for the boys on this occasion and as the weather is fine now such will doubtless be the case.

Simple Way of Cleaning Kid Gloves.
 We give the following, but do not vouch for it:

Have ready a little new milk in one saucer, a piece of soap in another, and a clean cloth folded two or three times. On the cloth spread out the glove smooth and neat.
 Take a piece of flannel, dip it in the milk, then rub off a good quantity of the soap on the wetted flannel and commence to rub the glove toward the fingers, holding it firmly with the left hand. Continue this process until the glove, if white, looks of a dingy yellow, though clean; if colored, till it looks dry and spoiled. Lay it to dry, and the operator will soon be gratified to see that the old glove looks nearly new.
 It will be soft, glossy, smooth and elastic.

The "Palinurus."
 The beautiful little specimen of marine architecture, which many of our citizens have no doubt observed at anchor in the river, for the last few days, is the U. S. schooner Palinurus, Lieut. Fred'k. C.
 Collins, U. S. N., commanding. His officers are Messrs. Winslow and Barrole, U.
 S. N.

Lieut. Winslow is a native Carolinian and is known to many of our citizens, besides being connected largely both here and in Fayetteville.

Lieut. Collins has been assigned to the duty of collecting data for a new Coast Pilot, and in pursuance of the duty, he is examining the whole coast, locating accurately all buoys, lights, etc., and sketching the appearance of the coast near all harbors, or entrances to harbors, from various points of approach, so that mariners may be enabled to recognize the places, although never having seen them previously.

Lieut. Collins, and we believe his officers, were engaged in the survey for the canal on the Isthmus, and although a young man, is admirably qualified by ability and experience for the important and difficult duty which has been intrusted to him.

Remarkable Escape.
 Our correspondent at Clarkton sends an account of a narrow escape from a dreadful death at that place. On Monday Johnson McNeill, a young lad of color, not quite as bright as some of the new silver coins, while engaged at work in the steam saw mill of Messrs. Wilkerson & Fore, was caught by his clothing in some of the belts with which he came in contact and in a second's time was executing a wonderful war dance in the air and turning out revolutions a little faster than Mr.
 Eugene Hale charges that the Potter revolution will make them. As soon as possible the machinery was stopped and Mc-Neill was rescued from his dangerous position, when it was found that, wonderful to relate, although there wasn't a scratch or a bruise on him, neither was there a stitch of clothes—but he was awfully tired.
 It was a truly wonderful escape.

The Land Sale at Burgaw.
 Don't forget the sale of valuable building lots to take place at Burgaw next Monday, the 3rd of June. There will doubtless be a fine crowd in attendance. The Wilmington & Weldon Railroad will pass those who go over it to the sale for one fare for the round trip, according to the advertisement to be found in this paper.
 Read the advertisement of the Board of Commissioners of Pender county and attend the sale. Burgaw is improving finely and is upon a hopeful and substantial foundation. Those who may invest now in these building lots may find the investment to be wise and judicious. Wilming-tonians and others who may be disposed to purchase real estate there for business purposes or as a means to securing a healthy resort in the summer and sickly season, will never find a more inviting time than now to attend the sale and purchase lots. More and more too it is evident to every thinking man and who knows anything of the facts, that there are good prospects for a railroad in a year or two from Burgaw to some favorite point in Onslow. This will of course enhance the value of lots there and of land in the neighborhood, conducing to make this a favorable time to purchase them.

But one trifling case before the City Court this morning which was dismissed on payment of costs.

 following officers were elected for the ensuing term, viz:

1st Lieutenant—John H. Daniel, 2nd Lieutenant—W. S. Hardwicke, Junior 2nd Lieutenant—L. S. F.
 Brown.

The Railroad Meeting at Jacksonville.
 By common agreement the leading friends in Pender and Onslow of the proposed railroad from Burgaw down into Onslow, have postponed the meeting that was appointed to be held on the 3rd of June until the 1st Monday in July at Jacksonville. The land sale to take place at Burgaw on the 3rd of June, with much county business to be transacted at Jacksonville on the same day, have, with other means favorable to the proposed road, induced this postponement.

