United States of America,
District Court of the United States for the Cape Fear District, in the Eastern District of North Carolina.

R. E. Heide, Libellant, against Schr John Schutte, her tackler, apparel and furniture.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that in obedience to a motion to me addressed under seal of the District Court of the United States, for the District of Cape Fear, North Carolina, dated 10th June, 1878, I have this day attached and seized the Schr. John Schutte, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and do detain and hold the said Court to be held at Elizabeth City, in said District, on the 29th day of June, A. D. 1878, then and there to interpose a claim for the same and make their allegations in that behalf, showing cause, if any, to the contrary.

Per J. N. VAN SOELEN, Deputy.

United States of America,
District Court of the United States
for the Cape Fear District, in the Eastern District of North Carolina.

Alexander S. Heide and Majors of Schr John Schutte against Schooner John Schutte, her tackle, apparel and furniture.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Notice is hereby given that in obedience to a motion to me, addressed under seal of the District Court of the United States, for the District of Cape Fear, North Carolina, dated 10th of June, 1878, I have this day attached and seized the Schr. John Schutte, her tackle, apparel and furniture, and do detain and hold the same in my custody until the further order of said District Court.
Now all persons claiming the same or having any authority to say why the property should not be condemned and sold in payment of the Mariner's wages are hereby notified to appear before the said Court to be held at Elizabeth City, in said District, on the 29th day of June, A. D. 1878, then and there to interpose a claim for the same and
cause if any to the contrary.

Rather cool yesterday.
Mother, may I go out to swim?
Strawberries are about "played out."
We've had very little ice cream weather.

A thorn in the bush is worth a dozen in the hand.

White and black is a favorite combination for dresses this season.

An excursion to the black-fish rocks is on the tapis for to-morrow.

What is an old maid? A woman that has been made for a long time.

Fish were plentiful yesterday afternoon and were selling at reasonable prices.

Did you ever reckon up the number of people you would like to lick if they were not rich?

Tomatoes were in market yesterday from some of the truck gardens in this vicinity.

Thank goodness, there is one place where prosperity is to be found—in the dictionary.

Diamond belt buckles are now considered stylish.

Open air flowers are unusually fragrant this summer.

Any man who hauls the American eagle down from his perch is little better than a chicken thief.

Put two slices of cucumber in a photograph and hear whether or not it yells for a doctor.

It is absurd to suppose that a man can speak above his breath, since his mouth is below his nose.

Students often grow old studying the result of other men's labor before they think of doing anything themselves.

Can't some enterprising individual erect a bath house for the convenience of those who would like to take a plunge these sultry days? We think an enterprise of the kind would pay, provided a reasonable price was charged for the use of the bath house.

Few changes are noted in the English style of dress now adopted by gentlemen. Fashionable tailors make the coats of all suits shorter than they have been worn for several seasons; trousers are not so loose in the legs as those lately worn.

First National Bank.

The rumored consolidation of the First National Bank and the Dawson Bank has been effected as will be seen by the notice to that effect published elsewhere in this issue. The business will be conducted by the First National Bank which assumes the deposits and certificates of the other. The Directors are Messrs. E. E.
Burruss, James Dawson, James Sprunt, Alfred Martin and D. G. Worth.

Mr. Burruss continues as President, with Mr. Dawson as Vice President; Mr.
Walker remains Cashier, with Mr. Larkins as Assistant Cashier, and Mr. H. M.
Bowden is retained as Teller and Mr. J.
H. Boatwright as Clerk.

Brown Flour Gems.

One cup of brown (Graham) flour, one teaspoon DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, one cup of sweet milk, one egg, white and yolk beaten separately. Have your gem pans hot, grease well, and bake in a quick oven.

Wine at Evening Parties.

No matter what may be said about the use of wines and liquors, it is the adulteration and trash mixtures that does the mischief. Where pure wines are used we hear no complaint of inebriation. We never hear of intoxication from the use of Sperr's Port Grape Wine, of New Jersey.
This wine is held in high estimation by the best doctors in the country, and was awarded the highest premium at the late Centennial.

