MUNSON—Umbrellas. J. FRANCIS KING—Milk Cow For Sale. T. H. HOWAY—To the Public. S. JAWAY—Look. More rain last night and blankets this morning.

We understand that the Wilmington Light Infantry have it in contemplation to give their deferred annual excursion to Smithville, accompanied with shooting, on the 20th inst.

To lend a man a "quarter" probably requires considerable coolness and self-control. To be slow and ceremonious about it implies distrust; to slap down the coin with a "bang" indicates irritation, while to search all your pockets in succession conveys the impression that you will be left penniless by the transaction. A smiling, quiet promptness marks the gentleman in this crisis.

"Wet" and "Dry." On yesterday an election was held at Tilden shoe heel, on the "wet and dry" subject. Tilden has been dry for some time and concluded to try the other thing and voted for "no prohibition" by a vote of three to one against the temperance organization.

Weather Report.

The indications of the weather, as received at the Signal Office in this city at 10 o'clock this forenoon, are as follows: In the South Atlantic States lower pressure, stationary to rising temperature, Northeast to Southeast winds, cloudy or partly cloudy weather and frequent rains will prevail.

Another Military Company.

We are pleased to record the fact that another military company has been formed in this city. The movement has been on foot for some time past and the organization was fully effected last night. It has been named the Lamb Light Infantry, in compliment to Col. Wm. Lamb, of Norfolk, the gallant defender of Fort Fisher, and now numbers fifty men, rank and file. The following officers were elected last evening:

Captain—R. S. Radcliffe. First Lieutenant—J. W. Hewett. Second Lieutenant—Jno. T. Pate. Junior Second Lieutenant—C. P. Rasberry.

Ensign—E. J. Lockamy. Surgeon—Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy. At the same meeting a committee was appointed to procure uniforms, with instructions to order the same without delay, and an application has already gone forward to Raleigh for suitable arms and equipments.

The uniform will consist of gray coats, single-breasted and spike tail, with black cloth cuffs and collars, otherwise plain, and adorned with North Carolina buttons; gray pants, with black stripes one inch wide; plain slouch black hats, looped up at the side with North Carolina buttons; the officers to wear double-breasted frock coats; the epaulettes for privates to be black, with white fringe.

Brig.-General Taylor was present at the meeting last night and by request assisted in the deliberations. He informed us today that the new company is composed of splendid material, and that the selection of officers was a most happy one and he believes that when fully armed and equipped and drilled it will be one of the finest companies in the State.

Wine at Evening Parties.

No matter what may be said about the use of wines and liquors, it is the adulteration and trash mixtures that does the mischief. Where pure wines are used we hear no complaint of inebriation. We never hear of intoxication from the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine, of New Jersey. This wine is held in high estimation by the best doctors in the country, and was awarded the highest premium at the late Centennial.

Patrons of a first-class hotel justly consider themselves entitled to comfortable rooms, a bountiful bill of fare, and courteous treatment in the office. All these, combined with a notable degree of elegance throughout, are to be found at the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa.

Temperance.

(Special to Daily Review.)

RALEIGH, N. C. June 7, 1878.

Jonah Boughton, the great temperance advocate, is speaking here to crowded houses. Hundreds are signing the pledge. He will speak in the Wilmington Opera House Sunday afternoon, June 9th, at four o'clock. He will tell the story of his life nearly blasted by rum. Admission free.

A Correction.

In a recent issue of the REVIEW we gave circulation to a report here to the effect that the music master at St. Mary's, in Raleigh, had left suddenly and without leave. This, we are glad to learn, was an error and we hasten to give it a full and ample correction. Rev. Bennett Smedes, A. M., Principal of St. Mary's, has himself telegraphed us a correction which we take pleasure in making public. He says: "The article in the REVIEW of yesterday headed 'Non Est' is an entire mistake. Our professor was called away by the severest domestic affliction. He went with my full consent and approval. He is expected to return any day and we only wanted some one temporarily in his absence."

Marriage of Mr. Platt D. Walker and Miss Nettie S. Covington.

Yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock, our esteemed friend and fellow-townsmen, Platt D. Walker, Esq., was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Settle Covington, of Richmond county, N. C., the ceremony being performed in Reidsville, at the residence of Mr. Hugh K. Reid, an uncle of the bride, in the presence of a few friends of the contracting parties. Rev. W. S. Bynum, pastor of St. Barnabas church, Greensboro, officiated, and the bride was given away by Col. David Settle, of Lockingham. There was no attendance. On the night before the marriage a large and elegant reception was given at the residence of Mr. Reid.

The news of the marriage of Miss Covington and Mr. Walker will be received with pleasure throughout the State, and especially in Charlotte, where both have a host of friends. Miss Covington has long been known as one of the most beautiful, amiable and attractive young ladies in the State, and in almost every part of it to be found those who have bowed in acknowledgement of her charms. She will be welcomed to the society of Charlotte, where the couple will reside, and will be one of its brightest ornaments. Mr. Walker is one of the brightest and most promising young lawyers in the State, and is alike known for his culture and refinement.

The young couple will make an extended tour through the North, will spend a week in Wilmington, the former home of Mr. Walker, and then return to this city—Charlotte Observer.

City Court.

The case of Wm. Brown, a small colored boy arrested yesterday evening for robbing the money drawer in Mr. J. D. McEachern's store, corner of Eighth and Castle, was the first case on docket this morning. The witnesses were Mr. James McEachern, father to the proprietor of the store, and James Brown, colored, brother to the defendant. The evidence, though all circumstantial, was pretty strong, and the Mayor bound the prisoner over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $25; subsequently, however, the prosecution was withdrawn and it was agreed that the boy should be kept in confinement until this evening when his mother promised to take him in hand and give him a good dressing, by a vigorous application of hickory. The defendant is under the legal age for prosecution.