The Foam.
 The yacht Foam, owned and commanded by Capt. I. B. Grainger, arrived here to-day at 1 o'clock from Masonboro Sound, via New Inlet, which point she left yesterday, her crew consisting only of Capt.
 Grainger, Mr. John Flowers as pilot and a colored man.

The winds being contrary Capt. Grainger only made New Inlet at dark, and not deeming it prudent to risk a passage of the Inlet after dark, the yacht was compelled to beat about the coast all night and did not enter the river until this morning.

The Charlotte Excursion.
 The Observer has this to say of the excursion of the merchants in Charlotte to our "City by the Sea," and the adjacent coast, tendered them by the authorities of the Carolina Central Railway:

It was thought at one time yesterday, and so reported on the streets, that it would be necessary to postpone the excusion of merchants and other citizens of Charlotte to Wilmington, owing to a meeting of the congressional convention at Clinton, which the Wilmington people wished to attend, but it was subsequently decided to adhere to the original plan of leaving Charlotte Wednesday evening.

Accordingly the party will leave the Lincoln depot to-morrow evening at 7:30 and arrive in Wilmington Thursday morning.
 The programme promises pleasure untold.
 After breakfasting at Smithville, they will start out on a steamer to Smithville, and during the day will also visit Forts Caswell and Fisher. The night will be spent in Wilmington, and the next day they will go on an excursion down the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad to Waccamaw lake, where the day will be spent in fishing and boating on this beautiful body of water. Again the party will return to Wilmington to spend the night, and on Saturday morning will go down for a day on Wrightsville Sound, where they will again have the opportunity of fishing and sailing to their hearts' content. They will leave Wilmington Saturday evening and arrive in Charlotte Sunday morning at 7:30.

What more could an up-country man ask than this programme affords? Three days of fishing, sailing and fun of all sorts, and two nights with the famously hospitable people of Wilmington! Every Charlotte merchant will go who can possibly leave his business. The officers of the Carolina Central are anxious that every business house should be represented; the arrangements are all complete and a jolly time is ahead for all who go.

EDITORIAL REVIEW.
 Please inquire through the columns of the Review if the "City Fathers" are afraid that their "Pats in Gray" will get their clothes soiled, that they are instructed not to notice a whistle. And if they are instructed never to be where they are wanted as was the case this noon.

FOR THE REVIEW.

National Memorial Service, May the 30th, 1878.
 Decoration Day is a holy day which enlists every class of our citizens. Each had its heroes. All rejoiced in the victory, and can mingle in the tribute of sympathy and sorrow which on each recurring year we pay to the departed valor of those who died that the nation might live.

"There's a burden of grief on the breezes of spring,
 And a song of regret from the bird on its wing;
 There's a pall on the sunshine and over the flowers,
 And a shadow of graves on these spirits of ours."

ALL, the BLUE and the GREY, are respectfully invited to assemble at the National Cemetery at 4 o'clock p. m., on the 30th inst., to participate in, or witness, the ceremony attending the decoration of the graves of the nation's dead.

The military, under command of Lt.
 Col. G. L. Mabson, and all organizations will assemble at their usual place of meeting at 3 o'clock, and march to the cemetery by such route and manner as they may choose.

The Excelsior Rose Band and Cape Fear Bands will discourse appropriate music en route to the cemetery.

EXERCISES AT THE CEMETERY

1. Dirge—Excelsior Rose Bud Band.
 2. By the Choir—"Rest, Soldier, Rest."
 3. Prayer—W. A. Green, Chaplain 5th Battalion.

4. By the Choir—"Honor to the Brave."
 5. Oration—Geo. Z. French, Esq.
 6. Dirge—Excelsior Rose Bud Band.
 7. By the Choir—"Cover them over with beautiful flowers."
 8. Dology—By the people.
 9. Benediction.

10. Decoration of graves.
 11. Firing a salute by the military.

The ground will be in charge of the Marshals who will assign each organization to proper position, and preserve order.
 The Superintendent of the cemetery requests that no carriages will enter the enclosure.

Respectfully,
 E. H. McQueen,
 Secretary of Committee.

A bad marriage is like an electric machine—it makes you dance, but you can't let go.

"Yes," said a man as he bent his elbow to raise the twentieth glass of beer, "it is overwork that kills."

The barrel factories are doing a staving business, and their proprietors feel like standing on their heads and whooping in chimes.