Patrons of a first-class hotel justly consider themselves entitled to comfortable rooms, a bountiful bill of fare, and courteous treatment in the office. All these, combined with a notable degree of elegance throughout, are to be found at the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa.

City Court.

James Cunningham, a white sailor, for being drunk and disorderly, cursing and abusing the police, was fined $15 or fifteen days imprisonment. The defendant was locked up.

There being no further business the court adjourned.

Moonlight Excursion.

Mr. Geo. Myers, agent for the Passport, advertises a moonlight excursion down the river on Friday night. The accommodations offered by the Passport are acknowledged unsurpassed, and we refer our readers to the advertisement for particulars.

The Veteran Badges.

The badges ordered by the veteran corp of the Wilmington Light Infantry, through Capt. Jas. H. Allen, have been received.
They are banner shaped and made of red, white and blue ribbon, trimmed with bullion fringe and gold lace. The caps ordered for the corps by Capt. Allen are still in his possession.

Pen up the Hog.

Wilmington should follow the example of some of the villages in the mountains and vote the running at large of hogs in the streets a nuisance. A few nights ago hogs forced an entrance into a vegetable garden and before they were discovered had rooted up a greater portion of the vegetables. Times like these the loss of a vegetable garden is severely felt by most of our citizens, and if owners of hogs allow them to run at large the hog ought to be shot, or driven to the pound.

Benefit of the Library Association.

Some of the ladies of the community who feel an interest in the welfare of the Library Association propose on Monday evening next to give a grand musical entertainment at the Opera House for the benefit of the Association. The best musical talent of the city is engaged for the concert and the ladies will be assisted by Prof. Gonzales. A large and varied programme will be offered and the managers promise an unusually fine concert.

On and Off.

We learned at Smithville last evening that the schooner Alabama, from some port in South America for this port, in ballast, went ashore on Prying Pan shoals, not far from Bald Head light, yesterday morning before day. Capt. James Williams, of the steam tug Orlando, first went to her assistance, and afterwards the steamer Waccamaw, and yesterday afternoon the Alabama was gotten off and will be towed up to the city. Her injuries are thought to be light.

Young Men's Christian Association vs. Female Minstrels.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Charlotte are about to petition the Board of Aldermen of that city to adopt an ordinance prohibiting the future exhibition in that city of female minstrel troupes.

By the way, what has become of the Y. M. C. A. of Wilmington? We used to have an association of that kind here, but we haven't heard of it in a long time, and if it is still alive, we think they might strive to emulate the example of their brethren in our sister city, for there is certainly nothing more immoral and demor-alizing for the youth of the land than such indecent performances as those given by the female troupe, known as the "Dizzy Blondes."

Smithville Last Night.

The ancient town of "Smithville" was alive last night, the steamers Passport and Underhill having flooded the garrison and streets with pleasure-seeking Wilmingtonians.
We were one of those who took passage on the Passport, and the gallant little boat, although she was full of people, made the trip down and back in her usual quick time, without having had the slightest accident to mar the enjoyment of the occasion, if we may except the loss of several beautiful new straw hats sported by various young men, which, although rather hard on the hatless voyagers, yet afforded a fund of amusement for the others.

There were about 275 persons on the boat. Mr. George Myers, the agent, was along and exerted himself very successfully for the entertainment of everybody on board.

The night was bright and beautiful, but rather cool, with a pretty stiff breeze blowing, which was pronounced rather too flow-ry for pleasant sailing, and hence there were no boats out. The Court House was filled to overflowing with the audience drawn there to witness the representation of the Cantata and the whole affair was, in every way, a decided and delightful success.

The Dogs.

An item of interest to owners of dogs will be found in the advertising columns in this issue. The dog cart will be sent out next Monday and all dogs found running at large will be impounded and killed.
In addition to this an officer will be sent out to take a list of all dogs on private premises and the penalty will be enforced against all who fail to comply with the provisions of the law.

