The Charlotte Excursionists.

The excursionists from Charlotte who steamed down the river yesterday on the steam yacht Passport, not content with hearing old ocean roar, wanted to see the mighty waves of the sea and ride upon the bosom of the broad Atlantic. So Captain Harper of the Passport changed the course of his little steamer after he had reached Smithville and Judge Eure will preside at Sampsom headed for the Bar. The steamer glided Court, which convenes at Clinton next along past Forts Caswell and Campbell and was soon out on the "deep blue sea.'

The weather was calm, however, and the swell of the ocean very gentle, consequently our visiting friends were none of them sick, but returned with the reputation of being perfect "sea dogs." sale this morning the first peaches of the short stay was made at Smithville on the season. They were brought from South return from the trip outside, and then the steamer headed for the city, reaching here about 6 o'clock in the evening. To-day the majority of the excurtionists have the church contribution box stares him in taken a trip to Waccamaw Lake, thirtyfour miles from here on the W. C. & A. R. R. Some of the party however, went down the river again to-day. To-morrow is the day set apart for an excursion to the Sound, where the whole party will eat to their fill of roasted cysters.

Among the visitors are Col. C. W Alexander, of the N. C. State Guard, and Mr. Joseph P. Caldwell assistant editor of the Charlotte Observer. Mr. Caldwell is known to the newspaper men throughout the State as one who wields a most graceful but vigorous pen. We are glad to learn that the visitors are all enjoying themselves hugely and we trust that they may continue to do so as long as they are with us.