A young white woman was brought to the bar of the Court to answer to the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The defendant offered no rebutting testimony to the evidence of the policeman who made the arrest. This being the second appearance of the defendant before the Mayor on the same charge within ten days, His Honor imposed a fine of $10 or ten days imprisonment.

James Bryant, colored, was the third and last case called for trial, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The Mayor first said $5 fine or five days in the City Prison, but after further investigation, new testimony being offered to prove his bad character, the first sentence was revoked and a fine of ten dollars or ten days imprisonment imposed. The prisoners were all locked up and the Mayor walked out and that closed the morning levee.

The Judicial Convention—Capt. Swift Galloway the Nominee, Cheers for Galloway and Victory.

The delegates to the Judicial Convention of the Third district assembled at Goldsboro on yesterday for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Solicitor of the district, composed of the counties of Nash, Wilson, Wayne, Pitt, Greene, Lenoir, Jones, Carter, Onslow, Duplin, Sampson, New Hanover and Pender. At 1 1/2 o'clock the convention was called to order in the Court House, by Mr. F. Granger, of Wayne, who in a neat address nominated Col. B. Askew, of Jones, as temporary chairman. Upon a permanent organization Mr. H. F. Granger was elected permanent Chairman, and, by the way, he made one of the best presiding officers we ever saw.

The two thirds rule was adopted as to the government of election of candidates. Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar, Chairman of the New Hanover delegation, nominated Mr. J. D. Stanford, of Duplin; Mr. Jno. D. Kerr, of Wayne, was nominated by Dr. W. T. Ennett, of Pender, and Dr. C. J. O'Hagan nominated Mr. H. F. Murray, of Wilson. The strength of the convention was pretty equally divided between the candidates above mentioned, neither having a sufficient number of votes (133 1/2) necessary for a choice. The friends of each candidate calmly but with unheated (in the annals of this State) tenacity stood by their favorites through thick and thin, none seeming disposed to give way to the other, hence a great many ballots were cast without an election.

On the first and second ballots Greene county cast her vote for Capt. Swift Galloway who manfully stepped forward and requested his friends not to vote for him but to vote for any measure or candidate that would reflect credit upon the party. The ballot was then proceeded with, the vote being very nearly divided between Messrs Stanford, Kerr and Murray, and again Capt. Galloway received a very complimentary vote and again declined to allow his name to be placed before the Convention as he had not canvassed for the nomination and because he thought a choice could be made from the gentlemen who divided the strength of the Convention.

The balloting progressed for two or three hours for the favorite candidates, when Mr. J. D. Stanford arose and withdrew his name in a few wise, conciliatory and patriotic remarks. Notwithstanding Mr. Stanford's request his friends would not drop him and the "dead-lock" remained intact until Capt. Galloway was induced to allow his name to be presented to the convention for its suffrages, and Mr. J. R. Patterson, of Pender, then nominated Capt. Galloway, who received the unanimous vote of the convention, on the first ballot, after he was nominated by Mr. Patterson.

Capt. Galloway was called for and in response to the call, he stepped forward and accepted the nomination in a few manly remarks, promising to do his utmost before the election and to conscientiously discharge the duties of his office, if elected—of which fact, by the way, there is no doubt. When, however, Capt. Galloway had consented to allow his name to go before the convention, at the request of Mr. J. D. Kerr his friends withdrew his name and cast their votes for the Solicitor-elect. The Convention adjourned amid shouts for Galloway and victory.

The Cadets at Fayetteville.

We find in the Fayetteville Gazette the following account of the visit of the Cape Fear Cadets to that ancient town, which requires no apology for its reproduction here:

The detachment of cadets of the Cape Fear Military Academy at Wilmington arrived here on the steamer North last Friday morning, and remained until yesterday morning, when they left for home on the same steamer. The boys seemed to enjoy their trip very much, and showed by their good behavior and gentlemanly deportment that Major Burgess is a strict disciplinarian. On Saturday afternoon they were out on parade, and went through with the skirmish drill and other difficult manoeuvres like clock work, their great proficiency in marching, deploying into line, and going through with the manual of arms being still another evidence that Major Burgess strives to improve the minds of his pupils and by carrying out thoroughly what he professes to teach. The uniform of the cadets is grey, with a fatigue suit of dark blue.

On Monday afternoon our two Fayetteville companies, with the LaFayette Cornet Band, turned out and escorted the cadets over to Rowan street, Major Burgess taking charge of the battalion. After stacking arms the command was given to break ranks, ostensibly for the purpose of a little rest, but it turned out afterwards that Jim McNeill was fixing up some "cool and refreshing" beverage, which was handed around to the thirsty soldier "boys." [Their parents need not feel any alarm, however, as it was lemonade "straight."] On arriving at the barracks of the cadets, they proposed three cheers for Fayetteville and the Fayetteville soldiers. The Independent Company then called on Major Burgess, who made a very neat little speech, in which thanks were extended to the citizens of Fayetteville for the very hospitable manner in which they had treated the Wilmington boys.

On Monday night the Cadets played "The Cross of St. John's" and "Paddy Miles" to a very good house. Their acting showed considerable study as well as dramatic talent, and all the parts were well sustained. We heard many complimentary speeches made by our citizens regarding the creditable manner in which the Cadets went through with their military exercises. Maj. Burgess expressed himself as well pleased with his visit to Fayetteville, and informed us that he had received several accessions to the fall session of his school from among our town boys.

The flag over Messrs. Lemmerman & Coney's office, on South Water street, yesterday was hoisted at half-mast out of respect to the memory of Capt. T. F. Peck.

The colors of the steam-tug Wm. Noyce were displayed at half-mast also.