Styles in Shoes.

For gentlemen the low Oxford ties of calfskin are the shoes for street wear in Summer. They are made with rather narrower toes than those lately worn, and broad, low heels. There are also buttoned gaiters with kip toes for ordinary wear.
For dress occasions are patent-leather gaiters with black tops. An attempt has been made to introduce sharp pointed toes, but these crowd the foot painfully, and have not met with favor.

Complimentary Entertainment.

A party of young students, fresh from the University, with academic honors, gave a complimentary German to a few of the Raleigh young ladies in the City of Oaks on Monday night, and among the ladies mentioned as being present we notice the name of Miss May Allen Meares, of this city, and also Misses Placide and Rosabel Englehard, formerly of this city, but now residents of Raleigh.

Good Enough.

A good joke is told on a friend of ours, recently a merchant in this city, who was a passenger on board the steamship Raleigh on her recent trip from Baltimore to this port. On Sunday and Sunday night it blew some very big guns and our friend, who is, by the way, a firm believer in a future state of punishment, was terribly afraid that the old Raleigh could not keep her sea legs under her, as well, indeed, he might be, for it was a terrible blow. On Sunday night the sea was so heavy that some of the funnel guys, known as supports for the smokestack, were carried away. In endeavoring to clear the deck our friend overheard an order given to "cut it way," and thinking that this order was given to cut the smoke stack away, he concluded that things were gone up and that it was time for every man to look out for himself. He thereupon rushed into the cabin for the purpose of securing a life-preserver and soon after reappeared with a Babcock fire extinguisher slung around his neck and ready to commit himself to the ruthless waves as a last frail hope. This, however, was not considered necessary and he was politely informed that Babcock's fire extinguishers were made for putting out fires in this world and not in the next.
Our friend didn't get afraid, but the story did and now he will have a chance every day for a week to get mad and knock somebody over.

Miniature Yacht Race.

Preparations are in progress, we understand, among some of the juveniles in this city for a grand miniature yacht race, to take place in Chadbourne's mill pen, on the 6th of July. The little fellows are now whittling away for dear life, and they talk very knowingly about the sailing qualities of their respective boats.
There will be some very pretty little yachts entered in this contest.

Among those registered at the Yarbrough House in Raleigh, on Monday, were Maj. D. J. Devane, Col. W. A. Allen, Judge Cantwell and Messrs. A. T. London and Jno. D. Bellamy.

We are glad to learn that Rev. Dr.
Patterson, who has been sick at Chapel Hill, was better at last accounts. He is probably in Raleigh now and expects to return here on Friday or Saturday.

City Taxes.

To The Editor of "The Daily Review." DEAR SIR:—On looking over the "General Tax Ordinance, City of Wilmington," for the year 1878, I failed to see where Insurance Companies, or their Agents, are taxed as a class, or otherwise, except their incomes. Perhaps they come under the special care of the Finance Committee, Sec. 10, who seem to have discretionary tax powers conferred upon them.
A little light on the subject would oblige more than one.

TAX-PAYER.

Weather Report.

The indications of the weather, as received at the Signal Office in this city at 10 o'clock this forenoon, are as follows:

In the South Atlantic State rising followed by falling barometer light variable winds and warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather will prevail.

Quarterly Meeting.

Rev. L. S. Burkhead, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District, Methodist E. Church, South, has made the following appointments to complete his second round of quarterly meetings:

The Worley Murderers.

THE THREE MURDERERS OF THE Worley family in Wayne county will expiate that atrocious crime on the gallows, in Goldboro, Friday, the 14th inst. Mr. Bonitz, editor of the Goldboro Messenger, has in press an interesting and carefully prepared account of the shocking murder, to be issued in book form immediately after the execution, giving a continuity to the events which transpired from the discovery of the bodies to the final sentence and execution of the murderers, including their trial, testimony, and the speeches of counsel. The book will be ready for sale by the 15th. Price 35 cents each; or $3.25 per dozen copies; free by mail. Orders promptly filled. Address
